(f) Each Global Note and each Definitive Note issued at a more than de minimis discount to its redemption price at maturity (and all Notes issued in exchange therefor or substitution thereof) will bear an OID Legend in substantially the following form (the “OID Legend”):

THIS NOTE IS ISSUED WITH ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 1271 ET SEQ. OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE. A HOLDER MAY OBTAIN THE ISSUE PRICE, AMOUNT OF ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT, ISSUE DATE AND YIELD TO MATURITY FOR SUCH NOTE BY SUBMITTING A REQUEST FOR SUCH INFORMATION TO THE ISSUERS AT THE FOLLOWING ADDRESS: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP LTD INC., ONE MARCUS SQUARE, 1618 MAIN STREET, DALLAS, TX 75201, ATTENTION: LEGAL DEPARTMENT.

(g) Members of, or Participants in, the Depositary (“Agent Members”) will have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Depositary, or the Trustee as its Notes Custodian and the Depositary may be treated by the Issuers, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of the Global Note for all purposes whatsoever, including notices and payments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein will prevent the Issuers, the Trustee or any agent of the Issuers or the Trustee from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Note. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any notice to be delivered to DTC (including, but not limited to, a notice of redemption) may be delivered electronically by the Trustee or the Issuers in accordance with Applicable Procedures of DTC.

SECTION 2.2. Form of Execution and Authentication. An Officer will sign the Notes for each of the Issuers by manual or facsimile signature.

If an Officer whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time the Note is authenticated, the Note will nevertheless be valid.

A Note will not be valid until authenticated by the manual signature of the Trustee. The signature of the Trustee will be conclusive evidence that the Note has been authenticated under this Indenture.

The Trustee will authenticate (a) Initial Notes for original issue on the Issue Date in an aggregate principal amount of $497,849,150 and (b) subject to compliance with Section 3.3, one or more series of Additional Notes for original issue after the Issue Date (such Notes to be substantially in the form of Exhibit A) in an unlimited amount, in each case upon written order of each of the Issuers signed by an Officer of each of the Issuers (an “Authentication Order”), which Authentication Order will, in the case of any issuance of Additional Notes, certify that such issuance is in compliance with Section 3.3. In addition, each such Authentication Order will specify the amount of Notes to be authenticated, the date on which the Notes are to be authenticated, whether the securities are to be Initial Notes or Additional Notes and the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding on the date of authentication, and will further specify the amount of such Notes to be issued as Global Notes or Definitive Notes. Such Notes will initially be in the form of one or more Global Notes, which (i) will represent, and will be denominated in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of, the Notes to be issued, (ii) will be registered in the name of the Depositary or its nominee and (iii) will be held by the Trustee as Notes Custodian.

The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent reasonably acceptable to the Issuers to authenticate Notes. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, an authenticating agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as an Agent to deal with the Issuers or any Affiliate of the Issuers.

SECTION 2.3. Registrar and Paying Agent. The Issuers will maintain (i) an office or agency where Notes may be presented for registration of transfer or for exchange (including any co-registrar, the “Registrar”) and (ii) an office or agency in the United States where Notes may be presented for payment (“Paying Agent”). The Registrar will keep a register of the Notes and of their transfer and exchange and, upon written request from the Issuers, the Registrar will provide the Issuers with a copy of such register to enable them to maintain a register of the Notes at their registered offices. The Issuers may appoint one or more co-registars and one or more additional paying agents. The term “Paying Agent” includes any additional paying agent. The Issuers may change any Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar without prior notice to any Holder. The Issuers will notify the Trustee in writing and the Trustee will notify the Holders of the name and address of any Agent not a party to this Indenture. The Issuers or any of their Subsidiaries may act as Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar. The Issuers will enter into an appropriate agency agreement with any Agent not a party to this Indenture. The agreement will implement the provisions hereof that relate to such Agent. The Issuers will notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of any such Agent. If the Issuers fail to maintain a Registrar or Paying Agent, or fails to give the foregoing notice, the Trustee will act as such, and will be entitled to appropriate compensation in accordance with Section 7.6.

The Issuers initially appoint the Trustee as Registrar, Paying Agent and to act as Notes Custodian with respect to the Notes.

The Issuers shall be responsible for making all calculations called for under the Notes, including but not limited to determination of redemption price, premium, if any, interest, and any additional amounts or other amounts payable on the Notes. The Issuers will make the calculations in good faith and, absent manifest error, their calculations will be final and binding on the Holders. The Issuers will provide a schedule of such calculations to the Trustee, certified by an Officer of the Issuer, and the Trustee is entitled to rely conclusively on the accuracy of the Issuer’s calculations without independent verification. The Trustee shall forward the Issuers’ calculations to any Holder upon the written request of such Holder.

SECTION 2.4. Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust. The Issuers will require each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to agree in writing that the Paying Agent will hold in trust for the benefit of the Holders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes, and will notify the Trustee in writing of any Default by the Issuers in making any such payment. While any such Default continues, the Trustee may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee. The Issuers at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by such Paying Agent to the Trustee. Upon payment over to the Trustee, the Paying Agent (if other than one of the Issuers) will have no further liability for the money delivered to the Trustee. If one of the Issuers acts as Paying Agent, it will segregate and hold in a separate trust fund for the benefit of the Holders all money held by it as Paying Agent.

SECTION 2.5. Lists of Holders. The Trustee will preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Holders and will otherwise comply with TIA § 312(a). If the Trustee is not the Registrar, the Issuers will furnish to the Trustee at least seven Business Days before each Interest Payment Date and at such other times as the Trustee may request in writing a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Holders, including the aggregate principal amount of the Notes held by each thereof, and the Issuers will otherwise comply with TIA § 312(a).

SECTION 2.6. Transfer and Exchange.

(a) Transfer and Exchange of Global Notes. A Global Note may not be transferred except, as a whole, by the Depositary to a nominee of the Depositary, by a nominee of the Depositary to the Depositary or to another nominee of the Depositary, or by the Depositary or any such nominee to a successor Depositary or a nominee of such successor Depositary. Global Notes will be exchanged by the Issuers for Definitive Notes, subject to any applicable laws, only (i) if the Issuers deliver to the Trustee written notice from the Depositary that the Depositary is unwilling or unable to continue to act as Depositary for the Global Notes or that it is no longer a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in either case, the Issuers fail to appoint a successor Depositary within 120 days after the date of such notice from the Depositary; (ii) if the Issuers in their sole discretion determine that the Global Notes (in whole but not in part) should be exchanged for Definitive Notes and deliver a written notice to such effect to the Trustee; provided that in no event will the Temporary Regulation S Global Note be exchanged by the Issuers for Definitive Notes prior to (A) the expiration of the Restricted Period and (B) the receipt by the Registrar of any certificates required pursuant to Rule 903(b)(3)(ii)(B) under the Securities Act; or (iii) upon request of the Trustee or Holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes if there will have occurred and be continuing an Event of Default with respect to the Notes. In any such case, the Issuers will notify the Trustee in writing that, upon surrender by the Participants and Indirect Participants of their interests in such Global Note, certificated Notes will be issued to each Person that such Participants, Indirect Participants and DTC jointly identify as being the beneficial owner of the related Notes. Global Notes also may be exchanged or replaced, in whole or in part, as provided in Section 2.7 and Section 2.10. Every Note authenticated and delivered in exchange for, or in lieu of, a Global Note or any portion thereof, pursuant to this Section 2.6 or Section 2.7 or Section 2.10, will be authenticated and delivered in the form of, and will be, a Global Note. A Global Note may not be exchanged for another Note other than as provided in this Section 2.6(a). However, beneficial interests in a Global Note may be transferred and exchanged as provided in Section 2.6(b) or Section 2.6(c) below.

(b) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests in the Global Notes. The transfer and exchange of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be effected through the Depositary, in accordance with the provisions hereof and the Applicable Procedures. Beneficial interests in the Restricted Global Notes will be subject to restrictions on transfer comparable to those set forth in this Indenture to the extent required by the Securities Act. Transfers of beneficial interests in the Global Notes also will require compliance with the applicable subparagraphs below.

(i) Transfer of Beneficial Interests in the Same Global Note. Beneficial interests in any Restricted Global Note may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in the same Restricted Global Note in accordance with the transfer restrictions set forth in the Private Placement Legend; provided, however, that prior to the expiration of the Restricted Period, no transfer of beneficial interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note may be made to a U.S. Person or for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person (other than an Initial Purchaser) unless permitted by applicable law and made in compliance with Section 2.6(b)(i) and Section 2.6(b)(ii) below. Beneficial interests in any Unrestricted Global Note may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note. No written orders or instructions will be required to be delivered to the Registrar to effect the transfers described in this Section 2.6(b)(i) unless specifically stated above.

(ii) All Other Transfers and Exchanges of Beneficial Interests in Global Notes. In connection with all transfers and exchanges of beneficial interests that are not subject to Section 2.6(b)(i) above, the transferor of such beneficial interest must deliver to the Registrar either (A) (1) a written order from a Participant or an Indirect Participant given to the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures directing the Depositary to credit or cause to be credited a beneficial interest in another Global Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest to be transferred or exchanged and (2) instructions given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Participant account to be credited with such increase, or (B) (1) if Definitive Notes are at such time permitted to be issued pursuant to this Indenture, a written order from a Participant or an Indirect Participant given to the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures directing the Depositary to cause to be issued a Definitive Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest to be transferred or exchanged and (2) instructions given by the Depositary to the Registrar containing information regarding the Person in whose name such Definitive Note will be registered to effect the transfer or exchange referred to in (1) immediately above; provided that in no event will Definitive Notes be issued upon the transfer or exchange of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note prior to (A) the expiration of the Restricted Period and (B) the receipt by the Registrar of any certificates required pursuant to Rule 903 under the Securities Act. Upon satisfaction of all of the requirements for transfer or exchange of beneficial interests in Global Notes contained in this Indenture and the Notes or otherwise applicable under the Securities Act, the Trustee will adjust the principal amount of the relevant Global Note(s) pursuant to Section 2.6(i) below.

(iii) Transfer of Beneficial Interests to Another Restricted Global Note. A beneficial interest in any Restricted Global Note may be transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Restricted Global Note if the transfer complies with the requirements of Section 2.6(b)(ii) above and the Registrar receives the following:

(A) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in a 144A Global Note, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (1) thereof;

(iv) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests in a Restricted Global Note for Beneficial Interests in an Unrestricted Global Note. A beneficial interest in any Restricted Global Note may be exchanged by any holder thereof for a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note or transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note if the exchange or transfer complies with the requirements of Section 2.6(b)(ii) above, and

(A) the Registrar receives the following:

If any such transfer is effected pursuant to subparagraph (A) above at a time when an Unrestricted Global Note has not yet been issued, the Issuer will issue and, upon receipt of an Authentication Order in accordance with Section 2.2, the Trustee will authenticate one or more Unrestricted Global Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of beneficial interests transferred pursuant to subparagraph (A) above.

Beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Global Note cannot be exchanged for, or transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of, a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note.

(c) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests for Definitive Notes.

(i) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests in Restricted Global Notes for Restricted Definitive Notes. Subject to Section 2.6(a), if any holder of a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for a Restricted Definitive Note or to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a Restricted Definitive Note, then upon receipt by the Registrar of the following documentation:

The Trustee will deliver such Restricted Definitive Notes to the Persons in whose names such Notes are so registered. Any Restricted Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.6(c)(i) will bear the Private Placement Legend and will be subject to all restrictions on transfer contained therein.

Subject to Section 2.6(a), if any holder of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for an Unrestricted Definitive Note or to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of an Unrestricted Definitive Note, then, upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 2.6(b)(ii) above, the Trustee will cause the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Global Note to be reduced accordingly pursuant to Section 2.6(i) below, and the Issuers will execute and the Trustee will authenticate and deliver to the Person designated in the certificate an Unrestricted Definitive Note in the appropriate principal amount. Any Unrestricted Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest pursuant to this Section 2.6(c)(iv) will be registered in such name or names and in such authorized denomination or denominations as the holder of such beneficial interest will instruct the Registrar through instructions from the Depositary and the Participant or Indirect Participant. Upon satisfaction of the conditions of any of the subparagraphs in this Section 2.6(d)(ii), the Trustee will cancel the Definitive Notes and increase or cause to be increased the aggregate principal amount of the Unrestricted Global Note.

(iii) Transfer and Exchange of Unrestricted Definitive Notes for Beneficial Interests in Unrestricted Global Notes. A Holder of an Unrestricted Definitive Note may exchange such Note for a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note or transfer such Unrestricted Definitive Notes to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note at any time. Upon receipt of a request for such an exchange or transfer, the Trustee will cancel the applicable Unrestricted Definitive Note and increase or cause to be increased the aggregate principal amount of one of the Unrestricted Global Notes.

If any such exchange or transfer from an Unrestricted Definitive Note or a Restricted Definitive Note, as the case may be, to a beneficial interest is effected pursuant to Section 2.6(d)(ii)(A) or this Section 2.6(d)(iii) above at a time when an Unrestricted Global Note has not yet been issued, the Issuers will issue and, upon receipt of an Authentication Order in accordance with Section 2.2, the Trustee will authenticate one or more Unrestricted Global Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Unrestricted Definitive Notes or Restricted Definitive Notes, as the case may be, so transferred.

(e) Transfer and Exchange of Definitive Notes for Definitive Notes. Upon request by a Holder of Definitive Notes and such Holder’s compliance with the provisions of this Section 2.6(e), the Registrar will register the transfer or exchange of Definitive Notes. Prior to such registration of transfer or exchange, the requesting Holder will present or surrender to the Registrar the Definitive Notes duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instruction of transfer in form satisfactory to the Registrar duly executed by such Holder or its attorney, duly authorized in writing. In addition, the requesting Holder will provide any additional certifications, documents and information, as applicable, required pursuant to the following provisions of this Section 2.6(e).

(i) Transfer of Restricted Definitive Notes to Restricted Definitive Notes. Any Restricted Definitive Note may be transferred to and registered in the name of Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a Restricted Definitive Note if the Registrar receives the following:

   (A) if the transfer will be made pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (1) thereof;

   (B) if the transfer will be made pursuant to Rule 903 or Rule 904, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (2) thereof; and

   (C) if the transfer will be made pursuant to any other exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including, if the Issuers so request, a certification and/or Opinion of Counsel in form reasonably acceptable to the Issuers to the effect that such transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act.

(ii) Transfer and Exchange of Restricted Definitive Notes for Unrestricted Definitive Notes. Any Restricted Definitive Note may be exchanged by the Holder thereof for an Unrestricted Definitive Note or transferred to a Person or Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of an Unrestricted Definitive Note if:

   (A) the Registrar receives the following:

      (1) if the Holder of such Restricted Definitive Notes proposes to exchange such Notes for an Unrestricted Definitive Note, a certificate from such Holder in the form of Exhibit C hereto, including the certifications in item (1)(d) thereof; or

      (2) if the Holder of such Restricted Definitive Notes proposes to transfer such Notes to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of an Unrestricted Definitive Note, a certificate from such Holder in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the applicable certifications in item (4) thereof; and, in each such case set forth in this subparagraph (A), if the Registrar or the Issuers so request, an Opinion of Counsel of the Holder or the Issuers (except in the case the Issuers so request) in form reasonably acceptable to the Issuers to the effect that such exchange or transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act and that the restrictions on transfer contained in this Indenture and in the Private Placement Legend are no longer required in order to maintain compliance with the Securities Act.

(iii) Transfer of Unrestricted Definitive Notes to Unrestricted Definitive Notes. A Holder of Unrestricted Definitive Notes may transfer such Notes to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of an Unrestricted Definitive Note. Upon receipt of a request to register such a transfer, the Registrar will register the Unrestricted Definitive Notes pursuant to the instructions from the Holder thereof.

(f) Temporary Regulation S Global Note.

(i) Notes offered and sold in reliance on Regulation S will be issued initially in the form of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note, which will be deposited on behalf of the purchasers of the Notes represented thereby with the Notes Custodian and registered in the name of the Depositary or the nominee of the Depositary for the accounts of designated agents holding on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, duly executed by the Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(ii) During the Restricted Period, beneficial ownership interests in Temporary Regulation S Global Notes may only be sold, pledged or transferred (A) to the Issuers, (B) in an offshore transaction in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation S (other than a transaction resulting in an exchange for an interest in a Permanent Regulation S Global Note) or (C) pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, in each case in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any State of the United States; and beneficial interests in a 144A Global Note may be transferred to a Person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in a Regulation S Global Note, whether before or after the expiration of the Restricted Period, only if the transferor first delivers to the Trustee a written certificate to the effect that such transfer is being made in accordance with Rule 903 or 904 of Regulation S or Rule 144 (if applicable).

(iii) Within a reasonable period after expiration or termination of the Restricted Period, beneficial interests in each Temporary Regulation S Global Note will be exchanged for beneficial interests in a Permanent Regulation S Global Note upon delivery to DTC of the certification of compliance and the transfer of applicable Notes pursuant to the Applicable Procedures. Simultaneously with the authentication of the corresponding Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Trustee will cancel the corresponding Temporary Regulation S Global Note. The aggregate principal amount of a Temporary Regulation S Global Note and a Permanent Regulation S Global Note may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee and the Depositary or its nominee, as the case may be, in connection with transfers of interest as hereinafter provided.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.6, a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note may not be exchanged for a Definitive Note or transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a Definitive Note prior to (A) the expiration of the Restricted Period and (B) the receipt by the Registrar of any certificates required pursuant to Rule 903(b)(3)(ii)(B) of the Securities Act, except in the case of a transfer pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act other than Rule 903 or Rule 904.
(g) Private Placement Legend.

(i) Except as permitted by subparagraph (ii) below, each Restricted Global Note and each Restricted Definitive Note (and all Notes issued in exchange therefor or substitution thereof) will bear the Private Placement Legend.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Global Note or Definitive Note issued pursuant to subparagraph (b)(iv), (c)(iii), (c)(iv), (d)(ii), (d)(iii), (e)(ii) or (e)(iii) of this Section 2.6 (and all Notes issued in exchange therefor or substitution thereof) will not bear the Private Placement Legend.

(h) Global Note Legend. Each Global Note will bear the Global Note Legend.

(i) Cancellation and/or Adjustment of Global Notes. At such time as all beneficial interests in a particular Global Note have been exchanged for Definitive Notes or a particular Global Note has been redeemed, repurchased or canceled in whole and not in part, each such Global Note will be returned to or retained and canceled by the Trustee in accordance with Section 2.11. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Note is exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Note or for Definitive Notes, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note will be reduced accordingly and an endorsement will be made on such Global Note by the Trustee or by the Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such reduction; and if the beneficial interest is being exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Note, such other Global Note will be increased accordingly and an endorsement will be made on such Global Note by the Trustee or by the Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such increase.

(j) General Provisions Relating to Transfers and Exchanges.

(i) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Issuers will execute and the Trustee will authenticate Global Notes and Definitive Notes upon receipt of an Authentication Order in accordance with Section 2.2 or at the Registrar’s request.

(ii) No service charge will be made to a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or to a Holder of a Definitive Note for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Issuers may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer taxes or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Sections 2.2, 2.10, 3.7, 3.9, 5.7, 5.8 and 9.4).

(iii) All Global Notes and Definitive Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Global Notes or Definitive Notes will be the valid obligations of the Issuers, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits hereof, as the Global Notes or Definitive Notes surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(iv) Neither the Registrar nor the Issuers will be required (A) to issue, to register the transfer of or to exchange any Notes during a period beginning at the opening of business on a Business Day 15 days before the delivery of a notice of redemption of Notes and ending at the close of business on the day of such delivery, (B) to register the transfer of or to exchange any Note so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part or (C) to register the transfer of or to exchange a Note between a Record Date and the next succeeding Interest Payment Date.

(v) Prior to due presentment for the registration of a transfer of any Note, the Trustee, any Agent and the Issuers may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Notes and for all other purposes, and none of the Trustee, any Agent or the Issuers will be affected by notice to the contrary.

(vi) The Trustee will authenticate Global Notes and Definitive Notes in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2.

(vii) All certifications, certificates and Opinions of Counsel required to be submitted to the Registrar pursuant to this Section 2.6 to effect a registration of transfer or exchange may be submitted by facsimile or electronically.

(viii) The Trustee will have no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Indenture or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Note (including any transfers between or among Participants or Indirect Participants) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof.

(ix) Neither the Trustee, the Issuers nor any Agent will have any responsibility for any actions taken or not taken by the Depositary.

(x) Affiliates of the Issuers, including investment funds affiliated with either of the Sponsors, may acquire, hold and dispose of the Notes and exercise voting, consent and other similar rights with respect to such Notes (subject to the express restrictions contained in this Indenture).

SECTION 2.7. Replacement Notes. If any mutilated Note is surrendered to the Trustee, or the Issuers and the Trustee receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note, the Issuers will issue and the Trustee, upon receipt of an Authentication Order, will authenticate a replacement Note if the Trustee’s requirements for replacements of Notes are met. The Holder must supply Every replacement Note is an obligation of the Issuers.

SECTION 2.8. Outstanding Notes. The Notes outstanding at any time are all the Notes authenticated by the Trustee except for those canceled by it, those delivered to it for cancellation and those described in this Section 2.8 as not outstanding.

If a Note is replaced pursuant to Section 2.7, it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee receives proof satisfactory to it that the replaced Note is held by a protected purchaser.

If the principal amount of any Note is considered paid under Section 3.1, it will cease to be outstanding and interest on it will cease to accrue.

Subject to Section 2.9, a Note does not cease to be outstanding because the Issuers, a Subsidiary of the Issuers or an Affiliate of any of the Issuers holds the Note.

SECTION 2.9. Treasury Notes. In determining whether the Holders of the requisite portion of outstanding Notes have concurred in any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, waiver or consent (other than in respect of any action pursuant to Section 9.2(a), which requires the consent of each Holder of an affected Note), Notes Beneficially Owned by, or held by or for the account of, the Issuers, any Subsidiary of the Issuers or any Affiliate of any of the Issuers will be disregarded and considered as though not outstanding. For purposes of determining whether the Trustee will be protected in relying on any such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, waiver or consent, only Notes which a Trust Officer actually knows to be so Beneficially Owned or held will be considered as not outstanding. Upon request of the Trustee, the Issuers will promptly furnish to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate listing and identifying all Notes, if any, known by the Issuers to be Beneficially Owned or held by or for the account of any of the above-described persons, and the Trustee will be entitled to accept such Officer’s Certificate as conclusive evidence of the facts therein set forth and of the fact that all Notes not listed therein are outstanding for the purpose of any such determination.

SECTION 2.10. Temporary Notes. Until Definitive Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuers may prepare and the Trustee will upon receipt of an Authentication Order authenticate temporary Notes. Temporary Notes will be substantially in the form of Definitive Notes but may have variations that the Issuers consider appropriate for temporary Notes. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuers will prepare and the Trustee, upon receipt of an Authentication Order, will authenticate Definitive Notes in exchange.
SECTION 2.11. Cancellation. The Issuers at any time may deliver Notes to the Trustee for cancellation. The Registrar and Paying Agent will forward to the Trustee any Notes surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee will cancel all Notes surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment, replacement or cancellation and will dispose of all canceled Notes in its customary manner (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act and the Trustee), and upon the written request of the Issuers, the Trustee will deliver copies of such canceled Notes to the Issuers. The Issuers may not issue new Notes to replace Notes that it has redeemed or paid or that have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

SECTION 2.12. Payment of Interest; Defaulted Interest.

(a) Interest on any Note which is payable, and is punctually paid or duly provided for, on any Interest Payment Date will be paid to the Person in whose name such Note (or one or more predecessor Notes) is registered at the close of business on the regular Record Date for such interest at the office or agency of the Issuers maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 2.3.

(b) Any interest on any Note which is payable, but is not paid when the same becomes due and payable and such nonpayment continues for a period of 30 days will forthwith cease to be payable to the Holder on the regular Record Date by virtue of having been such Holder, and such defaulted interest and (to the extent lawful) interest on such defaulted interest at the rate borne by the Notes (such defaulted interest and interest thereon herein collectively called “Defaulted Interest”) will be paid by the Issuers, at their election in each case, as provided in clause (i) or (ii) below:

(i) The Issuers may elect to make payment of any Defaulted Interest to the Persons in whose names the Notes (or their respective predecessor Notes) are registered at the close of business on a Special Record Date (as defined below) for the payment of such Defaulted Interest, which will be fixed in the following manner. The Issuers will notify the Trustee in writing of the amount of Defaulted Interest proposed to be paid on each Note and the date (not less than 30 days after such notice unless a shorter period will be acceptable to the Trustee) of the proposed payment (the “Special Interest Payment Date”), and at the same time the Issuers will deposit with the Trustee an amount of money equal to the aggregate amount proposed to be paid in respect of such Defaulted Interest or will make arrangements for such deposit prior to the date of the proposed payment, such money when deposited to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such Defaulted Interest as in this clause provided. Thereupon the Issuers will fix a record date (the “Special Record Date”) for the payment of such Defaulted Interest, which will be not more than 15 days and not less than 10 days prior to the Special Interest Payment Date and not less than 10 days after the receipt by the Trustee of the notice of the proposed payment. The Issuers will promptly notify the Trustee of such Special Record Date and will, or at the written request and in the name and expense of the Issuers, the Trustee will, cause notice of the proposed payment of such Defaulted Interest and the Special Record Date and Special Interest Payment Date therefor to be given in the manner provided for in Section 13.1, not less than 10 days prior to such Special Record Date. Notice of the proposed payment of such Defaulted Interest and the Special Record Date and Special Interest Payment Date therefor having been so given, such Defaulted Interest will be paid on the Special Interest Payment Date to the Persons in whose names the Notes (or their respective predecessor Notes) are registered at the close of business on such Special Record Date and will no longer be payable pursuant to the following clause (ii).

(ii) The Issuers may make payment of any Defaulted Interest in any other lawful manner not inconsistent with the requirements of any securities exchange on which the Notes may be listed, and upon such notice as may be required by such exchange, if, after notice given by the Issuers to the Trustee of the proposed payment pursuant to this clause (ii), such manner of payment will be deemed practicable by the Trustee.

(c) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section, each Note delivered under this Indenture upon registration of transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of any other Note will carry the rights to interest accrued and unpaid, and to accrue, which were carried by such other Note.

SECTION 2.13. CUSIP and ISIN Numbers. The Issuers in issuing the Notes may use “CUSIP” and/or “ISIN” numbers (if then generally in use). The Trustee will not be responsible for the use of CUSIP or ISIN numbers, and the Trustee makes no representation as to their correctness as printed on any Note or notice to Holders. The Issuers will promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any change in the CUSIP or ISIN numbers. A separate CUSIP or ISIN number will be issued for any Additional Notes, unless (i) the Initial Notes and such Additional Notes have the same maturity date, interest rate and optional redemption provisions and are treated as “fungible” for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (ii) both the Initial Notes and such Additional Notes are issued in the same series (as set forth in Section 2.2) without (or with less than a de minimis amount of) original issue discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (iii) another then-recognized identifier is used.

SECTION 2.14. Record Date. The Record Date for purposes of determining the identity of Holders entitled to vote or consent to any action by vote or consent authorized or permitted under this Indenture will be determined as provided for in TIA § 316(c).

ARTICLE III

Covenants

SECTION 3.1. Payment of Notes. The Issuers will promptly pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes on the dates and in the manner provided in the Notes and in this Indenture. Principal, premium, if any, and interest will be considered paid on the date due if by 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on such date the Trustee or the Paying Agent holds in accordance with this Indenture money sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest then due and the Trustee or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, is not prohibited from paying such money to the Holders on that date pursuant to the terms of this Indenture.

The Issuers will pay interest on overdue principal at the rate specified therefor in the Notes.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, the Issuers may, to the extent they are required to do so by law, deduct or withhold income or other similar taxes imposed by the United States of America from principal or interest payments hereunder. Either Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor or any successor in interest to any of the foregoing (each, a “Payor”) may withhold from any interest payment made on any Note to or for the benefit of any Person who is not a “United States person” (as such term is defined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) U.S. federal withholding tax, and pay such withheld amounts to the Internal Revenue Service, unless such Person provides documentation to such Issuer or other Payor such that an exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax would apply to such payment if interest on such Note were treated entirely as income from sources within the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 3.2. Reports and Other Information.

(a) Whether or not the Issuer is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, the Issuer will provide to the Holders and the Trustee the following reports:

(i) within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year (or such longer period as would be provided by the SEC if the Issuer were then subject to SEC reporting requirements as a non-accelerated filer), an annual report containing:

(A) audited annual financial statements of the Issuer and a report thereon from the Issuer’s independent accounting firm;

(B) a “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” section similar in scope to the information required under such caption by Form 10-K of the Exchange Act (which shall include a reasonably detailed description during the most recently completed fiscal quarter of any Permitted Investment in excess of $15.0 million made pursuant to clause (24) of the definition thereof); and

(C) until the MYT Completed Disposition occurs, a narrative discussion of the key financial metrics of the MYT Entities consistent with a customary earnings press release;

(ii) within 45 days after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters of each fiscal year (or such longer period as would be permitted by the SEC if the Issuer were then subject to SEC reporting requirements as a non-accelerated filer), quarterly reports containing:

(A) unaudited quarterly financial statements of the Issuer for the fiscal quarter most recently ended and the corresponding fiscal quarter of the prior fiscal year;

(B) a “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” similar in scope to the information required under such caption by Form 10-Q of the Exchange Act and, in the case of the second and third fiscal quarters, the period from the beginning of such fiscal year to the end of such fiscal quarter (which shall include a reasonably detailed description during the most recently completed fiscal quarter of any Permitted Investment in excess of $15.0 million made pursuant to clause (24) of the definition thereof); and

(C) until the MYT Completed Disposition occurs, a narrative discussion of the key financial metrics of the MYT Entities consistent with a customary earnings press release; and

(iii) within the time period specified for filing current reports on Form 8-K by the SEC, all current reports that would be required to be filed with the SEC on Form 8-K if the Issuer were required to file such reports for any of the following events (A) significant acquisitions or dispositions by the Issuer or its Restricted Subsidiaries or the MYT Entities, (B) the bankruptcy of the Issuer or a Significant Subsidiary or of any of the MYT Entities, (C) the acceleration of any Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary or any of the MYT Entities having a principal amount in excess of $15.0 million, (D) a change in the Issuer’s certifying independent auditor, (E) the appointment or departure of the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer (or persons fulfilling similar duties) of the Issuer or any of the MYT Operating Entities, (F) non-reliance on previously issued financial statements of the Issuer or the MYT Entities, (G) change of control transactions with respect to the Issuer or the MYT Entities, (H) entering into, materially modifying or terminating material contracts of the Issuer or its Restricted Subsidiaries (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding officer employment arrangements) and (I) the incurrence of costs associated with exit or disposal activities by the Issuer, its Restricted Subsidiaries or the MYT Entities; and

(iv) In addition, the Issuer shall provide, in the same manner as the reports described above, copies of all operative Indebtedness Documents (including full and complete schedules and exhibits thereto) with respect to any outstanding Indebtedness of the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries or the MYT Entities whose principal amount (or committed amount) exceeds $25.0 million.

The information described in clauses (iii) and (iv) above with respect to the MYT Entities need not be provided after the MYT Completed Disposition occurs.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the Issuer will not be required to furnish any information, certificates or reports required by (A) Section 302, Section 404 or Section 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, or related Items 307 or 308 of Regulation S-K or
(B) Regulation G or Item 10(e) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC with respect to any non-generally accepted accounting principles financial measures contained therein, (ii) the reports referred to above will not be required to contain the separate financial statements or other information contemplated by Rule 3-05, Rule 3-09, Rule 3-10 or Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X and (iii) the reports referred to above will not be required to present compensation or beneficial ownership information.

(c) At any time that the Issuer (and any applicable Parent Entity) is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, in lieu of filing such reports with the SEC, the Issuer may make available such information electronically (including by posting to a non-public, password-protected website maintained by the Issuer or a third party) to any Holder, any bona fide prospective investor the Notes, any bona fide market maker (or person who intends to be a market maker) in the Note or any bona fide securities analyst, in each case, who provides to the Issuer its email address, employer name and other information reasonably requested by the Issuer. Any Person who requests such financial information from the Issuer or seeks to participate in any conference call required by this covenant will be required to represent to and agree with the Issuer (and by accepting such financial information, such Person will be deemed to have represented to and agreed with the Issuer) to the Issuer’s good faith satisfaction that:

(i) it is a Holder, a bona fide prospective investor in the Notes, a bona fide market maker (or intended market maker) with respect to the Notes or a bona fide securities analyst, as applicable;

(ii) if it is a prospective purchaser of the Notes, it is (A) a Qualified Institutional Buyer (as defined in Rule 144A of the Securities Act), (B) a non-U.S. Person (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) or (C) an institutional “accredited investor” as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act;

(iii) it will not use the information in violation of applicable securities laws or regulations;

(iv) it will not communicate the information to any Person and will keep the information confidential;

(v) it will use such information only in connection with evaluating an investment in the Notes (or, if it is a bona fide market maker or intended market maker, only in connection with making a market in the Notes or, if it is a bona fide securities analyst, for preparing analysis for Holders and prospective purchasers of the Notes that otherwise have access to the financial information in compliance with this covenant); and

(vi) it (A) will not use such information in any manner intended to compete with the business of the Issuer and (B) is not a Person (which includes such Person’s Affiliates, other than the Affiliates of a bona fide securities research analyst with whom such research analyst does not share such information) that is principally engaged in or derives a significant portion of its revenues from operating or owning a business which is substantially similar to the business engaged in by the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries on the Issue Date.

(d) The Issuer shall respond, as promptly as practicable, in good faith, to any request for access to the website described above.

(e) To the extent not satisfied by the foregoing, for so long as any Notes are outstanding (unless satisfied and discharged or defeased), the Issuer will furnish to Holders and prospective purchasers of the Notes, upon their request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision).

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the financial statements, information, auditors’ reports and other documents required to be provided as described above, may be, rather than those of the Issuer, those of any Parent Entity; provided that, if the financial information so furnished relates to such Parent Entity, the same is accompanied by consolidating information, which may be posted to the website of the Issuer or on a non-public, password-protected website maintained by the Issuer or a third party, which explains in reasonable detail the differences between the information relating to such Parent Entity, on the one hand, and the information relating to the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries on a standalone basis, on the other hand.

(g) Issuer will be deemed to have satisfied the reporting requirements of Section 3.2(a) if (i) at any time that the Issuer or any Parent Entity is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act or is a voluntary filer, the Issuer or any Parent Entity has filed such reports containing such information (including the information required pursuant to Section 3.2(e), which, for the avoidance of doubt, need not be filed with the SEC via EDGAR to the extent it is otherwise provided to Holders in accordance with this Section 3.2) with the SEC via the EDGAR (or successor) filing system or (ii) at any time that the Issuer or any Parent Entity does not file such reports with the SEC via the EDGAR (or a successor) filing system, the Issuer or any Parent Entity makes such reports available electronically (including by posting to a non-public, password-protected website as provided above) pursuant to this Section 3.2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor or confirm, on a continuing basis or otherwise, whether the Issuer or any Parent Entity posts such reports, information and documents on any website or the SEC’s EDGAR service, or to collect any such information from the Issuer’s or any Parent Entity’s website or the SEC’s EDGAR service.

(h) Promptly after the date the annual and quarterly financial information for the prior fiscal period have been furnished pursuant to Section 3.2(q)(i) or Section 3.2(q)(ii), the Issuer will hold a quarterly conference call to review the most recent financial results, which shall also include a discussion of the financial metrics of the MYT Entities and a reasonable question and answer session open to all invited call participants. Prior to the date such conference call is to be held, the Issuer will post to its website or a non-public, password-protected website maintained by the Issuer or a third party an announcement of such quarterly conference call for the benefit of the Trustee, the Holders, beneficial owners of the Notes, prospective purchasers of the Notes, securities analysts and market making financial institutions, which announcement will contain the time and the date of such conference call and direct the recipients thereof to contact an individual at the Issuer (for whom contact information will be provided in such notice) to obtain information on how to access such quarterly conference call; provided that any Person who attends such conference call with the Issuer will be required to represent to and agree with the Issuer (and by attending such conference call, such person will be deemed to have represented and agreed with the Issuer) to clauses (i) through (vi) of Section 3.2(c).

(ii) Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Trustee is for informational purposes only and its receipt of such reports, information and documents shall not constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including the Issuers’, any Parent Entity’s, any Subsidiary Guarantor’s or any other Person’s compliance with any of its covenants under this Indenture or the Notes (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely exclusively on an Officer’s Certificate delivered pursuant to this Indenture). The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the content, filing or timeliness of any report, information or document delivered or filed under or in connection with this Indenture or the transactions contemplated thereunder.

SECTION 3.3. Limitation on Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock.

(a) The Issuer will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, Incur any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness) or issue any shares of Disqualified Stock, and the Issuer will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to issue any shares of Preferred Stock; provided, however, that the Issuers and any Subsidiary Guarantor may Incure unsecured or Junior Lien Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness) or issue shares of Disqualified Stock and any Subsidiary Guarantor may issue shares of Preferred Stock, in each case if the Interest
Coverage Ratio for the Issuer’s most recently ended four full fiscal quarters for which Required Financial Statements have been delivered immediately

SECTION 3.6. Dividend and Other Payment Restrictions Affecting Subsidiaries.

(I) The Issuer will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause or suffer to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or consensual restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary to:

(E) customary encumbrances or restrictions contained in contracts or agreements for the sale of assets applicable to such assets pending consummation of such sale, including customary restrictions with respect to a Restricted Subsidiary imposed pursuant to an agreement entered into for the sale or disposition of all or substantially all the Capital Stock or assets of such Restricted Subsidiary;

any encumbrance or restriction contained in the documents relating to any secured Indebtedness otherwise permitted to be Incurred pursuant to Section 3.3 and Section 3.5 to the extent such documents limit the right of the debtor to dispose of the assets securing such Indebtedness; any encumbrances or restrictions arising or agreed to in the ordinary course of business, not relating to any Indebtedness, and that do not, individually or in the aggregate, materially affect the Issuers’ ability to make anticipated principal or interest payments on the Notes in accordance with this Indenture (as determined by an Officer of the Issuer in good faith);

SECTION 3.7. Asset Sales.

(a) The Issuer will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, cause or make an Asset Sale, unless:

(1) the Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, as the case may be, receives consideration at the time of such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value (as determined at the time of contractually agreeing to such Asset Sale) of the assets sold or otherwise disposed of; and

(2) except in the case of a Permitted Asset Swap, at least 75% of the consideration therefor received by the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, is in the form of cash or Cash Equivalents; provided that the amount of:

(A) any liabilities (as shown on the Issuer’s or such Restricted Subsidiary’s most recent balance sheet or in the notes thereto) of the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary (other than liabilities that are Subordinated Indebtedness) that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets or Equity Interests pursuant to an agreement that releases or indemnifies the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, from further liability (or are otherwise extinguished in connection with the transactions relating to such Asset Sale);

(B) any notes or other obligations or other securities or assets received by the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary from such transferee that are converted by the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary into cash or Cash Equivalents, or by their terms are required to be satisfied for cash or Cash Equivalents (to the extent of the cash or Cash Equivalents received) within 90 days of the receipt thereof; and

(C) any Designated Non-cash Consideration received by the Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in such Asset Sale having an aggregate Fair Market Value, taken together with all other Designated Non-cash Consideration received pursuant to this clause (C) that is at that time outstanding, not to exceed the greater of (x) $25.0 million and (y) 0.35% of Consolidated Total Assets, calculated at the time of the receipt of such Designated Non-cash Consideration (with the Fair Market Value of each item of Designated Non-cash Consideration being measured at the time received and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value) will be deemed to be Cash Equivalents for the purposes of this clause (2).

(b) With respect to any Collateral Asset Sale, the following provisions shall apply:

The Issuer shall cause the Net Cash Proceeds of any Collateral Asset Sale to be deposited immediately in an account subject to a Control Agreement for the benefit of the Notes Collateral Agent pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, which may be a Control Agreement in favor of the ABL Agent, Second Lien Notes Collateral Agent and/or the Extended Term Loan Agent, acting as gratuitous bailee for the benefit of the Notes Collateral Agent pursuant to the ABL Intercreditor Agreement and/or the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement; and

Within 30 days after the Issuer’s or any Restricted Subsidiary’s receipt of the Net Cash Proceeds of any Collateral Asset Sale, the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary shall apply an amount equal to the Net Cash Proceeds from such Collateral Asset Sale, at its option, to repay (x) Senior Priority Obligations (with any such repayment of revolving Senior Priority Obligations to be accompanied by a corresponding permanent reduction in commitments with respect thereto) or (y) Obligations under the Notes by, at its option, (A) purchasing Third Lien Notes (on a pro rata basis between and within the Notes and the 8.000% Third Lien Notes) through open-market purchases at a price not less than 100% of the principal amount thereof; or (B) making an offer (in accordance with the procedures set forth below for an Asset Sale Offer) to all Holders and holders of the 8.000% Third Lien Notes to purchase their Third Lien Notes at a price not less than 100% of the principal amount thereof, provided that (i) in the case of a Collateral Asset Sale with respect to a warehouse or distribution center, no prepayment under this clause (2) shall be required to the extent of the cost of any investment in, or purchase of, a new warehouse or distribution center (but not to exceed the Net Cash Proceeds of such Collateral Asset Sale) completed within 24 months before and 12 months after the date of such Collateral Asset Sale; and (ii) Net Cash Proceeds from Collateral Asset Sales of stores (in an aggregate amount not to exceed $30.0 million after the Issue Date) may be applied to capital expenditures incurred within 12 months of the date of the Collateral Asset Sale.

With respect to Asset Sales other than a Collateral Asset Sale, the following provisions shall apply: Within 365 days after the Issuer’s or any Restricted Subsidiary’s receipt of the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale, the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary may apply an amount equal to the Net Cash Proceeds from such Asset Sale, at its option:

1. to repay (x) Indebtedness (other than Subordinated Indebtedness) or (y) Notes Obligations by, at its option, (A) purchasing Third Lien Notes through open-market purchases at a price not less than 100% of the principal amount thereof; or (B) making an offer (in accordance with the procedures set forth below for an Asset Sale Offer) to all Holders and holders of 8.000% Third Lien Notes to purchase their Third Lien Notes (on a pro rata basis between and within the Notes and the 8.000% Third Lien Notes) at a price not less than 100% of the principal amount thereof; or

2. to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of, or any Capital Stock of, another Similar Business, if, after giving effect to any such acquisition of Capital Stock, the Similar Business is or becomes a Restricted Subsidiary or to acquire other assets that are used or useful in a Similar Business (provided that any such assets that would constitute Collateral shall be pledged as Collateral under the Security Documents and in accordance with this Indenture and the Security Documents substantially simultaneously with such purchase; provided further that the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries will be deemed to have complied with the provisions described in this clause (2) if and to the extent that, within 365 days after the Asset Sale that generated the Net Cash Proceeds, the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary enters into a binding agreement to make an investment in compliance with the provision described in this clause (2) and that investment is thereafter completed within 365 days after the end of such 365-day period.

(d) Pending the final application of any Net Cash Proceeds of an Asset Sale (other than a Collateral Asset Sale, which shall be governed by Section 3.7(b) above), the Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries may temporarily reduce Indebtedness under a revolving credit facility, if any, or otherwise invest or utilize Net Cash Proceeds in any manner not prohibited by this Indenture.

(e) Any amount of Net Cash Proceeds from any Asset Sale that are not invested or applied as provided and within the time period set forth in Section 3.7(b) or Section 3.7(c) will be deemed to constitute “Excess Proceeds.” Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, any amount of proceeds offered to Holders pursuant to Section 3.7(b) or Section 3.7(c) pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer made at any time after the Asset Sale will be deemed to have been applied as required and will not be deemed to be Excess Proceeds without regard to the extent to which such offer is accepted by the Holders. When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds exceeds $25.0 million, the Issuers will make an offer (an “Asset Sale Offer”) to all Holders and holders of 8.000% Third Lien Notes to purchase their Third Lien Notes (on a pro rata basis between and within the Notes and the 8.000% Third Lien Notes) and, if required by the terms of any Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, to all holders of such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, to purchase the maximum principal amount of such Third Lien Notes and Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, as appropriate, on a pro rata basis, that may be purchased out of the Excess Proceeds at an offer price in cash in an amount equal to (x) in the case of the Third Lien Notes, 100% of the principal amount thereof and (y) in the case of Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, 100% of the principal amount thereof (or in the event such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness was issued with original issue discount, 100% of the accreted value thereof), plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any (or such lesser price, if any, as may be provided by the terms of such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness), to the date fixed for the closing of such offer, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Indenture and the agreement governing such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness. The Issuers will commence an Asset Sale Offer with respect to Excess Proceeds within ten Business Days after the date that Excess Proceeds exceed $25.0 million by transmitting electronically or by mailing to the Holders the notice required pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, with a copy to the Trustee or otherwise in accordance with the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary. The Issuers may satisfy the foregoing obligations with respect to such Net Cash Proceeds from an Asset Sale by making an Asset Sale Offer with respect to such Net Cash Proceeds prior to the expiration of the application period or by electing to make an Asset Sale Offer with respect to such Net Cash Proceeds before the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds exceeds $25.0 million.
For the case of both an Asset Sale of Collateral and of assets not constituting Collateral, to the extent that the aggregate amount of Third Lien Notes and other Indebtedness tendered or otherwise surrendered in accordance with the terms of this section is less than the Excess Proceeds, the Issuers may use any remaining Excess Proceeds for any purpose not otherwise prohibited by this Indenture. If the aggregate principal amount of Third Lien Notes and other Indebtedness tendered or otherwise surrendered by Holders and holders of the 8.000% Third Lien Notes in accordance with the terms of this section exceeds the amount of Excess Proceeds, the Trustee will select the Third Lien Notes (and the Issuers or their agents will select such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, if applicable) to be purchased in the manner described in Section 3.7(i) below. Upon completion of any such Asset Sale Offer, the amount of Excess Proceeds will be reset at zero. To the extent the Excess Proceeds exceed the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Third Lien Notes (and, if required by the terms thereof, all Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness), the Issuers need only make an Asset Sale Offer up to the outstanding aggregate principal amount of Third Lien Notes (and any such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness), and any additional Excess Proceeds will not be subject to this Section 3.7 and will be permitted to be used for any purpose otherwise permitted by this Indenture in the Issuers’ discretion.

The Issuers will comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other securities laws and regulations to the extent such laws or regulations are applicable in connection with the purchase of the Notes pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Indenture, the Issuers will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached their obligations under this Section 3.7 by virtue of such compliance.

The provisions under this Indenture relative to the Issuers’ obligation to make an offer to repurchase the Notes as a result of an Asset Sale may be waived or modified at any time with the written consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes.

If more Notes are tendered pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer than the Issuers are required to purchase, selection of such Notes for purchase will be made in compliance with the requirements of the principal national securities exchange, if any, on which such Notes are listed (but only to the extent that the Trustee has been notified in writing of such listing by the Issuer) or if such Notes are not listed, on a pro rata basis or as nearly a pro rata basis as practicable (with adjustments so that only Notes in denominations of the minimum denomination of $2,000.00 or integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof) will be purchased, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee will deem fair and appropriate (and in such manner as complies with applicable legal requirements, if any); provided that the selection of Notes for purchase will not result in a Holder with a principal amount of Notes less than the minimum denomination of $2,000.00. If all of the Notes are in global form, interests in the Notes to be redeemed will be selected for redemption by the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary. No Note will be repurchased in part if less than the minimum denomination of such Note would be left outstanding.
(j) Notices of an Asset Sale Offer will be delivered or caused to be delivered, or in the case of Notes in global form, delivered or cause to be delivered electronically in accordance with the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary, at least 30 but not more than 60 days before the purchase date to each Holder at such Holder’s registered address, with a copy to the Trustee, or otherwise in accordance with Applicable Procedures of the Depositary. If any Note is to be purchased in part only, any notice of purchase that relates to such Note will state the portion of the principal amount thereof that has been or is to be purchased.

(k) A new Note in principal amount equal to the unpurchased portion of any Note purchased in part will be issued in the name of the Holder thereof upon cancellation of the original Note. On and after the purchase date, unless the Issuers default in payment of the purchase price, interest will cease to accrue on Notes or portions thereof purchased.

SECTION 3.8. Transactions with Affiliates.

(a) The Issuer will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, make any payment to, or sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of its properties or assets to, or purchase any property or assets from, or enter into or make or amend any transaction or series of transactions, contract, agreement, understanding, loan, advance or guarantee with, or for the benefit of, any Affiliate of the Issuer involving aggregate consideration in excess of $15.0 million (each of the foregoing, an “Affiliate Transaction”), unless:

(i) such Affiliate Transaction is on terms that are not materially less favorable to the Issuer or the relevant Restricted Subsidiary than those that could have been obtained in a comparable transaction by the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary with an unrelated Person on an arm’s-length basis; and

(b) The provisions of Section 3.8(a) will not apply to:

(i) transactions between or among (A) the Issuers and the Subsidiary Guarantors or (B) the Issuers and any Person that becomes a Subsidiary Guarantor as a result of such transaction (including by way of a merger, consolidation or amalgamation);

(ii) transactions between or among the Issuers and any Restricted Subsidiary that involves shared overhead in the ordinary course of business;

(v) the payment of fees, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and indemnities to directors, officers, consultants and employees of any Parent Entity, the Issuer or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business (limited, in the case of any Parent Entity, to the portion of such fees and expenses that are allocable to the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries, and subject to reasonable pro-rata of joint services, indemnities, costs, fees and expenses;

(vii) (A) any employment agreements entered into by the Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business;

(B) any subscription agreement or similar agreement pertaining to the repurchase of Equity Interests pursuant to put/call rights or similar rights with employees, officers or directors; and

(xii) any transaction in respect of which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a letter addressed to the Board of Directors of the Issuer or any Parent Entity from an accounting, appraisal or investment banking firm, in each case, of nationally recognized standing that is in the good faith determination of the Issuer qualified to render such letter, which letter states that such transaction is on terms that are no less favorable to the Issuer or its Restricted Subsidiaries, as applicable, than would be obtained in a comparable arm’s length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate;

(xvi) payments by any Parent Entity, the Issuer or any of the Restricted Subsidiaries pursuant to tax sharing agreements among any Parent Entity, the Issuer and any of the Restricted Subsidiaries that would otherwise be permitted Tax Distributions under Section 3.4(b)(y) and shall be subject to the same restrictions as set forth under Section 3.4(b)(y); provided, that amounts paid under this clause (xvi) in respect of federal, state or local Taxes, taken together with any amounts paid under Section 3.4(b)(v) shall not exceed the Issuer Tax Amount for any applicable year;

(xvii) payments or loans (or cancellation of loans) to employees or consultants that are:

SECTION 3.9. Change of Control.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control after the Issue Date, each Holder will have the right to require the Issuers to purchase all or any part of such Holder’s Notes at a purchase price in cash (the “Change of Control Payment”) equal to 101.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the date of purchase (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date), except to the extent the Issuers have previously elected to redeem the Notes pursuant to Section 5.1.

fiscal year of the Issuer ending after the Issue Date, an Officer’s Certificate to the effect that to the best knowledge of the signer thereof on behalf of each of the Issuers, the Issuers are or are not in default in the performance and observance of any of the terms, provisions and conditions of this Indenture (without regard to any period of grace or requirement of notice provided hereunder) and, if the Issuers (through its own action or omission or through the action or omission of any Subsidiary Guarantor as applicable) will be in default, specifying all such defaults and the nature and status thereof of which such signer may have knowledge. The individual signing any certificate given by any Person pursuant to this Section 3.13 will be the principal executive, financial or accounting officer of such Person or the direct or indirect parent of such Person, in compliance with TIA § 314(a)(4).

So long as any of the Notes are outstanding, upon any Officer becoming aware of any Default or Event of Default, the Issuers will deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after the occurrence thereof, an Officer’s Certificate specifying such Default or Event of Default and what action the Issuers are taking or propose to take with respect thereto.

(a) All payments made by a Foreign Guarantor in respect of a Guarantee will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future Taxes unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction in which the relevant Foreign Guarantor is then incorporated or organized or resident for tax purposes, any jurisdiction from or through which payment on behalf of such Foreign Guarantor is made or any political subdivision or governmental authority thereof or therein having power to tax (each, a "Tax Jurisdiction"), will at any time be required to be made from any payments made by or on behalf of the relevant Foreign Guarantor under its Guarantee, including payments of principal, redemption price, purchase price, interest or premium, the relevant Foreign Guarantor will pay such additional amounts (the "Additional Amounts") as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments (including payments of principal, redemption price, interest or premium) by each Holder (including Additional Amounts) after such withholding or deduction will equal the respective amounts that would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

(i) any Taxes that would not have been so imposed but for the existence of any present or former connection between the Holder or the beneficial owner of the Note or Guarantee (or between a fiduciary, settler, beneficiary, partner, member or shareholder of, or possessor of power over the relevant Holder or beneficial owner, if the relevant Holder is an estate, nominee, trust, partnership, limited liability company or corporation) and the relevant Tax Jurisdiction, other than by the mere acquisition or holding of any Note or the enforcement or receipt of payment under or in respect of any Note or Guarantee;

any Taxes imposed or withheld as a result of the failure of the Holder or beneficial owner of any Note or Guarantee to comply with any written request, made to that Holder or beneficial owner within a reasonable period before any such withholding or deduction would be payable, by an Issuer or a Foreign Guarantor to provide timely or accurate information concerning the nationality, residence or identity of such Holder or beneficial owner or to make any valid or timely declaration or similar claim or satisfy any certification information or other reporting requirements (in each case, to the extent such Holder or beneficial owner is legally eligible to do so), which is required or imposed by a statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction as a precondition to exemption from, or reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding of such Taxes;

any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Note or Guarantee for payment (where presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the Holder or beneficial owner (except to the extent that the Holder or beneficial owner would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had the Note been presented on the last day of such 30 day period);

any estate, inheritance, gift, value added, sale, excise, transfer, personal property or similar tax or assessment; any Tax which is payable otherwise than by deduction or withholding from payments made under or with respect to any Note or Guarantee;

any Tax imposed on or with respect to any payment by a Foreign Guarantor to the Holder if such Holder is a fiduciary, partnership, limited liability company or person other than the sole beneficial owner of such payment to the extent that Taxes would not have been imposed on such payment had such Holder been the sole beneficial owner of such Note or Guarantee;

any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Note or Guarantee for payment by or on behalf of a Holder or beneficial owner of such Notes or Guarantee who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Note or Guarantee to, or otherwise accepting payment from, another paying agent;

any Taxes that are imposed or withheld pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations promulgated thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, any similar law or regulation adopted pursuant to an intergovernmental agreement between a non-U.S. jurisdiction and the United States with respect to the foregoing or any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b)(1) of the Code; or any combination of items (i) through (viii) above.

The relevant Foreign Guarantor will pay when due any present or future stamp, transfer, court or documentary taxes or any other excise or property taxes that arise in a Tax Jurisdiction with respect to the initial execution, delivery or registration of the Guarantees or any other document or instrument relating thereto (other than the Notes).

(c) The relevant Foreign Guarantor will use reasonable efforts to furnish to the Holders, within a reasonable period of time after the due date for the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld pursuant to applicable law, either certified copies of tax receipts evidencing such payment by such Foreign Guarantor (in such form as provided in the ordinary course by the relevant Tax Jurisdiction and as is reasonably available to the Foreign Guarantor), or, if such receipts are not obtainable, other evidence of such payments by such Foreign Guarantor reasonably satisfactory to the Holders.

SECTION 3.15. Impairment of Security Interest.

(a) The Issuer shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, take or knowingly or negligently omit to take, any action which action or omission might reasonably or would (in the good faith determination of the Issuer), have the result of materially impairing the value of the security interests taken as a whole (including the lien priority with respect thereto) with respect to the Collateral for the benefit of the Notes Collateral Agent and the Holders (including materially impairing the lien priority of the Notes with respect thereto) (it being understood that any release described under Section 11.6 and the incurrence of Permitted Liens shall not be deemed to so materially impair the security interests with respect to the Collateral).

(b) At the written direction of the Issuer and without the consent of the Holders, the Notes Collateral Agent (or its agent or designee) shall from time to time enter into one or more amendments, extensions, renewals, restatements, supplements or other modifications or replacements to or of the Security Documents to, but subject in all cases to the Intercreditor Agreements: (i) cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency therein that does not adversely affect the interests of the Holders in any material respect, (ii) add to the Collateral or (iii) make any other change thereto that does not adversely affect the Holders in any material respect.

SECTION 3.16. After-Pledged Property.

(a) With respect to After-Pledged Property of the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor, the Issuers or such Subsidiary Guarantor shall execute and deliver such mortgages, deeds of trust, security instruments, financing statements and certificates and opinions of counsel as shall be reasonably necessary to create a Lien on such After-Pledged Property constituting Collateral securing the Notes Obligations as contemplated by the Security Documents and perfect such Liens to the extent required by the Security Documents in favor of the Notes Collateral Agent, and having the Required Collateral Lien Priority, subject only to Permitted Liens, and thereupon all provisions of this Indenture relating to the Collateral shall be deemed to apply to such After-Pledged Property to the same extent and with the same force and effect as the then-existing Collateral.

(b) If any Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor (A)(1) acquires fee simple title in Real Property after the Issue Date or (2) owns fee simple title in Real Property on the date it executes a supplemental indenture to provide a Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to Section 3.11(c), that, in each case of subclauses (1) and (2) of this clause (A), on the date of such acquisition or the date that such Subsidiary Guarantee is provided, as applicable, has an individual fair market value (as determined customarily and in good faith by an Officer of the Issuer) of $2.5 million or more or (B)(1) acquires a leasehold interest in Real Property after the Issue Date with respect to a full-line Neiman Marcus or Bergdorf Goodman store or a warehouse or distribution center or (2) owns leasehold title in Real Property with respect to a full-line Neiman Marcus or Bergdorf Goodman store or a warehouse or distribution center on the date it provides a Subsidiary Guarantee or (y) any Non-Mortgageable Lease with respect to a full-line Neiman Marcus or Bergdorf Goodman store or a warehouse or distribution center ceases to be a Non-Mortgageable Lease hereunder, then in each case of the foregoing clauses (x) and (y) above, within 10 Business Days after the corresponding deadlines for Extended Term Loans (in each case, subject to extension as provided in the Extended Term Loan Agreement):

(i) notify the Notes Collateral Agent thereof;

(ii) cause any such acquired Real Property owned in fee simple that has a fair market value (as determined in good faith by an Officer of the Issuer) of $2.5 million or more to be subjected to a customary mortgage or deed of trust securing the Notes Obligations;

(iii) cause any such acquired or owned leasehold Real Property to be subjected to a customary mortgage or deed of trust securing the Notes Obligations;

(iv) with respect to any such Real Property, to the extent provided to the holders of any other Indebtedness of the Issuer or the Restricted Subsidiaries (or any agent or representative thereof), obtain fully paid American Land Title Association Lender’s Extended Coverage title insurance policies, with endorsements (including a standard survey endorsement or equivalent (only with respect to any such Real Property acquired or owned in fee simple pursuant to Section 3.16(b)(x)) and zoning endorsements where available) and in customary amounts that in no event shall be less than fair market value of such Real Property (the “Mortgage Policies”);

(v) with respect to any such Real Property acquired or owned in fee simple pursuant to Section 3.16(b)(x), to the extent necessary and customary to issue the Mortgage Policies, obtain American Land Title Association/American Congress on Surveying and Mapping form surveys, dated no more than 30 days before the date of their delivery to the Notes Collateral Agent, certified to the Notes Collateral Agent and the issuer of the Mortgage Policies and sufficient for the issuer of the Mortgage Policies to omit as an exception to each title policy the standard printed survey exception relating to such Real Property;
(vi) provide customary evidence of insurance (including all insurance required to comply with applicable flood insurance laws) naming the Notes Collateral Agent as loss payee and additional insured with such responsible and reputable insurance companies or associations, and in such amounts and covering such risks as are reasonably available for similar properties in the same geographical area, including the insurance required by the terms of any mortgage or deed of trust;

(viii) take, or cause the applicable Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor to take, such actions as shall be necessary or reasonably requested by the Notes Collateral Agent to perfect such Liens.

SECTION 3.17. Covenant Suspension.

(a) If on any date following the Issue Date (i) the Notes have Investment Grade Ratings from both Rating Agencies, and (ii) no Default has occurred and is continuing under this Indenture (the occurrence of the events described in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) being collectively referred to as a “Covenant Suspension Event”), Sections 3.3, 3.4, 3.6, 3.7, 3.8 and 4.1(a)(iv) (collectively, the “Suspended Covenants”) will no longer be applicable to such Notes.

(b) In the event that the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries are not subject to the Suspended Covenants under this Indenture for any period of time pursuant to Section 3.17(a) (any such period, a “Suspension Period”), and on any subsequent date (the “Reversion Date”) one or both of the Rating Agencies withdraw their Investment Grade Rating or downgrade the rating assigned to the Notes below an Investment Grade Rating, then the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries will thereafter again be subject to the Suspended Covenants under this Indenture with respect to future events.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Covenant Suspension Event, the amount of Excess Proceeds from Asset Sales will be reset at zero.

(d) With respect to Restricted Payments made after the Reversion Date, the amount of Restricted Payments since the Issue Date will be calculated as though Section 3.4 had been in effect prior to, but not during, the Suspension Period. In addition, all Indebtedness Incurred, or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock issued, during the Suspension Period will be classified as having been Incurred or issued pursuant to Section 3.3(b)(iv). In addition, for purposes of Section 3.8, all agreements and arrangements entered into by the Issuer and any Restricted Subsidiary with an Affiliate of the Issuer during the Suspension Period prior to such Reversion Date will be deemed to have been entered into on or prior to the Issue Date, and for purposes of Section 3.6, all contracts entered into during the Suspension Period prior to such Reversion Date that contain any of the restrictions contemplated by such Section 3.6 will be deemed to have been existing on the Issue Date.
During the Suspension Period, any reference in the definitions of “Permitted Liens” and “Unrestricted Subsidiary” to Section 3.3 or any provision thereof will be construed as if Section 3.3 had remained in effect since the Issue Date and during the Suspension Period.

During the Suspension Period, the obligation to grant further Subsidiary Guarantees will be suspended. Upon the Reversion Date, the obligation to grant Subsidiary Guarantees under Section 3.11 will be reinstated (and the Reversion Date will be deemed to be the date on which any guaranteed Indebtedness was Incurred for purposes of Section 3.11).

Notwithstanding that the Suspended Covenants may be reinstated, no Default or Event of Default will be deemed to have occurred as a result of any failure to comply with the Suspended Covenants during any Suspension Period, and the Issuer and any Subsidiary of the Issuer will be permitted, following a Reversion Date, without causing a Default or Event of Default or breach of any of the Suspended Covenants (notwithstanding the reinstatement thereof) under this Indenture, to honor, comply with or otherwise perform any contractual commitments or obligations entered into during a Suspension Period following a Reversion Date and to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby.

The Issuer will provide an Officer’s Certificate to the Trustee indicating the occurrence of any Covenant Suspension Event or Reversion Date. The Trustee will have no obligation to (i) independently determine or verify if such events have occurred, (ii) make any determination regarding the impact of actions taken during the Suspension Period on the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries’ future compliance with their covenants or (iii) notify the Holders of any Covenant Suspension Event or Reversion Date.

For the avoidance of doubt, the MYT Covenants, the MYT Waterfall and the other provisions contained in the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement will remain in place during any Suspension Period.

SECTION 3.18. Stay, Extension and Usury Laws. The Issuers and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors covenant (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) that they will not at any time insist upon, plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay, extension or usury law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Issuers and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law, and covenant that they will not, by resort to any such law, hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law has been enacted.

SECTION 3.19. Nancy Holdings Corporate Reorganization. Nancy Holdings LLC shall be merged into the Issuer, and the intercompany lease agreements between Nancy Holdings LLC and the LLC Co-Issuer will be terminated, in each case, within 90 days after the Issue Date (or such later date as mutually agreed by the Company Parties and the Extended Term Loan Agent) and, concurrently with such merger, the Issuer, as successor to Nancy Holdings LLC, shall mortgage the owned Real Properties constituting collateral currently held by Nancy Holdings LLC, which mortgages will have the Required Collateral Lien Priority.

SECTION 3.20. Ratings. The Issuers shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause, within 60 days after the end of the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2019, the Notes to receive a rating from S&P or Moody’s, or, if during such time neither of such institutions shall be rating such obligations, an equivalent rating from another nationally recognized statistical rating agency (as described in Rule 436 under the Securities Act).

Subsidiary Guarantor’s Subsidiary Guarantee and the Security Documents, and such Subsidiary Guarantor will automatically be released and discharged from its obligations under this Indenture, such Subsidiary Guarantor’s Subsidiary Guarantee and the Security Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) a Subsidiary Guarantor may merge or consolidate with an Affiliate of the Issuer incorporated or organized solely for the purpose of reincorporating or reorganizing such Subsidiary Guarantor in the United States, any state or territory thereof or the District of Columbia, so long as the principal amount of Indebtedness of the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries is not increased thereby;

(ii) a Subsidiary Guarantor may consolidate or merge with or into or wind up into, or sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties and assets to, an Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor;

(iii) a Subsidiary Guarantor may convert into a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company or trust organized or existing under the laws of a jurisdiction in the United States; and

(iv) any Restricted Subsidiary may merge with or consolidate into any Subsidiary Guarantor; provided that, in the case of this clause (iv), the surviving Person (A) shall be a corporation, partnership, limited partnership or limited liability company or trust organized or existing under the laws of the United States, any state or territory thereof or the District of Columbia and (B) if not the Subsidiary Guarantor, the surviving Person will become a Subsidiary Guarantor upon the consummation of such merger or consolidation.

(e) For purposes of this Section 4.1, the sale, lease, conveyance, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of one or more Subsidiaries of the Issuer, which properties and assets, if held by the Issuer instead of such Subsidiaries, would constitute all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Issuer on a consolidated basis, will be deemed to be the transfer of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Issuer.

ARTICLE V
Redemption of Notes

SECTION 5.1. Optional Redemption.

(a) The Notes may be redeemed, in whole at any time, or in part from time to time, subject to the conditions and at the redemption prices set forth in Paragraph 7 of the form of Note set forth in Exhibit A hereto, which are hereby incorporated by reference and made a part of this Indenture, together with accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date.

(b) On and after the Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or portions thereof called for redemption so long as the Issuers have deposited with the Paying Agent funds sufficient to pay the principal of and premium, if any, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the Notes to be redeemed.

SECTION 5.2. Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee of Optional and Mandatory Redemptions. If the Issuers elect to redeem Notes pursuant to Section 5.1 or the Issuers are required to redeem Notes pursuant to Section 5.9, 5.10 or 5.11, the Issuers will furnish to the Trustee, at least five calendar days for Global Notes and 10 calendar days for Definitive Notes before notice of redemption is required to be delivered or caused to be delivered to Holders pursuant to Section 5.4, an Officer’s Certificate setting forth (a) the paragraph or subparagraph of such Note and/or Section of this Indenture pursuant to which the redemption will occur, (b) the Redemption Date, (c) the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed and (d) the redemption price. The Issuers may also include a request in such Officer’s Certificate that the Trustee give the notice of redemption in the Issuers’ name and at their expense and setting forth the information to be stated in such notice as provided in Section 5.4. The Issuers will deliver to the Trustee such documentation and records as will enable the Trustee to select the Notes to be redeemed pursuant to Section 5.3.

SECTION 5.3. Selection by Trustee of Notes to Be Redeemed. If less than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, the Trustee will select Notes for redemption on a pro rata basis (or as nearly pro rata as practicable) unless otherwise required by law or the rules of the principal national securities exchange, if any, on which such Notes are listed (but only to the extent that the Trustee has been notified in writing of such listing by the Issuer), in minimum denominations of $2,000.00 and in integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof; provided that the selection of Notes for redemption will not result in a Holder of Notes with a principal amount of Notes owning less than $2,000.00 in aggregate principal amount of Notes, and provided further that if all of the Notes are in global form, interests in the Notes to be redeemed will be selected for redemption by the Depositary in accordance with the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary. If any Note is to be purchased or redeemed in part only, the notice of purchase or redemption relating to such Note will state the portion of the principal amount thereof that has been or is to be purchased or redeemed. A new Note in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued in the name of the Holder thereof upon cancellation of the original Note in accordance with Section 5.7. On and after the Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on Notes or portions thereof called for redemption so long as the Issuers have deposited with the Paying Agent funds sufficient to pay the principal of and premium, if any, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the Notes to be redeemed.

The Trustee will promptly notify the Issuers in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Notes selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed.

For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to redemption of Notes will relate, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.
SECTION 5.4. Notice of Redemption. In the case of a redemption pursuant to Sections 5.1, 5.9, 5.10 or 5.11, the Issuers will deliver or cause to be delivered or in the case of Notes in global form, delivered or caused to be delivered electronically in accordance with the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary, a notice of redemption to each Holder whose Notes are to be redeemed not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”); provided, however, that redemption notices may be delivered more than 60 days prior to a Redemption Date if the notice is issued pursuant to Article VIII. In connection with any redemption of Notes, any such redemption may, at the Issuers’ discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including, but not limited to, the funding of the amounts required to be funded by Calling Lenders in connection with the Call Right Redemption. In addition, if such redemption or notice is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice will state that, in the Issuers’ discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions will be satisfied (or waived by the Issuers in their sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions are not satisfied (or waived by the Issuers in their sole discretion) by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. At the Issuers’ written request, the Trustee may give notice of redemption in the Issuers’ name and at the Issuers’ expense.

All notices of redemption will be prepared by the Issuers and will state:

(a) the Redemption Date,

(b) the redemption price and the amount of accrued interest to, but excluding, the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 5.6, if any,

(c) if less than all outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, the identification of the particular Notes (or portion thereof) to be redeemed, as well as the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed and the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be outstanding after such partial redemption,

(d) in case any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice which relates to such Note will state that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, the Holder will receive, without charge, a new Note or Notes of authorized denominations for the principal amount thereof remaining unredeemed,

(e) that on the Redemption Date the redemption price (and accrued interest to, but excluding, the Redemption Date payable as provided in Section 5.6, if any) will become due and payable upon each such Note, or the portion thereof, to be redeemed, and, unless the Issuers default in making the redemption payment, that interest on Notes called for redemption (or the portion thereof) will cease to accrue on and after said date,

(f) the place or places where such Notes are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price and accrued interest, if any,

(g) the name and address of the Paying Agent, that Notes called for redemption must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the redemption price, the CUSIP number, and that no representation is made as to the accuracy or correctness of the CUSIP number, if any, listed in such notice or printed on the Notes, the Section of this Indenture pursuant to which the Notes are to be redeemed, and a description in reasonable detail of any conditions precedent applicable to such redemption.

At the Issuers’ request, the Trustee will give the notice of redemption in the Issuers’ name and at its expense; provided, however, that the Issuers will have delivered to the Trustee, at least 45 days prior to the Redemption Date, an Officer’s Certificate requesting that the Trustee give such notice and setting forth the information to be stated in such notice as provided in the preceding paragraph. Such Officer’s Certificate will state that all conditions precedent to the delivery of such notice have been complied with.

SECTION 5.5. Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to 10:00 a.m. New York City time, on any Redemption Date, the Issuers will deposit with the Trustee or with a Paying Agent (or, if the Issuers are acting as their own Paying Agent, segregate and hold in trust as provided in Section 2.4) an amount of money sufficient to pay the redemption price of, and accrued interest on, all the Notes which are to be redeemed on that date.

SECTION 5.6. Notes Payable on Redemption Date. Notice of redemption having been given as aforesaid, the Notes so to be redeemed will, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the redemption price therein specified (together with accrued interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Redemption Date), and from and after such date (unless the Issuers default in the payment of the redemption price and accrued interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Redemption Date) such Notes will cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of any such Note for redemption in accordance with said notice, such Note will be paid by the Issuers at the redemption price, together with accrued interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Redemption Date (subject to the rights of Holders of record on the relevant Record Date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

If any Note called for redemption is not so paid upon surrender thereof for redemption, the principal (and premium, if any) will, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

If a Redemption Date is on or after a Record Date and on or before the related Interest Payment Date, the accrued and unpaid interest, if any, will be paid to the Person in whose name the Note is registered at the close of business on such Record
Date, and no further interest will be payable to Holders whose Notes will be subject to redemption by the Issuers.

SECTION 5.7. Notes Redeemed in Part. Any Note which is to be redeemed only in part (pursuant to the provisions of this Article) will be surrendered at the office or agency of the Issuers maintained for such purpose pursuant to Section 2.3 (with, if the Issuers so require, due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuers duly executed by, the Holder thereof or such Holder’s attorney duly authorized in writing), and the Issuers will execute, and the Trustee upon receipt of an Authentication Order will authenticate and make available for delivery to the Holder of such Note at the expense of the Issuers, a new Note or Notes, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder, in an aggregate principal amount equal to and in exchange for the unredeemed portion of the principal of the Note so surrendered, provided that each such new Note will be in a minimum principal amount of $2,000.00 and integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof.

SECTION 5.8. Offer to Repurchase. In the event that, pursuant to Section 3.7, the Issuers are required to commence an offer to all Holders to purchase the Notes (an "Offer to Repurchase"), it will follow the procedures specified below:

(a) The Offer to Repurchase will remain open for a period of at least 20 Business Days following its commencement and not more than 30 Business Days, except to the extent that a longer period is required by applicable law (the "Offer Period"). No later than five Business Days after the termination of the Offer Period (the "Purchase Date"), the Issuers will apply all Excess Proceeds (the "Offer Amount"), to the purchase of Notes and such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, if any (in each instance, on a pro rata basis, if applicable), or, if less than the Offer Amount has been tendered, all Notes and other Indebtedness tendered in response to the Offer to Repurchase. Payment for any Notes so purchased will be made pursuant to Section 3.1.

(b) If the Purchase Date is on or after an Interest Record Date and on or before the related Interest Payment Date, any accrued and unpaid interest, if any, will be paid to the Person in whose name a Note is registered at the close of business on such Record Date, and no additional interest will be payable to Holders who tender Notes pursuant to the Offer to Repurchase.

(c) Upon the commencement of an Offer to Repurchase, the Issuers will deliver a notice to the Trustee and each of the Holders. The notice will contain all instructions and materials necessary to enable such Holders to tender Notes pursuant to the Offer to Repurchase. The notice, which will govern the terms of the Offer to Repurchase, will state:

(i) that the Offer to Repurchase is being made pursuant to this Section 5.8 and Section 3.7, and the length of time the Offer to Repurchase will remain open;
(ii) the Offer Amount, the purchase price and the Purchase Date;

(iii) that any Note not tendered or accepted for payment will continue to accrue interest;

(iv) that, unless the Issuers default in making such payment, any Note accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer to Repurchase will cease to accrue interest after the Purchase Date;

(v) that Holders electing to have a Note purchased pursuant to an Offer to Repurchase may elect to have Notes purchased in a minimum amount of $2,000.00 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof only;

(vi) that Holders electing to have Notes purchased pursuant to any Offer to Repurchase will be required to surrender the Note, with the form entitled “Option of Holder to Elect Purchase” attached to the Notes completed, or transfer by book-entry transfer, to the Issuers, the Depositary, if appointed by the Issuers, or the Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice at least three days before the Purchase Date;

(vii) that Holders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Issuers, the Depositary or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, receives, not later than on the expiration of the Offer Period, facsimile transmission, pdf communication sent via electronic means or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of Notes the Holder delivered for purchase and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have such Notes purchased;

(viii) that, if the aggregate principal amount of Notes and, if applicable, Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, if any, surrendered by Holders thereof exceeds the Offer Amount, the Trustee will select the Notes and, if applicable, the Issuers will select such Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness to be purchased or prepaid, on a pro rata basis based on the principal amount of Notes and Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness, if any, surrendered (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Issuers so that only Notes in minimum denominations of $2,000.00 or integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof are redeemed); and

(ix) that Holders whose Notes were purchased only in part will be issued new Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered (or transferred by book-entry transfer).

(d) On or before the Purchase Date, the Issuers will, to the extent lawful, accept for payment, on a pro rata basis to the extent necessary, the Offer Amount of Notes or portions thereof tendered pursuant to the Offer to Repurchase, or if less than the Offer Amount has been tendered, all Notes tendered, and will deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Notes properly accepted together with an Officer’s Certificate stating that such Notes or portions thereof were accepted for payment by the Issuers in accordance with the terms of this Section 5.8. The Issuers, the Depositary or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, will promptly (but in any case not later than five days after the Purchase Date) deliver to each tendering Holder an amount equal to the purchase price of the Notes tendered by such Holder and accepted by the Issuers for purchase, and the Issuers will promptly issue a new Note, and the Trustee, upon written request from the Issuers, will authenticate and deliver (or cause to be transferred by book entry) such new Note to such Holder, in a principal amount equal to any unpurchased portion of the Note surrendered. Any Note not so accepted will be promptly delivered by the Issuers to the Holder thereof. The Issuers will publicly announce the results of the Offer to Repurchase on the Purchase Date.

SECTION 5.9. Call Right Redemption.

(a) Lenders under the Extended Term Loan Agreement (the “Calling Lenders”) may exercise the Call Right by complying with the procedures provided therefor in the Extended Term Loan Agreement and delivering (or causing the agent under the Extended Term Loan Agreement to deliver) to the Trustee and the Issuers the notice of redemption set forth in Exhibit E hereto (the “Call Notice”). Notes in a principal amount of $200.0 million (or such lesser amount equal to the then-outstanding principal amount of Notes) (such amount, the “Called Notes”) shall be redeemed in accordance with the terms of clauses (b) and (c) below.

(b) Upon (1) receipt by the Trustee and the Issuers of the Call Notice with respect to the Call Right and (2) compliance with the Call Right Procedures provided for in the Extended Term Loan Agreement, the Issuers shall redeem the Called Notes at a price equal to the principal amount of Called Notes plus accrued but unpaid interest to, but not including, the date of redemption provided for in the Call Notice, which date shall be not more than 30 Business Days and not fewer than five Business Days following delivery of the Call Notice. Such redemption shall be conditioned upon and subject to the provision by the Calling Lenders to the Issuers of Immediately available funds in cash in an amount equal to the principal amount of Called Notes.

(c) Except as expressly set forth above in this Section 5.9, the provisions of Sections 5.1 through 5.7 shall apply mutatis mutandis to a redemption of Notes pursuant to the Call Right.

At any time following a contribution made in accordance with the MYT Waterfall, the Issuers shall redeem all or a portion of the Third Lien Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such contribution, on a pro rata basis among the outstanding Third Lien Notes (based on their aggregate outstanding principal amount), in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article V at a redemption price equal to 100.0%, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the redemption date (subject to the right of Holders of record and holders of record of the 8.000% Third Lien Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).
SECTION 5.11. Mandatory AHYDO Redemption

If the Notes would otherwise constitute an “applicable high-yield discount obligations” within the meaning of section 163(i) of the Code or any successor provisions (an “AHYDO”), on each Interest Payment Date following the Issue Date, the Issuer will be required to redeem for cash a portion of the Notes on a pro rata basis with the 8.75%/9.50% senior PIK toggle notes due 2021 (such redemption, a “Mandatory Principal Redemption”). The redemption price for the portion of each Note redeemed pursuant to a Mandatory Principal Redemption will be 100.0% of the principal amount of the Note redeemed plus any accrued interest thereon to the date of redemption. The “Mandatory Principal Redemption Amount” will equal the portion of the Note required to be redeemed to prevent the Note from being treated as an AHYDO within the meaning of Section 163(i)(1) of the Code. No partial redemption or repurchase of the Notes pursuant to any other provision of this Indenture will alter the Issuers’ obligation to make the Mandatory Principal Redemption with respect to any Notes that remain outstanding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Mandatory Principal Amount of the Notes redeemed under this Section 5.11 shall not exceed $5.0 million in the aggregate.

ARTICLE VI

Defaults and Remedies

SECTION 6.1. Events of Default. The occurrence of each of the following events, for so long as such event is continuing, is an “Event of Default”:

(a) a default in any payment of interest on any Note when due continued for five Business Days;

(b) a default in the payment of principal or premium, if any, of any Note when due at its Stated Maturity, upon optional or mandatory redemption, upon required purchase, upon acceleration or otherwise;

(c) the failure by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary to comply for 30 days after receipt of written notice referred to below with any of its obligations, covenants or agreements (other than a default pursuant to Section 6.1(a) or this Section 6.1(b)) contained in the Notes Documents;

(d) the failure by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary to pay the principal amount of any Indebtedness for borrowed money (other than Indebtedness for borrowed money owing to Issuer or a Restricted Subsidiary) within any applicable grace period upon the final maturity or the acceleration of any such Indebtedness by the holders thereof because of a default, in each case, if the total amount of such Indebtedness unpaid at final maturity or accelerated exceeds $50.0 million or its foreign currency equivalent;

(e) an Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary pursuant to or within the meaning of any Bankruptcy Law:
(i) files a petition for relief, commences a voluntary case or commences proceedings to be adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent under any Bankruptcy Law;

(iii) files an answer, response or consent in an involuntary case seeking or consenting to reorganization, liquidation or other relief under applicable Bankruptcy Law;

(iv) generally is not paying its debts as they become due;

(v) consents to the appointment of a Custodian of it or for any substantial part of its property;

(vi) makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

(vii) takes any comparable action under any domestic or foreign laws relating to insolvency;

(f) a court of competent jurisdiction enters an order or decree under any Bankruptcy Law that:

(i) is for relief against an Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary in an involuntary case, or adjudicates an Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary bankrupt or insolvent in any involuntary case, or an similar relief is granted under any domestic or foreign laws;

(ii) appoints a Custodian of an Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary or for any substantial part of an Issuer’s or any of the Significant Subsidiary’s property, or any similar relief is granted under any domestic or foreign laws; or

(iii) orders the winding up or liquidation of an Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, or any similar relief is granted under any domestic or foreign laws; and in each of the foregoing cases, the order or decree remains unstayed, undischarged and in effect for 60 days;

(g) failure by any Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary to pay final and non-appealable judgments aggregating in excess of $50.0 million or its foreign currency equivalent (net of any amounts which are covered by enforceable insurance policies issued by solvent insurance companies), which judgments are not discharged, waived or stayed for a period of 60 days after such judgment becomes final and, in the event such judgment is covered by insurance, an enforcement proceeding has been commenced by any creditor upon such judgment or decree which is not promptly stayed;
(h) the Subsidiary Guarantee of a Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (except as contemplated by the terms thereof or of this Indenture), or any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary (or any Officer thereof with authority to act on behalf of such Subsidiary Guarantor with respect to such matters) denies in writing that it has any further liability under its Subsidiary Guarantee or gives written notice to such effect, other than by reason of the termination or discharge of this Indenture or the release of any such Subsidiary Guarantee in accordance with this Indenture, and such Default continues for five days;

(i) the Liens created by the Security Documents securing the Notes or Guarantees shall at any time not constitute perfected Liens on any portion of the Collateral intended to be covered thereby (to the extent perfection is required by this Indenture or such Security Documents) other than in accordance with the terms of such relevant Security Document and this Indenture and other than the satisfaction in full of all Obligations under this Indenture or release or amendment of any such Lien in accordance with the terms of this Indenture or such Security Documents, or (ii) except for expiration in accordance with its terms or amendment, modification, waiver, termination or release in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and such relevant Security Document, any such Security Document shall for whatever reason be terminated or cease to be in full force and effect, if, in each case, such default occurs with respect to a portion of the Collateral exceeding $50.0 million in fair market value;

(k) (i) the Liens created by the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement and related security documents with respect to the assets securing the Notes shall at any time not constitute perfected Liens on any portion of the collateral intended to be covered thereby (to the extent perfection is required by this Indenture or such security documents) other than in accordance with the terms of the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement such relevant security document and this Indenture and other than the satisfaction in full of all Notes Obligations or release or amendment of any such Lien in accordance with the terms of the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement, this Indenture or such security documents, or (ii) except for expiration in accordance with its terms or amendment, modification, waiver, termination or release in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement and such relevant security document, any such security document shall for whatever reason be terminated or cease to be in full force and effect, if, in each case, such default occurs with respect to the collateral subject to the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement exceeding $12.5 million in fair market value;

(l) the failure by MYT Parent or any of the MYT Entities to comply with or cause compliance with the terms of the MYT Waterfall; or

(m) the failure by any of the MYT Entities to comply for 30 days after receipt of written notice referred to below with any of the MYT Covenants.
The foregoing will constitute Events of Default whatever the reason for any such Event of Default and whether it is voluntary or involuntary or is effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body.

However, a default under Section 6.1(c) will not constitute an Event of Default until either the Trustee notifies in writing the Issuers or the Holders of at least 25.0% in principal amount of outstanding Notes notify in writing the Issuers and the Trustee of the default and such default is not cured within the time specified in Section 6.1(c) after receipt of such notice.

SECTION 6.2. Acceleration. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 6.1(e) or Section 6.1(f) above with respect to an Issuer) occurs and is continuing, either the Trustee, by written notice to the Issuers, or the Holders of at least 25.0% in principal amount of the outstanding Notes, by written notice to the Issuers and the Trustee, may declare the Contractual Performance Amount to be due and payable. Upon such a declaration, such Contractual Performance Amount will be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default arising from Section 6.1(e) or Section 6.1(f) of an Issuer occurs, the Contractual Performance Amount shall be due and payable as of immediately prior to the occurrence of such Event of Default.

The Issuers and the Subsidiary Guarantors agree and acknowledge that the excess of the Contractual Performance Amount over the sum of the principal amount of the then outstanding Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest (the “Liquidated Damages Amount”) constitutes liquidated damages and not unmatured interest or a penalty, and the actual amount of damages to the Holders as a result of the relevant Event of Default would be impracticable and extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, the Liquidated Damages Amount is provided by mutual agreement of the Issuers, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee (on behalf of the Holders) as a reasonable estimation and calculation of such actual lost profits and other actual damages of the Holders. Each Holder, by accepting a Note (or a beneficial interest therein), shall be deemed to have directed the Trustee to make such agreement on its behalf.

SECTION 6.3. Other Remedies.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy (including a lawsuit for breach of contract) to collect the payment of principal of or interest on the Notes or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes, this Indenture (including sums owed to the Trustee, the Agents and their agents and counsel) and the Guarantees.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default will not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. No remedy is exclusive of any other remedy. All available remedies are cumulative.
SECTION 6.4. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes by written notice to the Trustee may, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes, waive, rescind or cancel any declaration of an existing or past Default or Event of Default and its consequences (including acceleration) under this Indenture if such waiver, rescission or cancellation would not conflict with any judgment or decree, except a continuing Default or Event of Default in the payment of interest on, or the principal of, the Notes (other than such nonpayment of principal or interest that has become due as a result of such acceleration). Upon any such waiver, such Default will cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom will be deemed to have been cured for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver will extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

In the event of any Event of Default arising from Section 6.1(d), such Event of Default and all consequences thereof (excluding, however, any payment default on the Notes Obligations resulting from acceleration of the Notes) will be annulled, waived and rescinded, automatically and without any action by the Trustee or the Holders, if prior to 20 days after such Event of Default arose, the Issuer delivers an Officer’s Certificate to the Trustee stating that (x) the Indebtedness or guarantee that is the basis for such Event of Default has been discharged or (y) the Holders thereof have rescinded or waived the acceleration, notice or action (as the case may be) giving rise to such Event of Default or (z) the default that is the basis for such Event of Default has otherwise been cured.

SECTION 6.5. Control by Majority. The Holders of a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, provided, however, that the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Third Lien Notes voting, acting and being treated together as a single series in the aggregate shall have the right to direct the time, method, and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Notes Collateral Agent or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Notes Collateral Agent or of directing the Notes Collateral Agent with respect to any actions under the Security Documents. With respect to such directions, the Notes Collateral Agent shall follow the direction of the majority of all outstanding Third Lien Notes voting together as a single aggregate series. The Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent, however, may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or that the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent, as applicable, determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of any other Holder (it being understood that neither the Trustee nor the Notes Collateral Agent has an affirmative duty to ascertain whether or not such actions or forbearances are unduly prejudicial to such Holders) or that would involve the Trustee in personal liability unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee security and indemnity satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense. Prior to taking any action under this Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to security or indemnification reasonably satisfactory to it in its reasonable discretion against all losses, liabilities and expenses that may be caused by taking or not taking such action.

SECTION 6.6. Limitation on Suits. In case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity or security satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense. Except to enforce the right to receive payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest, when due, no Holder may pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture or the Notes unless:

(a) such Holder has previously given the Trustee written notice that an Event of Default is continuing or will occur upon notice and/or passage of time;

(b) Holders of at least 25.0% in principal amount of the outstanding Notes have requested (the “Requesting Holders”) in writing the Trustee to pursue the remedy, which pursuit of the requested remedy may be conditioned upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in the future;

(c) such Requesting Holders have offered the Trustee security or indemnity in respect of any loss, liability or expense (which security or indemnity is reasonably acceptable to the Trustee, such acceptance not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed);

(d) the Trustee has not complied with, or indicated in writing to the Requesting Holders that it will comply with, such request within 10 days after the receipt of the request and the offer of security or indemnity; and

(e) the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes have not given the Trustee a written direction inconsistent with such request within such 10-day period.

SECTION 6.7. Rights of Holders to Receive Payment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes held by such Holder, on or after the respective due dates expressed in the Notes, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, will not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder.

SECTION 6.8. Collection Suit by Trustee. If an Event of Default specified in Section 6.1(a) or Section 6.1(b) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Issuers for the whole amount then due and owing (together with interest on any unpaid interest to the extent lawful) and the amounts provided for in Section 7.6.

SECTION 6.9. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the compensation and reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, the Agent and their agents and counsel) and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Issuers, their Subsidiaries or their respective creditors or properties and, unless prohibited.
by law or applicable regulations, may vote on behalf of the Holders (pursuant to the written direction of Holders of a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes) in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other Person performing similar functions, and any Custodian in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee will consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the compensation and reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, the Agent and their agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.6. Nothing herein contained will be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Holder any plan or reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in such proceeding.

SECTION 6.10. Priorities. The Trustee will pay out any money or property received by it in the following order:

First: to the Trustee for amounts due under Section 7.6;

Second: to Holders for amounts due and unpaid on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, and interest, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, and interest, respectively; and Third: to the Issuers or, to the extent the Trustee receives any amount for any Subsidiary Guarantor, to such Guarantor as a court of competent jurisdiction will direct.

The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section. At least 15 days before such record date, the Issuers (or Trustee) will deliver to each Holder and the Trustee a notice that states the record date, the payment date and amount to be paid.

SECTION 6.11. Undertaking for Costs. In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including attorneys’ fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 6.7 or a suit by Holders of more than 10.0% in outstanding principal amount of the Notes.

ARTICLE VII

Trustee

SECTION 7.1. Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee will, in the exercise of its rights and powers under this Indenture, use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise of such rights and powers as a prudent Person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such Person’s own affairs, subject to the provisions of clause (b) below.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default of which a Trust Officer has actual knowledge, the Trustee:

(i) and the Agents undertake to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture and no implied covenants or obligations will be read into this Indenture against the Trustee or the Agents; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee under this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees, as applicable. However, in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provisions hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee will examine such certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees as the case may be (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(c) The Trustee will not be relieved from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this Section 7.1(c) does not limit the effect of Section 7.1(b);

(ii) the Trustee will not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer or Trust Officers unless it is proved in a final non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(iii) the Trustee will not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.5.

(d) The Trustee and the Agents will not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Trustee and the Agents may agree in writing with the Issuers.
Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

No provision of this Indenture, the Notes or the Guarantees will require the Trustee or an Agent to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or thereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it will have reasonable grounds to believe that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

Every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee will be subject to the provisions of this Section 7.1.

The Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders unless such Holders will have offered to the Trustee, security, prefunding or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses) that might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction.

SECTION 7.2. Rights of Trustee.

The Trustee and the Agents may conclusively rely and will be protected in acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond or any other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person or Persons. The Trustee and the Agents need not investigate any fact or matter stated in the document.

Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer’s Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel or both. The Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on an Officer’s Certificate or Opinion of Counsel.

The Trustee may act through its attorneys, custodians, nominees and agents and will not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of or for the supervision of any agent, custodians, nominees or attorney appointed with due care.

The Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith which it believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers; provided, however, that the Trustee’s conduct does not constitute willful misconduct or negligence as determined in a final non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction.

The Trustee may consult with counsel of its selection, and the advice or opinion of counsel with respect to legal matters relating to this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees will be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect to any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder or under the Notes and the Guarantees in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel.

(f) The Trustee and the Agents will not be bound to make any investigation into any statement, warranty or representation, or the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond or other paper or document made or in connection with this Indenture; moreover, the Trustee and the Agents will not be bound to make any investigation into (i) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein, (ii) the occurrence of any default, or the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Indenture or any other agreement, instrument or document, or (iii) the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee or an Agent, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee or an Agent, as applicable, determines to make such further inquiry or investigation, it will be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Issuers, personally or by agent or attorney and will incur no liability or additional liability of any kind by reason of such inquiry or investigation.

(g) The Trustee will not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default except any Default or Event of Default of which a Trust Officer will have (i) received written notification from the Issuers or a Holder at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee and such notice references the Notes and this Indenture or (ii) obtained “actual knowledge.” “Actual knowledge” will mean the actual fact or statement of knowing by a Trust Officer without independent investigation with respect thereto.

(h) In no event will the Trustee or an Agent be responsible or liable for special, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee or Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(i) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and will be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent (including the Agents), custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder.

(j) The Trustee may request that the Issuers deliver a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture.

(k) The Trustee will not have any duty (i) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of this Indenture or any agreement referred to herein, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any rerecording, re-filing or redepositing of any thereof or (ii) to see to any insurance.

The right of the Trustee or an Agent to perform any discretionary act enumerated in this Indenture will not be construed as a duty.

SECTION 7.3. Individual Rights of Trustee. Subject to the TIA, the Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Issuers, the Subsidiary Guarantors or their Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. Any Paying Agent, Registrar, co-registrar or co-paying agent may do the same with like rights. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 7.9. In addition, the Trustee will be permitted to engage in transactions with the Issuers; provided, however, that if the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest the Trustee must (a) eliminate such conflict within 90 days of acquiring such conflicting interest, (b) apply to the SEC for permission to continue acting as Trustee or (c) resign.

SECTION 7.4. Disclaimer. Neither the Trustee nor any Agent will be responsible for and neither of them makes any representation as to the validity or adequacy of this Indenture, the Notes or the Guarantees, neither of them will be accountable for the Issuers' use of the Notes or the proceeds from the Notes, and neither of them will be responsible for any statement of the Issuers in this Indenture or in any document issued in connection with the sale of the Notes or in the Notes other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication or for the use or application of any funds received by any Paying Agent other than the Trustee. In accepting the trust hereby created, the Trustee acts solely as Trustee under this Indenture and not in its individual capacity and all persons, including without limitation the Holders and the Issuer having any claim against the Trustee arising from this Indenture shall look only to the funds and accounts held by the Trustee hereunder for payment except as otherwise provided herein.

SECTION 7.5. Notice of Defaults. If a Default occurs and is continuing and is actually known to the Trustee, the Trustee will provide to each Holder notice of the Default within 90 days after it is actually known to the Trustee. Except in the case of a Default in the payment of principal of, premium (if any) or interest on any Note, the Trustee may withhold notice if and so long as a committee of its Trust Officers in good faith determines that withholding notice is in the interests of the Holders.

SECTION 7.6. Compensation and Indemnity. The Issuers will pay to the Trustee and the Agents from time to time such compensation for their services as the parties agree in writing from time to time. The Trustee's compensation will not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Issuers will reimburse the Trustee and the Agents upon request for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred or made by it, including, but not limited to, costs of collection, costs of preparing and reviewing reports, certificates and other documents, costs of preparation and mailing of notices to Holders and costs of counsel, in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses will include the compensation and reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee's agents, counsel, accountants and experts.
The Issuers will indemnify the Trustee and the Agents or any predecessor Trustee or Agent in each of its capacities hereunder (including Paying Agent, and Registrar), and each of their officers, directors, employees, counsel and agents, against any and all loss, liability or expense (including, but not limited to, attorneys’ fees and expenses) incurred by it in connection with the administration of this trust and the performance of their duties hereunder and under the Notes and the Guarantees, including the costs and expenses of enforcing this Indenture (including this Section 7.6), the Notes and the Guarantees and of defending itself against any claims (whether asserted by any Holder, the Issuers or otherwise). The Trustee and the Agents will notify the Issuers promptly of any claim for which it may seek indemnity. Failure by the Trustee or an Agent to so notify the Issuers will not relieve the Issuers of their obligations hereunder. The Issuers will defend the claim and the Trustee and the Agents may have separate counsel and the Issuers will pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel. The Issuers need not reimburse any expense or indemnify against any loss, liability or expense incurred by the Trustee or an Agent as a result of its own willful misconduct or negligence or bad faith.

To secure the Issuers’ payment obligations in this Section, the Trustee will have a lien prior to the Notes on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee other than money or property held in trust to pay principal of and interest on particular Notes. The right of the Trustee to receive payment of any amounts due under this Section 7.6 will not be subordinate to any other liability or indebtedness of the Issuers.

The Issuers’ obligations pursuant to this Section and any lien arising hereunder will survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture and the resignation or removal of the Trustee or an Agent. When the Trustee or an Agent incurs expenses after the occurrence of a Default specified in Section 6.1(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuers, the expenses are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any Bankruptcy Law.

Pursuant to Section 10.1, the obligations of the Issuers hereunder are jointly and severally guaranteed by the Subsidiary Guarantors.

SECTION 7.7. Replacement of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may resign at any time by so notifying the Issuers. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may remove the Trustee upon written notice to the Issuers and the Trustee, and may appoint a successor Trustee. The Issuers will remove the Trustee if:

(i) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.9;
(ii) the Trustee is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;
(iii) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property; or
(iv) the Trustee otherwise becomes incapable of acting.
If the Trustee resigns or is removed by the Issuers or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes and such Holders do not within 30 days thereafter appoint a successor Trustee, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Trustee for any reason (the Trustee in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Trustee), the Issuers will promptly appoint a successor Trustee.

A successor Trustee will deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Issuers. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee will become effective, and the successor Trustee will have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee will deliver a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Trustee will promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee, subject to the lien provided for in Section 7.6. All costs reasonably incurred in connection with any resignation or removal hereunder will be borne by the Issuers.

If a successor Trustee does not take office within 30 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, the Holders of at least 10.0% in principal amount of the Notes may petition, at the Issuers’ expense, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

If the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.9, unless the Trustee’s duty to resign is stayed, any Holder may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 7.7, the Issuers’ obligations under this Indenture will continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

SECTION 7.8. Successor Trustee by Merger. If the Trustee, consolidates with, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all its corporate trust business or assets to, another corporation or banking association, the resulting, surviving or transferee corporation without any further act will be the successor Trustee.

In case at the time such successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation to the Trustee will succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture, any of the Notes will have been authenticated but not delivered, any such successor to the Trustee may adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor trustee, and deliver such Notes so authenticated; and in case at that time any of the Notes will not have been authenticated, any successor to the Trustee may authenticate such Notes either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor to the Trustee; and in all such cases such certificates will have the full force which it is anywhere in the Notes or in this Indenture provided.

SECTION 7.9. Eligibility; Disqualification. The Trustee will have a combined capital and surplus of at least $150,000 as set forth in its most recent filed annual report of condition.
This Indenture will always have a Trustee who satisfies the requirements of TIA § 310(a)(1), (2) and (5). The Trustee is subject to TIA § 310(b).

SECTION 7.10. Limitation on Duty of Trustee. The Trustee will not have any duty to ascertain or inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms of this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees by the Issuers, the Subsidiary Guarantors or any other Person.

SECTION 7.11. Preferential Collection of Claims Against the Issuers. The Trustee is subject to TIA § 311(a), excluding any creditor relationship listed in TIA § 311(b). A Trustee who has resigned or been removed will be subject to TIA § 311(a) to the extent indicated therein.

SECTION 7.12. Reports by Trustee to Holders. Within 60 days after each October 15, beginning with October 15, 2019, the Trustee will provide to the Holders a brief report dated as of such reporting date that complies with TIA § 313(a) (but if no event described in TIA § 313(a) has occurred within the twelve months preceding the reporting date, no report need be transmitted). The Trustee also will comply with TIA § 313(b). The Trustee will also provide all reports as required by TIA § 313(c). The Trustee shall promptly provide, upon written request by a Holder (including an owner of beneficial interest in a Note) a true and complete copy of each and any Notes Document (including schedules and exhibits thereto).

The Issuers will promptly notify the Trustee in writing when any Notes are listed on any stock exchange and of any delisting thereof.

ARTICLE VIII

Discharge of Indenture; Defeasance

SECTION 8.1. Discharge of Liability on Notes; Defeasance.

(a) This Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect (except as to rights, indemnities and immunities of the Trustee and to surviving rights of registration or transfer or exchange of Notes, as expressly provided for in this Indenture) as to all outstanding Notes, and the Liens, if any, on the Collateral securing the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be released, in each case when:

(i) either (A) all the Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than Notes which have been replaced or paid pursuant to Section 2.7 and Notes for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Issuers and thereafter repaid to the Issuers or discharged from such trust) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or (B) all of the Notes not previously delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (1) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year or (3) if redeemable at the option of the Issuers, have been called for redemption or are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the

Issuers, and any of the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in cash in U.S. Dollars, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes to the date of deposit together with irrevocable instructions from the Issuers directing the Trustee to apply such funds to the payment thereof at maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(ii) the Issuers and/or the Subsidiary Guarantors have paid all other sums payable under this Indenture; and

(iii) Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent under this Indenture relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

(b) Subject to Section 8.1(c) and Section 8.2, the Issuers at any time may terminate (i) all of their obligations under the Notes and this Indenture (with respect to such Notes) and have each Subsidiary Guarantor’s obligation discharged with respect to its Subsidiary Guarantee and have Liens, if any, on the Collateral securing the Notes and the Note Guarantees released and cure any then-existing Events of Default (“legal defeasance option”) or (ii) its obligations under Sections 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.7, 3.8, 3.9, 3.10, 3.11, 3.12, 3.14, 3.15, 3.16, 3.19 and 3.20 and the operation of Section 4.1 (other than Sections 4.1(a)(i), (ii) and (vi)) and Sections 6.1(c) (with respect to any Default under Sections 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.7, 3.8, 3.9, 3.10, 3.11, 3.12, 3.14, 3.15, 3.16, 3.19 and 3.20), 6.1(d), 6.1(e) (with respect to Significant Subsidiaries of the Issuers only), 6.1(f) (with respect to Significant Subsidiaries of the Issuers only), 6.1(g), 6.1(h), 6.1(i), 6.1(j), 6.1(k) and 6.1(m) and have Liens, if any, on the Collateral securing the Notes and the Note Guarantees released (“covenant defeasance option”). The Issuers may exercise their legal defeasance option notwithstanding their prior exercise of the covenant defeasance option. In the event that the Issuers terminate all of their obligations under the Notes and this Indenture (with respect to such Notes) by exercising the legal defeasance option or the covenant defeasance option, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee of such Notes will be terminated simultaneously with the termination of such obligations.

(c) If the Issuers exercise their legal defeasance option, payment of the Notes so defeased may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default. If the Issuers exercise their covenant defeasance option, payment of the Notes so defeased may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default specified in Section 6.1(c) (with respect to any Default by the Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries with any of their obligations under Article III other than Sections 3.1, 3.13, 3.17, 6.1(d), 6.1(e) (with respect to Significant Subsidiaries of the Issuers only), 6.1(f) (with respect to Significant Subsidiaries of the Issuers only)), 6.1(g), 6.1(h), 6.1(i), 6.1(j), 6.1(k) or 6.1(m).

(d) Upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth herein and upon request of the Issuers, the Trustee will acknowledge in writing the discharge of those obligations that the Issuers terminate.
Notwithstanding clauses (a) and (b) above, the Issuers’ obligations in Sections 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, 2.8, 7.6, 7.7 and in this Article VIII will survive until the Notes have been paid in full. Thereafter, the Issuers’ obligations in Sections 7.6, 8.5 and 8.6 will survive such satisfaction and discharge.

SECTION 8.2. Conditions to Defeasance.

(a) The Issuers may exercise their legal defeasance option or their covenant defeasance option only if:

(i) the Issuers irrevocably deposit or cause to be deposited in trust with the Trustee cash in U.S. Dollars, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of, and premium (if any) and interest on the applicable Notes when due at maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(ii) the Issuers deliver to the Trustee a certificate from a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm expressing their opinion that the payments of principal and interest when due and without reinvestment on the deposited U.S. Government Obligations plus any deposited money without investment will provide cash at such times and in such amounts as will be sufficient to pay principal, premium, if any, and interest when due on all the Notes to maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(iii) the Issuers deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the trust resulting from the deposit does not constitute, or is qualified as, a regulated investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940;

(iv) the Issuers shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Issuers with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding any creditors of the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor or others;

(v) in the case of the legal defeasance option, the Issuers will have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that (A) the Issuers have received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, or (B) since the date of this Indenture there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel will confirm that, the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance had not occurred;

(vi) in the case of the covenant defeasance option, the Issuers will have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same... amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance had not occurred; and

(vii) the Issuers deliver to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent to the defeasance and discharge of the Notes to be so defeased and discharged as contemplated by this Article VIII have been complied with.

(b) Before or after a deposit, the Issuers may make arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of such Notes at a future date in accordance with Article V.

SECTION 8.3.
Application of Trust Money. The Trustee will hold in trust money or U.S. Government Obligations deposited with it pursuant to this Article VIII. It will apply the deposited money and the money from U.S. Government Obligations through the Paying Agent and in accordance with this Indenture to the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes.

SECTION 8.4. Repayment to Issuers. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee will deliver or pay to the Issuers from time to time upon Company Order any money or U.S. Government Obligations held by it as provided in this Article VIII which, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee, are in excess of the amount thereof which would then be required to be deposited to effect legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option, as applicable, provided that the Trustee will not be required to liquidate any U.S. Government Obligations in order to comply with the provisions of this Section 8.4.

Subject to any applicable abandoned property law, the Trustee and the Paying Agent will pay to the Issuers upon written request any money held by them for the payment of principal of or interest on the Notes that remains unclaimed for two years, and, thereafter, Holders entitled to the money must look to the Issuers for payment as general creditors.

SECTION 8.5. Indemnity for U.S. Government Obligations. The Issuers will pay and will indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against deposited U.S. Government Obligations or the principal and interest received on such U.S. Government Obligations.

SECTION 8.6. Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article VIII by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the obligations of the Issuers and each Subsidiary Guarantor under this Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees will be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to this Article VIII until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article VIII; provided, however, that, if any of the Issuers or the Subsidiary Guarantors has made any payment of interest on or principal of any Notes because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor, as the case may be, will be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money or U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

ARTICLE IX

Amendments

SECTION 9.1. Without Consent of Holders. Notwithstanding Section 9.2, the Notes Documents may be amended or supplemented by the Issuers, any Subsidiary Guarantor (with respect to this Indenture or a Subsidiary Guarantee to which it is a party), MYT Parent or the MYT Guarantor Entities (in respect of the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement or any related security documents), the Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent, as applicable, without notice to or consent of any Holder:

(a) to cure any ambiguity, omission, mistake, defect or inconsistency identified in an Officer’s Certificate of the Issuer, which states that such cure is a good faith attempt by the Issuer to reflect the intention of the parties to this Indenture, delivered to the Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent;

(b) to conform the text of the Notes Documents (including any supplemental indenture or other instrument pursuant to which Additional Notes are issued) to the “Description of New Notes” in the Exchange Offering Memorandum or, with respect to any Additional Notes and any supplemental indenture or other instrument pursuant to which such Additional Notes are issued, to the “Description of Notes” relating to the issuance of such Additional Notes, solely to the extent that such “Description of Notes” provides for terms of such Additional Notes that differ from the terms of the Initial Notes, as contemplated by Section 2.2;

(c) to comply with Section 4.1;

(d) to provide for the assumption by a successor Person of the obligations of an Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor under and in accordance with this Indenture and the Notes or Subsidiary Guarantee, as the case may be;

(e) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes; provided, however, that the uncertificated Notes are issued in registered form for purposes of Section 163(f) of the Code;

(f) to add or release Subsidiary Guarantees in accordance with the terms of the Notes Documents;

(g) to mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or grant any other Lien in favor of the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Holders, as additional security for the payment and performance of all or any portion of the Notes Obligations, in any property or assets, including any which are required to be mortgaged, pledged or hypothesized, or in which a Lien is required to be granted to or for the benefit of the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent pursuant to the Notes Documents or otherwise;

(h) to add to the covenants of the Issuers for the benefit of the Holders or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuers, any Subsidiary Guarantor, MYT Parent or any MYT Entity;

(i) to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any Holder upon delivery to the Trustee of an Officer’s Certificate of the Issuer certifying the absence of such adverse effect;

(j) to comply with any requirement of the SEC in connection with the qualification of this Indenture under the TIA;

(k) to make any amendment to the provisions of the Notes Documents relating to the transfer and legending of Notes as permitted by this Indenture, including to facilitate the issuance and administration of the Notes; provided, however, that (i) compliance with this Indenture as so amended would not result in Notes being transferred in violation of the Securities Act or any applicable securities law and (ii) such amendment does not materially and adversely affect the rights of Holders to transfer Notes;

(l) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor Trustee, provided that the successor Trustee is otherwise qualified and eligible to act as such under the terms of this Indenture;

(m) to provide for or confirm the issuance of Additional Notes in accordance with this Indenture;

(n) to provide for the accession of any parties to the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, as applicable (and other amendments to such documents that in either case are administrative or ministerial in nature) in connection with an incurrence of additional Indebtedness to the extent permitted by the Notes Documents;

(o) to provide for the release of the Collateral from the Liens in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, provided that such release shall not affect the liens on the collateral granted in accordance with, and pursuant to the terms of the 8.000% Third Lien Indenture; or provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, no co-obligor or co-issuer may be added (directly or indirectly) to the Notes without the consent of a majority in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding.

(p) to enter into a Customary Intercreditor Agreement in connection with the incurrence of Junior Lien Indebtedness or Pari Passu Lien Indebtedness permitted by this Indenture;

SECTION 9.2. With Consent of Holders.

(a) This Indenture, the Notes, the Guarantees and the Security Documents may be amended or supplemented with the consent of the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (including consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, Notes) and any existing or past Default or compliance with any provisions of such documents may be waived with the consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (including consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, Notes). For the avoidance of doubt, the Notes and the 8.000% Third Lien Notes will be treated separately, except that a majority in outstanding principal amount of all of the Third Lien Notes will direct the Notes Collateral Agent (other than with respect to any Collateral that secures only the Notes but not the 8.000% Third Lien Notes or only the 8.000% Third Lien Notes but not the Notes). However, without the consent of each Holder of a Note affected (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Notes held by Affiliates), no amendment, supplement or waiver may (with respect to any Notes held by a non-consenting Holder):

(i) reduce the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of Notes whose Holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;

(ii) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Note;

(iii) reduce the principal of or change the Stated Maturity of any Note;

(iv) waive a Default in the payment of principal of or premium, if any, or interest on the Notes, except a rescission of acceleration of the Notes by the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration;

(v) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Note or change the time at which any Note may be redeemed as described under Section 5.1;

(vi) make any Note payable in money other than that stated in such Note;

(vii) impair the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on such Holder’s Notes on or after the due dates therefor or to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to such Holder’s Notes;

(viii) make any change in the amendment or waiver provisions of this Indenture that require each Holder’s consent, as described in clauses (i) through (xv);
(ix) make any change in the provisions of this Indenture relating to waivers of past Defaults or the rights of Holders to receive payments of principal of or premium, if any, or interest on the Notes;

(x) make the Notes or any Guarantee subordinated in right of payment or “waterfall” priority to, in either case, any other Obligations; or

(xi) release any Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor from its Obligations under the Notes Documents, except in accordance with the terms of the Notes Documents.

In addition, without the consent of the Holders of at least 66 2/3% in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes, no amendment, supplement or waiver may modify any Notes Document that would have the effect of (i) releasing all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens of the Security Documents (except as permitted by the terms of this Indenture or the Security Documents) or changing or altering the priority of Notes Liens on the Collateral or (ii) releasing all or substantially all of the “Collateral” (as defined in the MYT Third Lien Pledge Agreement) or changing or altering the priority of the Liens granted pursuant to the MYT Third Lien Pledge Agreement (except as permitted by the terms thereof or any other Notes Document).

(b) It is not necessary for the consent of the Holders under this Section 9.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, but it will be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

(c) Additional Notes will be disregarded for purposes of any amendment or waiver relating to a Default or Event of Default that existed (disregarding any applicable notice, cure or grace periods) prior to the time of issuance of such Additional Notes.

(d) After an amendment under this Section 9.2 becomes effective, the Issuers will (or will cause the Trustee, at the expense of and at the written request of the Issuers, to) deliver to the Holders affected thereby a notice briefly describing such amendment. The failure of the Issuers to deliver such notice, or any defect therein, will not in any way impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section 9.2.

SECTION 9.3. Effect of Consents and Waivers. A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder of a Note will bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Note or portion of the Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder’s Note, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Note. After an amendment or waiver becomes effective, it will bind every Holder unless it makes a change described in clauses (i) through (ix) of Section 9.2(a), in which case the amendment or waiver or other action will bind each Holder who has consented to it and every subsequent Holder that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder’s Notes. An amendment or waiver made pursuant to Section 9.2 will become effective upon receipt by the Trustee of the requisite number of written consents.
The Issuers may, but will not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above or required or permitted to be taken pursuant to this Indenture. If a record date is fixed, then notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, those Persons who were Holders at such record date (or their duly designated proxies), and only those Persons, will be entitled to give such consent or to take any such action, whether or not such Persons continue to be Holders after such record date.

SECTION 9.4. Notation on or Exchange of Notes. If an amendment changes the terms of a Note, the Trustee may require the Holder of the Note to deliver it to the Trustee. The Trustee may place an appropriate notation on the Note regarding the changed terms and return it to the Holder. Alternatively, if the Issuers or the Trustee so determines, the Issuers in exchange for the Note will issue and the Trustee will authenticate a new Note that reflects the changed terms. Failure to make the appropriate notation or to issue a new Note will not affect the validity of such amendment.

SECTION 9.5. Trustee To Sign Amendments. The Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent will sign any amendment, supplement or waiver authorized pursuant to this Article IX if the amendment, supplement or waiver does not, in the sole determination of the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent, as applicable, adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent, as applicable. If it does, the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent, as applicable, may but need not sign it. In signing any amendment, supplement or waiver pursuant to this Article IX, the Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent will be entitled to receive, and (subject to Section 7.1 and Section 7.2) will be fully protected in relying upon, an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that such amendment, supplement or waiver is authorized or permitted by or complies with this Indenture, that all conditions precedent to such amendment required by this Indenture have been complied with and that such amendment, supplement or waiver is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Issuers, enforceable against the Issuers in accordance with its terms, subject to customary exceptions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Opinion of Counsel will be required for the Trustee to execute any amendment or supplement adding a new Guarantor under this Indenture.

ARTICLE X

Guarantees

SECTION 10.1. Guarantees.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Article X, each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby jointly and severally, irrevocably, fully and unconditionally guarantees, on a senior basis, as guarantor and not as a surety, with each other Guarantor, the full and punctual payment when due, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, all Obligations of the Issuers under this Indenture and the Notes Documents (including interest that, but for the filing of a petition in any bankruptcy or other insolvency proceeding with respect to the Issuers, would have accrued on any Obligation, whether or not a claim is allowed against the Issuers for such interest in the related bankruptcy proceeding) to the Holders and the Trustee, whether for payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes, expenses, indemnification or otherwise (all such obligations guaranteed by such Subsidiary Guarantors being herein called the “Guaranteed Obligations”). Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees (to the extent lawful) that the Guaranteed Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound under this Article X notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Subsidiary Guarantor Obligation.

(b) Each Subsidiary Guarantor waives (to the extent lawful) presentation to, demand of, payment from and protest to the Issuers of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and also waives (to the extent lawful) notice of protest for nonpayment. Each Subsidiary Guarantor waives (to the extent lawful) notice of any default under the Notes or the Guaranteed Obligations.

(c) Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein constitutes a Guarantee of payment when due (and not a Guarantee of collection) and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Holder to any security held for payment of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(d) Except as set forth in Section 10.2 and Article VIII, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder will not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason (other than payment of the Guaranteed Obligations in full), including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and will not (to the extent lawful) be subject to any defense of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever or by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor herein will not (to the extent lawful) be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by (i) the failure of any Holder to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against the Issuers or any other Person under this Indenture, the Notes or any other agreement or otherwise; (ii) any extension or renewal of any thereof; (iii) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture, the Notes, the Notes Collateral Agreement, the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement or any other Notes Document; (iv) the release of any security held by any Holder for the Guaranteed Obligations or any of them; (v) the failure of any Holder to exercise any right or remedy against any other Guarantor; (vi) any change in the ownership of the Issuers; (vii) any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the Guaranteed Obligations; or (viii) any other act or thing or omission or delay to do any other act or thing which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of any Subsidiary Guarantor or would otherwise operate as a discharge of such Guarantor as a matter of law or equity.

(e) Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein will remain in full force and effect until payment in full of all the Guaranteed Obligations or such Subsidiary Guarantor is released from its Subsidiary Guarantee in compliance with Section 4.1, Section 10.2 and Article VIII. Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein will continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Holder upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Issuers or otherwise.

(f) In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Holder has at law or in equity against any Subsidiary Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of the Issuers to pay any of the Guaranteed Obligations when and as the same will become due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Trustee, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash, to the Trustee or the Trustee on behalf of the Holders an amount equal to the sum of (i) the unpaid amount of such Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing and (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Guaranteed Obligations then due and owing (but only to the extent not prohibited by law) (including interest accruing after the filing of any petition in bankruptcy or the commencement of any insolvency, reorganization or like proceeding relating to the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor whether or not a claim for post-filing or post-petition interest is allowed in such proceeding).

(g) Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that, as between such Subsidiary Guarantor, on the one hand, and the Holders, on the other hand, (i) the maturity of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed by this Guarantee may be accelerated as provided in this Indenture for the purposes of its Subsidiary Guarantee in this Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed by this Guarantee and (ii) in the event of any such declaration of acceleration of such Guaranteed Obligations, such Guaranteed Obligations (whether or not due and payable) will forthwith become due and payable by the Guarantor for the purposes of this Subsidiary Guarantee.

(h) Each Subsidiary Guarantor also agrees to pay any and all reasonable costs and expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by the Trustee or the Holders in enforcing any rights under this Guarantee.

(i) No Issuers or the Subsidiary Guarantors will be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Subsidiary Guarantee or any release, termination or discharge thereof and any such notation will not be a condition to the validity of any Guarantee.

SECTION 10.2. Limitation on Liability; Termination, Release and Discharge.

(a) Any term or provision of this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder will be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Guarantor and after giving effect to any collections from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other
A Subsidiary Guarantee by a Subsidiary Guarantor (other than Notes PropCo and Extended Term Loan PropCo) will be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged:

(i) upon the sale, exchange, disposition or other transfer (including through merger or consolidation) of the Capital Stock of such Subsidiary Guarantor to a party that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer, if after such transaction, the Subsidiary Guarantor is no longer a Subsidiary (so long as such transaction is permitted by this Indenture); or

(ii) upon the Issuers’ exercise of their legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option under Section 8.1(b) or if the Issuers’ Obligations under this Indenture are discharged in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

(c) The Notes PropCo Guarantee will be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged:

(i) upon the sale, exchange, disposition or other transfer (including through merger or consolidation) of all of the Capital Stock of Notes PropCo to a party that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer, if after such transaction, Notes PropCo is no longer a Subsidiary (so long as such transaction is permitted by this Indenture); or

(ii) upon the Issuers’ exercise of their legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option under Section 8.1(b) or if the Issuers’ Obligations under this Indenture are discharged in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

(d) The Extended Term Loan PropCo Guarantee will be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged:

(i) upon the sale, exchange, disposition or other transfer (including through merger or consolidation) of all of the Capital Stock of Extended Term Loan PropCo to a party that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer, if after such transaction, Extended Term Loan PropCo is no longer a Subsidiary (so long as such transaction is permitted by this Indenture); or

(ii) upon the Issuers’ exercise of their legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option under Section 8.1(b) or if the Issuers’ Obligations under this Indenture are discharged in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

(e) In the case of Section 10.2(b), the Issuers will deliver to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions

The release of a Subsidiary Guarantor from its Subsidiary Guarantee and its obligations under this Indenture in accordance with the provisions of this Section 10.2 will not preclude the future application of Section 3.11 to such Person.

SECTION 10.3. Right of Contribution. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby agrees that to the extent that any such Guarantor will have paid more than its proportionate share of any payment made on the obligations under its Guarantee, such Guarantor will be entitled to seek and receive contribution from and against the Issuers or any other Guarantor who have not paid their proportionate share of such payment. The provisions of this Section 10.3 will in no respect limit the obligations and liabilities of each Subsidiary Guarantor to the Trustee and the Holders and each Subsidiary Guarantor will remain liable to the Trustee and the Holders for the full amount guaranteed by such Guarantor hereunder.

SECTION 10.4. No Subrogation. Notwithstanding any payment or payments made by each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder, no Guarantor will be entitled to be subrogated to any of the rights of the Trustee or any Holder against the Issuers or any other Guarantor or any collateral security or guarantee or right of offset held by the Trustee or any Holder for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, nor will any Subsidiary Guarantor seek or be entitled to seek any contribution or reimbursement from the Issuers or any other Guarantor in respect of payments made by such Guarantor hereunder, until all amounts owing to the Trustee and the Holders by the Issuers on account of the Guaranteed Obligations are paid in full. If any amount will be paid to any Subsidiary Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Guaranteed Obligations will not have been paid in full, such amount will be held by such Guarantor in trust for the Trustee and the Holders, segregated from other funds of such Guarantor, and will, forthwith upon receipt by such Guarantor, be turned over to the Trustee in the exact form received by such Guarantor (duly indorsed by such Guarantor to the Trustee, if required), to be applied against the Guaranteed Obligations.

SECTION 10.5. Limitations on Merger. Subject to Section 4.1 and Section 10.2, a Subsidiary Guarantor will not, and the Issuer will not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to, consolidate or merge with or into or wind up into (whether or not such Guarantor is the surviving corporation), or sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties or assets in one or more related transactions to, any Person unless:

(a) such Person is a Successor Guarantor;

(b) the Successor Guarantor (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) expressly assumes all the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under this Indenture and such Subsidiary Guarantor’s Guarantee pursuant to a supplemental indenture or other documents or instruments;
(c) immediately after giving effect to such transaction (and treating any Indebtedness that becomes an obligation of the Successor Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries as a result of such transaction as having been Incurred by the Successor Guarantor or such Subsidiary at the time of such transaction) no Default or Event of Default will have occurred and be continuing; and

(d) the Successor Guarantor (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) will have delivered or caused to be delivered to the Trustee an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and such supplemental indenture (if any) comply with this Indenture; or

(e) such sale or disposition or consolidation or merger does not violate Section 3.7.

The Successor Guarantor will succeed to, and be substituted for, such Subsidiary Guarantor under this Indenture and such Subsidiary Guarantor’s Guarantee, and such Subsidiary Guarantor will automatically be released and discharged from its obligations under this Indenture and such Guarantor’s Guarantee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) a Subsidiary Guarantor may merge or consolidate with an Affiliate of the Issuer incorporated or organized solely for the purpose of reincorporating or reorganizing such Guarantor in the United States, any state or territory thereof, the District of Columbia or the jurisdiction of such Guarantor, so long as the principal amount of Indebtedness of the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries is not increased thereby and the Person resulting from such merger or consolidation is or becomes an Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor, (2) a Subsidiary Guarantor may consolidate or merge with or into or wind up into, or sell, assign, transfer, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties and assets to an Issuer or another Subsidiary Guarantor, (3) a Subsidiary Guarantor may convert into a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company or trust organized or existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of organization of such Guarantor or the laws of a jurisdiction in the United States, so long as such Subsidiary Guarantor remains a Subsidiary Guarantor and (4) any Restricted Subsidiary may merge into any Subsidiary Guarantor, provided that, in the case of this clause (4), the surviving Person will be a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company or trust organized or existing under the laws of the United States, any state or territory thereof or the District of Columbia or the jurisdiction of organization of such Restricted Subsidiary or Subsidiary Guarantor and the surviving Person of such merger (if not the Guarantor) is or will become a Subsidiary Guarantor upon the consummation of such merger.

SECTION 10.6. Subordination of PropCo Guarantees. The guarantee by Extended Term Loan Propco of the Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to this Article X is subordinate in the manner and to the extent set forth in that certain subordination agreement (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time) dated as of June 7, 2019 among the Collateral Agent, Extended Term Loan PropCo and the other parties thereto (the “Extended Term Loan PropCo Subordination Agreement”), to the Senior Priority Guarantee Obligations (as defined therein); and each Holder, by its
The guarantee by Notes PropCo of the Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to this Article X is subordinate in the manner and to the extent set forth in that certain subordination agreement (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time) dated as of June 7, 2019 among the Collateral Agent, Notes PropCo and the other parties thereto (the “Notes PropCo Subordination Agreement”), to the Senior Priority Guarantee Obligations (as defined therein); and each Holder, by its acceptance of a Note or a beneficial interest therein, irrevocably agrees to be bound by the provisions of such subordination agreement.

ARTICLE XI

Collateral

The Notes Obligations are secured by the Collateral as provided in the Security Documents with Liens that have the Required Collateral Lien Priority. The Issuer shall, and shall cause each Subsidiary Guarantor to, and each Subsidiary Guarantor shall, make all filings (including filings of continuation statements and amendments to UCC financing statements that may be necessary to continue the effectiveness of such UCC financing statements) necessary to maintain (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors) the security interest created by the Security Documents in the Collateral as a perfected security interest to the extent perfection is required by the Security Documents, subject only to Permitted Liens.

SECTION 11.2. Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral and Extended Term Loan PropCo Equity Interests.

(a) On the Issue Date (or within the Initial Post-Closing Period, subject to the Extended Post-Closing Period, in the event that the Extended Term Loan Agent extends such Initial Post-Closing Period for obtaining mortgages or deeds of trust on the Notes Priority Real Estate Collateral or the Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral beyond such Initial Post-Closing Period, provided, that, during such Extended Post-Closing Period, no such mortgages or deeds of trust on any Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral to secure the Notes Obligations shall be obtained more than 10 days after the corresponding mortgages or deeds of trust on such properties are obtained to secure the Extended Term Loan Obligations), the Notes Collateral Agent shall be granted a third-priority Lien on specified real estate interests which consist of certain owned real properties and real property leases (whether operating leases, ground leases, or otherwise) which constitute collateral for the Extended Term Loan Obligations as of the Issue Date to the extent not constituting Non-Mortgageable Leases (such real estate interests, the "Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral")
Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any real property interests that would otherwise be mortgaged as Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral constitute Non-Mortgageable Leases (the “Extended Term Loan Priority PropCo Assets”), such Non-Mortgageable Leases shall be contributed to the Extended Term Loan PropCo, which shall grant a lease or license to the applicable Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer to use the Extended Term Loan Priority PropCo Assets on terms consistent with Exhibit F in each case within the time period described in clause (a).

SECTION 11.3. Notes Priority Real Estate Collateral and Notes PropCo Equity Interests.

(a) On the Issue Date (or within the Initial Post-Closing Period, subject to the Extended Post-Closing Period, in the event that the Extended Term Loan Agent extends such Initial Post-Closing Period for obtaining mortgages or deeds of trust on the Notes Priority Real Estate Collateral or the Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral beyond such Initial Post-Closing Period; provided, that, during such Extended Post-Closing Period, no such mortgages or deeds of trust on any Extended Term Loan Priority Real Estate Collateral to secure the Third Lien Notes Obligations shall be obtained more than 10 days after the corresponding mortgages or deeds of trust on such properties are obtained to secure the Extended Term Loan Obligations), the Notes Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Holders shall be granted a Lien on the Notes Priority Real Estate Collateral and a pledge of the Notes PropCo Equity Interests in each case with the Required Collateral Lien Priority applicable thereto.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any real property interests that would otherwise be mortgaged as Notes Priority Real Estate Collateral constitute Non-Mortgageable Leases, then the Issuer shall cause Notes PropCo to be formed as promptly as practicable, and, in lieu of such mortgages, the applicable Non-Mortgageable Leases (such interests ceasing to be Notes Priority Real Estate Collateral, the “Notes Priority PropCo Assets”) shall be contributed to the Notes PropCo. In the event that Notes PropCo is formed, it shall grant a lease or license to the applicable Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer to use the Notes Priority PropCo Assets on terms consistent with Exhibit F in each case within the time period described in clause (a).

SECTION 11.4. Notes Collateral Agent.

(a) The Notes Collateral Agent shall have all the rights, benefits, privileges, protections, indemnities and immunities provided in the Security Documents and, additionally, shall have all the rights, benefits, privileges, protections, indemnities and immunities provided to the “Trustee” under Article VII.

(b) Subject to Section 7.1, none of the Notes Collateral Agent, Trustee, Paying Agent or Registrar nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys or agents will be responsible or liable for the existence, genuineness, value or protection of any Collateral, for the legality, enforceability, effectiveness or sufficiency of the Security Documents, for the creation, perfection, priority, sufficiency or protection of any Notes Liens, or any defect or deficiency as to any such matters.

(c) Except as required or permitted by the Security Documents, and the Intercreditor Agreements, the Holders, by accepting a Note, acknowledge that the Notes Collateral Agent will not be obligated:

(i) to act upon directions purported to be delivered to it by any Person, except in accordance with the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements;

(ii) to foreclose upon or otherwise enforce any Lien granted pursuant to the Security Documents; or

(iii) to take any other action whatsoever with regard to any or all of the Notes Liens, Security Documents, Intercreditor Agreements or Collateral.

(d) The Notes Collateral Agent may be removed and replaced in the same manner as the Trustee, as provided the Notes Collateral Agreement and the MYT Third Lien Notes Pledge Agreement.

SECTION 11.5. Authorization of Actions to Be Taken.

(a) Each Holder, by its acceptance thereof, consents and agrees to the terms of each Security Document, as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture, authorizes and directs the Trustee and Notes Collateral Agent to enter into the Security Documents to which each is a party, authorizes and empowers the Trustee and Notes Collateral Agent to execute and deliver the Intercreditor Agreements and authorizes and empowers the Trustee and Notes Collateral Agent to bind the Holders as set forth in the Security Documents to which each is a party and the Intercreditor Agreements and to perform their respective obligations and exercise their respective rights and powers thereunder.

(b) The Trustee is authorized and empowered to receive for the benefit of the Holders any funds collected or distributed to the Notes Collateral Agent under the Security Documents to which the Trustee is a party and, subject to the terms of the Security Documents, to make further distributions of such funds to the Holders according to the provisions of this Indenture.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Sections 7.1, 7.2, the Intercreditor Agreements and the Security Documents, the Trustee may, in its sole discretion and without the consent of the Holders, direct, on behalf of the Holders, the Notes Collateral Agent to take all actions it deems necessary or appropriate in order to, upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default:
foreclose upon or otherwise enforce any or all of the Liens granted pursuant to the Security Documents;

(ii) enforce any of the terms of the Security Documents to which the Notes Collateral Agent is a party; or

(iii) collect and receive payment of any and all Obligations.

Following an Event of Default, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements and at the Issuer’s sole cost and expense, the Trustee is hereby authorized and empowered by each Holder (by its acceptance thereof) to, subject to Sections 7.1 and 7.2 institute and maintain, or direct the Notes Collateral Agent to institute and maintain, such suits and proceedings as it may deem reasonably expedient to protect or enforce the Liens granted under the Security Documents to which the Notes Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or to prevent any impairment of Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Security Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee may deem reasonably expedient, at the Issuer’s sole cost and expense, to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders in the Collateral, including power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the Liens granted under the Security Documents or be prejudicial to the interests of Holders or the Trustee.

(a) Collateral may be released from the Lien and security interest created by the Security Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. In addition, the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors will be entitled to the release of assets included in the Collateral from the Liens securing the Notes, and the Trustee shall (or, if the Trustee is not then the Notes Collateral Agent, shall direct the Notes Collateral Agent to) release the same from such Liens at the Issuer’s sole cost and expense, under any one or more of the following circumstances without the need for any further action by any Person:

(i) as to any property or assets to enable the Issuers or the Subsidiary Guarantors to consummate the disposition of such property or assets to the extent not prohibited and otherwise in accordance with Section 3.7; provided, however, that if such property or assets, immediately prior thereto, were subject to any Lien securing any Obligations of the Issuers or Subsidiary Guarantors and such property or assets continue after such disposition to be subject to a Lien securing any such Obligations, no such release shall occur with respect to such property or assets;

(ii) in the case of the property and assets of a Restricted Subsidiary that is a Subsidiary Guarantor, upon the release of such Subsidiary Guarantor from its Subsidiary Guarantee of the Notes;
as described under Article IX of this Indenture.

(b) The security interests in all Collateral securing the Notes also will be released upon payment in full of the principal of, together with accrued and unpaid interest on, the Notes and all other Obligations under this Indenture, the Notes, the Guarantees and the Security Documents that are due and payable at or prior to the time such principal, together with accrued and unpaid interest are paid, or upon the Issuers’ exercise of a legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option under this Indenture as described under Article VIII.

(c) Upon the written request of the Issuer pursuant to an Officer’s Certificate and Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent hereunder and under the Security Documents have been met, and upon receipt of any necessary or proper instruments of termination, satisfaction or release prepared by the Issuer or the Subsidiary Guarantors, as the case may be, the Notes Collateral Agent, without the consent of any Holder or the Trustee and at the expense of the Issuer or the Subsidiary Guarantors, shall execute, deliver or acknowledge such instruments or releases to evidence the release of any Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this or the Security Documents.

SECTION 11.7. Filing, Recording and Opinions.

(a) The Issuer will comply with the provisions of Sections 314(b) and 314(d) of the TIA, in each case following qualification of this Indenture pursuant to the TIA. Any certificate or opinion required by Section 314(d) of the TIA may be made by an Officer of the Issuer except in cases where Section 314(d) of the TIA requires that such certificate or opinion be made by an independent engineer, appraiser or other expert, who shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors will not be required to comply with all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the TIA if they determine, in good faith, after consultation with counsel (which may be internal counsel), that under the terms of that section and/or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the SEC and its staff, including “no action” letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the TIA is inapplicable to the released Collateral. Following such qualification, to the extent the Issuer is required to furnish to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel pursuant to Section 314(b)(2) of the TIA, the Issuer will furnish such opinion not more than 60 but not less than 30 days prior to each October 15, commencing October 15, 2019.

Any release of Collateral permitted by Section 11.6 and this Section 11.7 will be deemed not to impair the Liens under this Indenture and the Security Documents in contravention thereof and any Person that is required to deliver an Officer’s Certificate or Opinion of Counsel pursuant to Section 314(d) of the TIA, shall be entitled to rely upon the foregoing as a basis for delivery of such certificate or opinion. The Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent may, to the extent permitted by Section 7.1 and 7.2, accept as conclusive evidence of compliance with the foregoing provisions the appropriate statements contained in such documents and Opinion of Counsel.
(b) If any Collateral is released in accordance with this Indenture or any Security Document at a time when the Trustee is not itself also the Notes Collateral Agent and if the Issuer has delivered the certificates and documents required by the Security Documents and Section 11.6, the Trustee will deliver all documentation received by it in connection with such release to the Notes Collateral Agent.

SECTION 11.8. Powers Exercisable by Receiver or Trustee. In case the Collateral shall be in the possession of a receiver or trustee, lawfully appointed, the powers conferred in this Article XI upon the Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor with respect to the release, sale or other disposition of such property may be exercised by such receiver or trustee, and an instrument signed by such receiver or trustee shall be deemed the equivalent of any similar instrument of the Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor or of any officer or officers thereof required by the provisions of this Article XI and if the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent shall be in the possession of the Collateral under any provision of this Indenture, then such powers may be exercised by the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent, as the case may be.

SECTION 11.9. Voting. In connection with any matter under the Security Agreement requiring a vote of holders of Secured Obligations (as defined in the Security Agreement), the holders of such Secured Obligations shall be treated as a single class and the Holders shall cast their votes in accordance with this Indenture. The amount of the Notes to be voted by the Holders will equal the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes. Following and in accordance with the outcome of the applicable vote under this Indenture, the Trustee shall vote the same proportion of the Notes in respect of any vote under the Security Agreement.

SECTION 11.10. Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements. This Indenture is entered into with the benefit of and subject to the terms of the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement. By accepting a Note, each Holder is authorizing the Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent to enter into the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement on its behalf. Holders will be permitted to take enforcement action with respect to the Collateral only to the extent permitted under and in accordance with the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement.

ARTICLE XII
Mutual Releases

Certain capitalized terms used in this Article XII are specifically defined for purposes of this section and are set forth at the end of this Article XII.

SECTION 12.1. Releases by the Company Releasing Parties. Effective as of the Effective Date, each Company Releasing Party, on behalf of itself, and to the extent a Company Releasing Party is not party to this Indenture, the Issuers or Subsidiary Guarantors on behalf of such Company Releasing Party, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever fully release, remise, and discharge each of the and the respective assets and properties from any and all Claims and Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of any of the Company Releasing Parties, that the Issuers, Subsidiary Guarantors or any of the Company Releasing Parties would have been legally entitled to assert in their or its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Equity Security in, a Company Releasing Party or other Person, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution,
(iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything to the obligations of any party or Entity under this Indenture, any other Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, the Commitment Letter or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Recapitalization Transactions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth in clauses (iv) and (v) above do not release any Claim or Cause of Action that is determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted fraud or willful misconduct. Nothing contained in the releases shall or shall be deemed to result in the waiving or limiting by any Sponsor or any officer, director, or employee of any Company Party of (a) any indemnification against, or expense reimbursement or advance by, any Company Party or any Company Party’s insurance carriers, (b) any rights as beneficiaries of any insurance policies, (c) any management fees, monitoring fees, or like fees and expenses, (d) wages, salaries, compensation, or benefits, or (e) any Equity Securities in any Company Party. Each Company Releasing Party hereby further agrees and covenants not to, and shall not, commence or prosecute, or assist or otherwise aid any other Person in the commencement or prosecution of, whether directly, derivatively or otherwise, any Released Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Indenture, nothing in this Indenture shall or shall be deemed to (or is intended to) limit any of the Company Releasing Parties’ rights to assert or prosecute any affirmative defenses or otherwise raise any defense or take any action to defend itself or themselves, including any defense available under the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with any Claim or Cause of Action (whether direct or indirect) brought by any Person relating to any of the above-referenced Claims and Causes of Action arising from, in whole or in part, (x) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of this Indenture, the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, or any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, and (y) the pursuit of consummation, the administration and implementation of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt, the release by the Company Releasing Parties in this Section 12.1 is granted by or on behalf of each of the Company Releasing Parties in their capacities as Issuers or Subsidiary Guarantors, and on behalf of each of their Related Parties, in each case, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Indenture.

SECTION 12.1. Releases by the Company Releasing Parties. Effective as of the Effective Date, by accepting the Notes and the benefits of this Indenture, each Company Releasing Party, solely in its capacity as such, severally and not jointly, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever fully release, remise, and discharge each of the Released Parties (and each such Released Party shall be deemed forever released, remised, and discharged by or on behalf of the Company Releasing Parties) and their respective assets and properties from any and all Claims and Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of any of the Company Releasing Parties or the Stakeholder Releasing Parties, that the Trustee or any of the Stakeholder Releasing Parties would have been legally entitled to assert in its or their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holders of any Claim against, or Equity Security in, a Company Releasing Party or other Person, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution, (iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases by the Company Releasing Parties set forth above do not release any party or Entity from any post Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under this Indenture, any other Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, the Commitment Letter or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth in clauses (iv) and (v) above do not release any Claim or Cause of Action that is determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted fraud or willful misconduct. Nothing contained in the releases shall or shall be deemed to (or is intended to) limit any of the Stakeholder Releasing Parties’ rights to assert or prosecute any affirmative defenses.

SECTION 12.2. Releases by the Stakeholder Releasing Parties. Effective as of the Effective Date, by accepting the Notes and the benefits of this Indenture, each Stakeholder Releasing Party, solely in its capacity as such, severally and not jointly, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever fully release, remise, and discharge each of the Released Parties (and each such Released Party shall be deemed forever released, remised, and discharged by or on behalf of the Stakeholder Releasing Parties) and their respective assets and properties from any and all Claims and Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of any of the Company Releasing Parties or the Stakeholder Releasing Parties, that the Trustee or any of the Stakeholder Releasing Parties would have been legally entitled to assert in its or their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holders of any Claim against, or Equity Security in, a Company Releasing Party or other Person, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution, (iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases by the Stakeholder Releasing Parties set forth above do not release any party or Entity from any post Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under this Indenture, any other Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, the Commitment Letter or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Recapitalization Transactions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth in clauses (iv) and (v) above do not release any Claim or Cause of Action that is determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted fraud or willful misconduct. Nothing contained in the releases shall or shall be deemed to result in the waiving or limiting by any Sponsor or any officer, director, or employee of any Company Party of (a) any indemnification against, or expense reimbursement or advance by, any Company Party or any Company Party’s insurance carriers, (b) any rights as beneficiaries of any insurance policies, (c) any management fees, monitoring fees, or like fees and expenses, (d) wages, salaries, compensation, or benefits, or (e) any Equity Securities in any Company Party. Each Stakeholder Releasing Party hereby agrees and covenants not to, and shall not, commence or prosecute, or assist or otherwise aid any other Person in the commencement or prosecution of, whether directly, derivatively or otherwise, any Released Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Indenture, nothing in the releases or this Indenture shall or shall be deemed to (or is intended to) limit any of the Stakeholder Releasing Parties’ rights to assert or prosecute any affirmative defenses.
or otherwise raise any defense or take any action to defend itself or themselves, including any defense available under the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with any Claim or Cause of Action (whether direct or indirect) brought by any Person relating to any of the above-referenced Claims and Causes of Action arising from, in whole or in part, (x) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of this Indenture, the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, the Commitment Letter, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, and (y) the pursuit of consummation, the administration and implementation of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt, the release by the Stakeholder Releasing Parties in this Section 12.2 is hereby granted by or on behalf of each of the Stakeholder Releasing Parties in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Indenture solely in in their capacities as Holders with respect to Notes that they hold, and on behalf of their Related Parties, only to the extent that a Holder, acting in its capacity as a Holder, has the authority to bind such Related Party.

SECTION 12.3. No Additional Representations and Warranties. Each Releasing Party hereby agrees and acknowledges that, except as expressly provided in this Indenture and the Definitive Documents, no Released Party, in any capacity, has warranted or otherwise made any representations concerning any Released Claim (including any representation or warranty concerning the existence, non-existence, validity, or invalidity of any Released Claim). Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Indenture is intended to impair or otherwise derogate from any of the representations, warranties, or covenants expressly set forth in this Indenture or any of the Definitive Documents.

SECTION 12.4. Release of Unknown Claims. Each of the Releasing Parties hereby expressly acknowledges that although ordinarily a general release may not extend to any Released Claims which the Releasing Party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor, which if known by it may have materially affected its settlement with the party released, it has carefully considered and taken into account in determining to enter into the releases set forth under Article XII the possible existence of such unknown losses or claims. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Holder, by its holding of a Note, and, on behalf of each Company Releasing Party, the Issuers and Subsidiary Guarantors, expressly waive and relinquish any and all rights such Releasing Party may have or conferred upon it under any federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, or principle of common law or equity which provide that a release does not extend to claims which the claimant does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of providing the releases set forth under Article XII or which may in any way limit the effect or scope of such releases with respect to the Released Claims, which such Releasing Party did not know or suspect to exist in such Releasing Party’s favor at the time of providing such releases, which in each case if known by it may have materially affected its settlement with any Released Party, including any rights under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any analogous applicable state or federal law or regulation. Each of the Releasing Parties hereby expressly acknowledges that the releases and covenants not to sue contained in this Indenture are effective regardless of whether those released matters or Released Claims are presently known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, or foreseen or unforeseen.

To the extent that the releases set forth above include releases to which Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or similar provisions of other applicable law applies, it is the intention of each Holder (in its capacity as a holder of the Notes) and each Company Releasing Party that the releases described under Article XII are to be effective as a bar to any and all Claims and Causes of Action of whatsoever character, nature and kind, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected specified in this Indenture. In furtherance of this intention, each Holder (in its capacity as a holder of the Notes) and each Company Releasing Party hereto expressly waives any and all rights and benefits conferred upon them by the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or similar provisions of applicable law, which are as follows:

“A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFfected HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.”

Each Holder (in its capacity as a holder of the Notes) and each Company Releasing Party acknowledges that the foregoing waiver of the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code was bargained for separately. Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, each Holder (in its capacity as a holder of the Notes) and each Company Releasing Party expressly acknowledges that this Indenture is intended to include in its effect all of the Claims, Causes of Action and liabilities which the Releasing Parties and each Holder (in its capacity as a holder of the Notes) does not know or suspect to exist in their favor as of the Effective Date, and this Indenture contemplates extinguishment of all such Claims, Causes of Action and liabilities.

SECTION 12.5. Covenant to Refrain from Certain Actions. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS INDENTURE, FROM AND AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE, EACH OF THE RELEASING PARTIES HEREBY AGREES AND COVENANTS NOT TO, AND SHALL NOT, AND SHALL NOT ASSIST OR OTHERWISE AID ANY OTHER PERSON TO, (A) COMMENCE OR CONTINUE, IN ANY MANNER OR IN ANY PLACE, ANY SUIT, ACTION, OR OTHER PROCEEDING; (B) ENFORCE, ATTACH, COLLECT, OR RECOVER IN ANY MANNER ANY JUDGMENT, AWARD, DEGREE, OR ORDER; (C) CREATE, PERFECT, OR ENFORCE ANY LIEN OR ENCUMBRANCE; (D) ASSERT A SETOFF, RIGHT OF SUBROGATION, OR RECOUPEMENT OF ANY KIND; (E) COMMENCE OR CONTINUE IN ANY MANNER ANY ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING OF ANY KIND, OR (F) ASSIGN, TRANSFER, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSE OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION, IN EACH CASE, ON ACCOUNT OF OR WITH RESPECT TO ANY RELEASED CLAIM OR ANY CLAIM

SECTION 12.6. Turnover of Subsequently Recovered Assets. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, in the event that the Trustee, the Issuers, Subsidiary Guarantors or any Releasing Party (including any successor or assignee thereof) receives any funds, property, or value on account of any Claims, Causes of Action, or litigation against Parent or the MYT Entities (or any direct or indirect parent company of such entities) arising from the MyTheresa Designation or the MyTheresa Distribution (collectively, the “Specified Claims”), the Trustee, the Collateral Agent, the Issuers, Subsidiary Guarantors or such Releasing Party shall promptly turn over and assign any such funds, property, or value (including any Equity Securities in any of the MYT Entities or proceeds of such Equity Securities, or any increased recoveries resulting therefrom) to, at the election of Parent, Parent or the applicable MYT Entity. Parent or the applicable MYT Entity shall distribute any such recoveries turned over or assigned to it in accordance with the MYT Waterfall, to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture (but subject to the immediately following paragraph below), Parent shall be entitled to enforce the provisions of this paragraph on behalf of Parent or any MYT Entity. The Releasing Parties, the Issuers and Subsidiary Guarantors, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent will be bound by the provisions set forth under this Section 12.6 notwithstanding the nature of any Claim, Cause of Action, or litigation relating to the Recapitalization Transactions or any judgment or order entered on any such Claim, Cause of Action or litigation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, (i) the immediately foregoing paragraph will only apply to the Stakeholder Releasing Parties in their capacities as Holders with respect to Notes that they hold, the Trustee in its capacity as Trustee, the Collateral Agent in its capacity as Collateral Agent, and each of the Company Releasing Parties in their capacities as Issuers or Subsidiary Guarantors, and will not, for the avoidance of doubt, apply to any Releasing Party in its capacity as a provider of debtor in possession or any similar financing and (ii) to the extent a Releasing Party receives consideration on account of a Claim secured by assets or property of any Company Party or its subsidiaries (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, the Specified Claims or any such assets or property contributed to or otherwise obtained by any Company Party or its subsidiaries on account of the Specified Claims), such consideration will not be subject to the immediately foregoing paragraph.

The Issuers or the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent by notice to the other may designate additional or different addresses for subsequent notices or communications.

Any notice or communication mailed to a Holder will be mailed to the Holder at the Holder’s address as it appears on the registration books of the Registrar and will be sufficiently given if so mailed within the time prescribed. Any notice or communication will also be so mailed or delivered to any Person described in TIA § 313(c), to the extent required by the TIA.

Failure to deliver a notice or communication to a Holder or any defect in it will not affect its sufficiency with respect to other Holders. If a notice or communication is mailed in the manner provided above, it is duly given, whether or not the addressee receives it.

The Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent agree to accept and act upon instructions or directions pursuant to this Indenture sent by unsecured e-mail, facsimile transmission or other similar unsecured electronic methods. If the party elects to give the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent e-mail or facsimile instructions (or instructions by a similar electronic method) and the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent in its discretion elects to act upon such instructions, the Trustee’s or the Notes Collateral Agent’s understanding of such instructions will be deemed controlling. The Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent will not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Trustee’s or the Notes Collateral Agent’s reliance upon and compliance with such instructions notwithstanding such instructions conflict or are inconsistent with a subsequent written instruction. The party providing electronic instructions agrees to assume all risks arising out of the use of such electronic methods to submit instructions and directions to the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent, including without limitation the risk of the Trustee or the Notes Collateral Agent acting on unauthorized instructions, and the risk or interception and misuse by third parties.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or any Note, where this Indenture or any Note provides for notice of any event (including any notice of redemption or purchase) to a Holder of a Global Note (whether by mail or otherwise), such notice will be sufficiently given if delivered or caused to be delivered electronically in accordance with the Applicable Procedures of the Depositary.

SECTION 13.2. Certificate and Opinion as to Conditions Precedent. Upon any request or application by the Issuers to the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any action under this Indenture (except in connection with (x) the original issuance of Notes on the date hereof and (y), with respect to clause (b) below, the execution of any amendment or supplement adding a new Guarantor under this Indenture), the Issuers will furnish to the Trustee:

(a) an Officer’s Certificate in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Indenture relating to the proposed action have been complied with; and

(b) an Opinion of Counsel in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, all such conditions precedent have been complied with.

SECTION 13.3. Statements Required in Certificate or Opinion. Each certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a covenant or condition provided for in this Indenture (other than a certificate provided pursuant to TIA § 314(a)(4)) will comply with the provisions of TIA § 314(e) and also will include:

(a) a statement that the individual making such certificate or opinion has read such covenant or condition;

(b) a brief statement as to the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such certificate or opinion are based;

(c) a statement that, in the opinion of such individual, he has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable him to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and

(d) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of such individual, such covenant or condition has been complied with.

In giving such Opinion of Counsel, counsel may rely as to factual matters on an Officer’s Certificate or on certificates of public officials.

SECTION 13.4. Rules by Trustee, Paying Agent and Registrar. The Trustee may make reasonable rules for action by, or a meeting of, Holders. The Registrar and the Paying Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

SECTION 13.5. Days Other than Business Days. If a payment date is not a Business Day, payment will be made on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day.
Day, and no interest will accrue for the intervening period. If a regular Record Date is not a Business Day, the Record Date will not be affected.

SECTION 13.6. Governing Law. This Indenture, the Notes and the Guarantees will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of laws principles of any jurisdiction.

SECTION 13.7. Jurisdiction and Service. In relation to any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with this Indenture, the Notes or the Guarantees, each Subsidiary Guarantor that is organized under laws other than those of the United States or a state or territory thereof or the District of Columbia hereby (a) irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts in the Borough of Manhattan in the City, County and State of New York, United States (b) waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection to any suit, action or proceeding that may be brought in connection with this Indenture, the Notes or the Guarantees in such courts on the grounds of venue, residence or domicile or on the ground that any such suit, action or proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum, (c) designates and appoints Issuer as their authorized agent upon which process may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding that may be instituted in any such court, and (d) agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail addressed to the Issuer, with written notice of said service to such Person at the address of the Issuer set forth in Section 13.1, will be effective service of process for any such legal action or proceeding brought in any such court.

SECTION 13.8. Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE ISSUERS, THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTORS AND THE TRUSTEE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE, THE NOTES, THE NOTES DOCUMENTS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

SECTION 13.9. No Recourse Against Others. No manager, managing director, incorporator, director, officer, employee or holder of any Equity Interests of the Issuer, Corporate Co-Issuer, any Subsidiary or any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor under the Notes, the Subsidiary Guarantees or this Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder will waive and release all such liability. The waiver and release will be part of the consideration for the issuance of the Notes. This waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws and it is the view of the SEC that such a waiver is against public policy.

SECTION 13.10. Successors. All agreements of the Issuers and each Subsidiary Guarantor in this Indenture and the Notes will bind their respective successors. All agreements of the Trustee in this Indenture will bind its successors.
SECTION 13.11. Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Indenture. Each signed copy will be an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Indenture by telecopier, facsimile or other electronic transmission (i.e. a "pdf" or "tif") will be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart thereof. One signed copy is enough to prove this Indenture.

SECTION 13.12. Variable Provisions. The Issuers initially appoint the Trustee as Paying Agent and Registrar and Notes Custodian with respect to any Global Notes.

SECTION 13.13. Table of Contents; Headings. The table of contents, cross-reference sheet and headings of the Articles and Sections of this Indenture have been inserted for convenience of reference only, are not intended to be considered a part hereof and will not modify or restrict any of the terms or provisions hereof.

SECTION 13.14. Force Majeure. In no event will the Trustee be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Trustee will use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

SECTION 13.15. USA Patriot Act. The parties hereto acknowledge that in accordance with Section 326 of the USA Patriot Act the Trustee and the Trust Officers, like all financial institutions and in order to help fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, are required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or legal entity that establishes a relationship or opens an account. The parties to this agreement agree that they will provide the Trustee and the Trust Officers with such information as they may request in order to satisfy the requirements of the USA Patriot Act.

SECTION 13.16. Communication by Holders with Other Holders. Holders may communicate pursuant to TIA § 312(b) with other Holders with respect to their rights under this Indenture or the Notes. The Issuers, the Trustee, the Registrar and anyone else will have the protection of TIA § 312(c).

The Issuers will pay interest semiannually on April 15 and October 15 of each year, with the first interest payment to be made on October 15, 2019.(3) Interest on the Notes will accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid on the Notes or, if no interest has been paid, from June 7, 2019.(4) Interest on the Notes will accrue at the rate of 8.750% per annum, payable in cash. The Issuers will pay interest on overdue principal or premium, if any (plus interest on such interest to the extent lawful), at the rate borne by the Notes to the extent lawful. Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months. The Issuers will pay interest on overdue principal at 2.0% per annum in excess of the above rate and will pay interest on overdue installments of interest at such higher rate to the extent lawful.

2. Method of Payment principal of, interest and premium, if any, on, all Global Notes and all other Notes the Holders of which shall have provided wire transfer instructions to the Paying Agent by no later than the record date for such payment. The Issuers will make all payments in respect of a Definitive Note (including principal, premium, if any, and interest) through the Paying Agent by mailing a check to the registered address of each Holder thereof.

3. Paying Agent and Registrar

Initially, Wilmington Trust, National Association, duly organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America and having a Corporate Trust Office at 1100 North Market Street, Wilmington, Delaware, 19890 (“Trustee”), will act as Paying Agent and Registrar. The Issuers may appoint and change any Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar without notice to any Holder. The Issuers or any of their Subsidiaries may act as Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar.

4. Indenture

The Issuers issued the Notes under an Indenture dated as of June 7, 2019 (as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, the “Indenture”), among the Issuers and the Trustee. The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Indenture. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Indenture. The Notes are subject to all such terms, and Holders are referred to the Indenture and the Securities Act for a statement of those terms. To the extent any provision of this Note conflicts with the express provisions of the Indenture, the provisions of the Indenture will govern and be controlling.

The Notes are senior unsubordinated obligations of the Issuers. This Note is one of the 8.750% Third Lien Senior Secured Notes due 2024 referred to in the Indenture.

5. Guarantee

To guarantee the due and punctual payment of the principal, premium, if any, and interest (including post-filing or post-petition interest) on the Notes and all other Guaranteed Obligations when and as the same will be due and payable, whether at maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, according to the terms of the Notes and the Indenture, the Subsidiary Guarantors will unconditionally Guarantee, jointly and severally, such Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to and subject to the limitations described in Article X of the Indenture.

6. Security

The Indenture Obligations of the Issuers and the Guarantors are secured by Liens on the Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Security Documents. The actions of the Trustee, the Notes Collateral Agent and the Holders and the application of proceeds from the enforcement of any remedies with respect to such Collateral are limited pursuant to the terms of the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements.

7. Optional Redemption
   (a) On and after the Issue Date, the Issuers may redeem the 8.750% Third Lien Senior Secured Notes, at their option, in whole at any time or in part from time to time, upon notice as described in Section 5.4 of the Indenture, at the following redemption prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount), plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the Redemption Date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date), if redeemed during the 12-month period commencing on October 25(5) of the years set forth below:

</table>

   The Issuers may redeem the 8.000% Third Lien Notes without redeeming the Notes and may redeem the Notes without redeeming the 8.000% Third Lien Notes.
   (c) In connection with any redemption of Notes, any such redemption may, at the Issuers’ discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent as provided in Section 5.4 of the Indenture.
   (d) Unless the Issuers default in the payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or portions thereof called for redemption on the applicable Redemption Date.
   (e) Any redemption pursuant to this paragraph 7 will be made pursuant to the provisions of Article V of the Indenture.

8. Mandatory Call Right Redemption
   The Notes will be subject to the mandatory Call Right Redemption, pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Indenture.

   The Notes may be subject to mandatory redemption pursuant to Section 5.10 of the Indenture.

(5) With respect to the Initial Notes.
The Notes may be subject to mandatory redemption pursuant to Section 5.11 of the Indenture.

(b) In the event of an Asset Sale, Holders of the Notes may have the right to cause the Company to offer to repurchase the Notes as provided in Sections 3.7 and 5.8 of the Indenture.

By accepting a Note, each Holder is authorizing the Trustee and the Notes Collateral Agent to enter into the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement on its behalf. Holders will be permitted to take enforcement action with respect to the Collateral only to the extent permitted under and in accordance with the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement.

The Notes will be issuable only in minimum denominations of $2,000.00 and integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof. A Holder may transfer or exchange Notes in accordance with the Indenture. The Registrar may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements or transfer documents and to pay any taxes and fees required by law or permitted by the Indenture. The Registrar need not register the transfer of or exchange any Notes for a period beginning 15 Business Days before an Interest Payment Date and ending on such Interest Payment Date.

The registered Holder of this Note may be treated as the owner of it for all purposes, provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Note, solely for purposes of determining whether any notice, direction, action to be taken or consent to be given under the Indenture is authorized, provided or given (as the case may be) by a sufficient aggregate principal amount of Notes, an owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Note shall be treated as a Holder, and the Trustee shall accept reasonable evidence of such beneficial interest provided by such owner (which may be in the form of “screenshots” of such owner’s position).

If money for the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest remains unclaimed for two years, the Trustee or Paying Agent will pay the money back to the Issuers at their request unless an abandoned property law designates another person. After any such payment, Holders entitled to the money must look only to the Issuers and not to the Trustee for payment.

16. Discharge and Defeasance

   Subject to certain conditions set forth in the Indenture, the Issuers at any time may terminate some or all of their obligations under the Notes and the Indenture if the Issuers irrevocably deposit in trust with the Trustee money or U.S. Government Obligations (sufficient, without reinvestment, in the opinion of a nationally-recognized certified public accounting firm) for the payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest on the Notes to redemption or maturity, as the case may be.

17. Amendment, Waiver

   The Indenture and the Notes may be amended or waived as set forth in Article IX of the Indenture.

18. Defaults and Remedies

   Events of Default will be as set forth in Article VI of the Indenture.

   Holders may only enforce the Indenture or the Notes as provided in the Indenture.

19. Trustee Dealings with the Issuers

   Subject to certain limitations set forth in the Indenture, the Trustee under the Indenture, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with and collect obligations owed to it by the Issuers or their Affiliates and may otherwise deal with the Issuers or their Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

20. No Recourse Against Others

   No manager, managing director, director, officer, employee, incorporator or Holder of any Equity Interests in the Issuers, any Subsidiary or any Parent Entity, as such, will not have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers or any Subsidiary Guarantor under the Notes, the Indenture or the Guarantees or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release will be part of the consideration for the issuance of the Notes. This waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws and it is the view of the SEC that such a waiver is against public policy.
21. Authentication

   This Note will not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee (or an authenticating agent acting on its behalf) manually signs the certificate of authentication on the other side of this Note.

22. Abbreviations

   Customary abbreviations may be used in the name of a Holder or an assignee, such as TEN COM (=tenants in common), TEN ENT (=tenants by the entirety), JT TEN (=joint tenants with rights of survivorship and not as tenants in common), CUST (=custodian) and U/G/M/A (=Uniform Gift to Minors Act).

23. CUSIP Numbers

   Pursuant to a recommendation promulgated by the Committee on Uniform Note Identification Procedures the Issuers have caused CUSIP numbers to be printed on the Notes. No representation is made as to the accuracy of such numbers as printed on the Notes and reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers placed thereon.

24. Successor Entity

   When a successor entity assumes, in accordance with the Indenture, all the obligations of its predecessor under the Notes and the Indenture, and immediately before and thereafter no Default or Event of Default exists and all other conditions of the Indenture are satisfied, the predecessor entity will be released from those obligations.

25. Governing Law

   This Note will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of laws principles of any jurisdiction that would indicate the applicability of the law of any other jurisdiction.

Landlord under the Prime Lease, Sublandlord’s consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. (iii) Subtenant shall not have any right to any portion of the proceeds of any award for a condemnation or other taking, or a conveyance in lieu thereof, of all or any portion of the Leased Premises;

(iv) Subtenant shall not have any right to exercise or have Sublandlord exercise any option under the Prime Lease, including, without limitation, any option or right of first refusal, first negotiation or first offer to extend the term of the Prime Lease or lease additional space; and

(v) In the event of any conflict between the terms, conditions and provisions of the Prime Lease and of this Sublease, the terms, conditions and provisions of the Prime Lease shall, in all instances, govern and control.

With respect to work, services, repairs and restoration or the performance of other obligations required of Landlord under the Prime Lease, Sublandlord’s sole obligation with respect thereto shall be to request the same, upon written request from Subtenant, and to use reasonable efforts to obtain the same from Landlord. Sublandlord shall not be liable in any respect, in damages or otherwise, nor shall rent abate hereunder, for or on account of any failure by Landlord to perform the obligations and duties imposed on it under the Prime Lease.

Nothing contained in this Sublease shall be construed to create privity of estate or contract between Subtenant and Landlord, unless Subtenant attorns to Landlord by written instrument.

(iv) any other event occurs which involves Subtenant or the Leased Premises or any part thereof and which would constitute a default under the Prime Lease if it involved Sublandlord (or any agent, representative, officer, director, manager or shareholder of Subtenant) or the Leased Premises, subject to any notice and cure periods thereunder;

Subtenant shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, and Sublandlord may exercise, without any further demand or notice, and without limitation of any other rights and remedies available to it hereunder or at law or in equity, all of which rights are hereby expressly reserved, any and all of the equivalent rights and remedies of Landlord set forth in the Prime Lease with respect to the Leased Premises in the event of a default by Subtenant.

(b) In the event Subtenant fails or refuses to make any payment or perform any covenant, obligation or agreement to be performed hereunder by Subtenant, Sublandlord may make such payment or undertake to perform such covenant, obligation or agreement (but shall not have any obligation to Subtenant to do so). In such event, all amounts so paid and all amounts expended in undertaking such performance, together with all costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys’ fees incurred by Sublandlord or Landlord in connection therewith, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be additional rent hereunder.

appropriate in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, stock distribution, recapitalization, combination or similar event with respect to shares of Series A Preferred Stock, plus (ii) all accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not declared, and including all such dividends that have compounded) thereon, including Default Returns, through but not including, the date of payment (such amount in respect of each share of Series A Preferred Stock, the “Liquidation Preference” and such amount in the aggregate, the “Aggregate Liquidation Preference”); provided, that, if the amount distributable in respect of any share of Series A Preferred Stock, together with all prior amounts distributed in respect of such share pursuant to this clause (b), equals the Liquidation Preference in respect of such share, MYT Holdco shall redeem, and as a condition to receipt of such amount the holder of such share of Series A Preferred Stock shall surrender, such share of Series A Preferred Stock to MYT Holdco for cancellation, in each case in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article III of the Certificate of Designation of the Series A Preferred Stock.

(c) a description of collateral that describes such property in any other manner as is reasonably necessary to ensure the perfection of the security interest in the Article 9 Collateral granted under this Agreement, including describing such property as “all assets”, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, or words of similar effect.

Each Grantor agrees to provide such information to the Collateral Agent promptly upon request.

The Collateral Agent is further authorized to file with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or United States Copyright Office (or any successor office) such documents as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of perfecting, continuing, enforcing or protecting the Security Interest granted by each Grantor, without the signature of any Grantor, and naming any Grantor or the Grantors as debtors and the Collateral Agent as secured party.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Notes Documents (but subject to Section 4.03(11) hereof), no Grantor shall be required to take any action under the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions for the purpose of perfecting the Security Interest in any Article 9 Collateral of such Grantor.

(5) The Security Interest is granted as security only and shall not subject the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to, or in any way alter or modify, any obligation or liability of any Grantor with respect to or arising out of the Article 9 Collateral.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Notes Documents, no Grantor will be required:

(a) subject to clause (b) below, to take, or cause to be taken, any actions to perfect the Security Interest by any means other than (to the extent reasonably applicable):

(i) filings pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code in the office of the Secretary of State (or equivalent filing office) of the relevant State(s) of the respective jurisdictions of organization of each Grantor;

(iii) delivery of Collateral consisting of instruments, notes and debt securities in a principal amount in excess of $5.0 million; provided that such delivery shall not be required with respect to:

(A) instruments, notes and debt securities that are promptly deposited into an investment or securities account;

(B) checks received in the ordinary course of business; and

(C) notes and debt securities issued in connection with the extension of trade credit by a Grantor in each case with a duration of not more than 364 days;

(iv) delivery of Collateral consisting of certificated Equity Interests included in the Collateral; and

(v) entering or causing to be entered into any Control Agreements or similar arrangements with respect to any Controlled Accounts; and

(b) except as set forth in Section 4.03(11) hereof to take any actions outside the United States to create or perfect any security interests in any Collateral (it being... understood that there shall be no security agreements or pledge agreements governed under the laws of any foreign jurisdiction except as contemplated by Section 4.03(11) hereof).

(7) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any Lien or security interest in the Collateral.

SECTION 4.02. Representations and Warranties. Each Grantor represents and warrants to the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties that:

(1) Each Grantor has good and valid rights in and title to the Article 9 Collateral with respect to which it has purported to grant a Security Interest hereunder and has full power and authority to grant to the Collateral Agent the Security Interest in such Article 9 Collateral pursuant hereto and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, without the consent or approval of any other Person other than any consent or approval that has been obtained and is in full force and effect or has otherwise been disclosed herein or in the Indentures.

(2) The Uniform Commercial Code financing statements containing a description of the Article 9 Collateral that have been prepared by the Collateral Agent for filing in the office specified in Schedule III constitute all the filings, recordings and registrations (except as set forth in the following clause (3)) that are, as of the Issue Date, necessary to publish notice of and protect the validity of and to establish a legal, valid and perfected security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) in respect of all Article 9 Collateral in which the Security Interest may be perfected by filing.

(3) Each Grantor represents and warrants that a fully executed Intellectual Property Security Agreement containing a description of all Article 9 Collateral existing on the Issue Date and consisting of Intellectual Property owned by such Grantor with respect to United States Patents (and Patents for which United States applications are pending), United States registered Trademarks (and Trademarks for which United States registration applications are pending) and United States registered Copyrights (and Copyrights for which United States registration applications are pending) was delivered on the Issue Date to the Collateral Agent for recording with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 261, 15 U.S.C. § 1060 or 17 U.S.C. § 205 and the regulations thereunder, as applicable.

(4) The Security Interest constitutes (a) a legal and valid security interest in all the Article 9 Collateral securing the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations; (b) subject to the filings described in Section 4.02(2), a perfected security interest in all Article 9 Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a financing statement or analogous document in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law in such jurisdictions; and (c) a security interest that shall be perfected in all Article 9 Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of an Intellectual Property Security Agreement with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office, as applicable. The Security Interest has and shall have the Required Collateral Lien Priority on any of the Article 9 Collateral subject to Permitted Liens.

(5) The Article 9 Collateral is owned by the Grantors free and clear of any Lien, other than Permitted Liens. None of the Grantors has filed or consented to the filing after the Issue Date of (a) any financing statement or analogous document under the Uniform Commercial Code or any other applicable laws covering any Article 9 Collateral; (b) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or the United States Copyright Office; or (c) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with any foreign governmental, municipal or other office, which financing statement or analogous document, assignment, security agreement or similar instrument is still in effect, except, in each case, for Permitted Liens.

(6) None of the Grantors holds any Commercial Tort Claim individually in excess of $5.0 million as of the Issue Date except as indicated on Schedule IV.

(7) The names of the obligors, amounts owing, due dates and other information with respect to each Grantor’s Accounts and Chattel Paper that are Collateral are and will be correctly stated, at the time furnished, in all records of such Grantor relating thereto and in all invoices furnished to the Collateral Agent by such Grantor from time to time.

(8) As to itself and its Article 9 Collateral consisting of Intellectual Property (the “Intellectual Property Collateral”), to each Grantor’s knowledge, as of the Issue Date:

(a) The Intellectual Property Collateral set forth on Schedule II includes all of the material Patents, registered Trademarks and registered Copyrights owned by such Grantor as of the date hereof (including all such registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or United States Copyright Office);

(b) The Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantors has not been adjudged invalid or unenforceable in whole or part (except for office actions issued in the ordinary course by the United States Patent and Trademark Office or any similar office in any foreign jurisdiction), and is valid and enforceable, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Such Grantor is not aware of any uses of any item of Intellectual Property Collateral that would be expected to lead to such item becoming invalid or unenforceable, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(c) Such Grantor has made or performed in the ordinary course of Grantor’s business, acts, including filings, recordings and payment of all required fees and taxes, required to maintain and protect its interest in each and every item of Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor in full force and effect in the United States, and such Grantor has used proper statutory notice in connection with its use.
of each Patent, Trademark and Copyright owned by such Grantor in the Intellectual Property Collateral, in each case, except to the extent that the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(d) With respect to each IP Agreement, the absence, termination or violation of which would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect: (A) such Grantor has not received any notice of termination or cancellation under such IP Agreement; (B) such Grantor has not received any notice of a breach or default under such IP Agreement, which breach or default has not been cured or waived; and (C) neither such Grantor nor any other party to such IP Agreement is in breach or default thereof in any material respect, and no event has occurred that, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a breach or default or permit termination, modification or acceleration under such IP Agreement.

(e) Except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no Grantor or Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor is subject to any outstanding consent, settlement, decree, order, injunction, judgment or ruling restricting the use of any Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor or that would impair the validity or enforceability of such Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor.

SECTION 4.03. Covenants.

(1) Each Grantor agrees to furnish to the Collateral Agent five Business Days prior written notice of any change in such Grantor’s:

(a) corporate or organization name;

(b) organizational structure;

(c) location (determined as provided in Uniform Commercial Code Section 9-307); or

(d) organizational identification number (or equivalent) or, solely if required for perfecting a security interest in the applicable jurisdiction, Federal Taxpayer Identification Number.

No Grantor will effect or permit any such change unless all filings have been made, or will be made within any statutory period, under the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise that are required in order for the Collateral Agent to continue at all times following such change to have a valid, legal and perfected security interest, for the benefit of the applicable Secured Parties, in all Collateral held by such Grantor.

(2) Subject to the rights of such Grantor under the Notes Documents to dispose of Collateral and except as would otherwise be permitted by both Indentures, each Grantor will, at its own expense, use commercially reasonable efforts to defend title to the Article 9 Collateral against all Persons and to defend the Security Interest of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the Article 9 Collateral and the Required Collateral Lien Priority thereof against any Lien that is not a Permitted Lien.
(3) Each Grantor agrees, at its own expense, to execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents and take all such actions as may be reasonably necessary or advisable from time to time to preserve, protect and perfect the Security Interest and the rights and remedies created hereby, including the payment of any fees and taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the granting of the Security Interest and the filing of any financing statements (including fixture filings) or other documents in connection herewith or therewith.

(4) If any amount payable under or in connection with any of the Article 9 Collateral that is in excess of $5.0 million is or becomes evidenced by any promissory note or other instrument, such note or instrument, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, will be promptly pledged and delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, duly endorsed to the Collateral Agent.

(5) After the occurrence of an Event of Default and during the continuance thereof, the Collateral Agent will have the right to verify under reasonable procedures the validity, amount, quality, quantity, value, condition and status of, or any other matter relating to, the Article 9 Collateral, including, in the case of Accounts or Article 9 Collateral in the possession of any third person, by contacting Account Debtors or the third person possessing such Article 9 Collateral for the purpose of making such a verification. The Collateral Agent shall have the right (but no duty or implied obligation) to share any information it gains from such inspection or verification with any Secured Party.

(6) After the occurrence of an Event of Default and during the continuance thereof, none of the Grantors will, without the Collateral Agent’s prior written consent, grant any extension of the time of payment of any Accounts included in the Article 9 Collateral, compromise, compound or settle the same for less than the full amount thereof, release, wholly or partly, any Person liable for the payment thereof or allow any credit or discount whatsoever thereon, in each case, other than extensions, credits, discounts, compromises or settlements granted or made in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prudent business practices or as otherwise permitted under both Indentures.

(7) At its option after the occurrence of an Event of Default and during the continuance thereof, the Collateral Agent may discharge past due taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Article 9 Collateral and not a Permitted Lien, and may pay for the maintenance and preservation of the Article 9 Collateral to the extent any Grantor fails to do so as required by the Indentures or this Agreement, and each Grantor jointly and severally agrees to reimburse the Collateral Agent on demand for any reasonable payment made or any reasonable expense incurred by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the foregoing authorization; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 4.03(7) will excuse any Grantor from the performance of, or impose any obligation on the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to cure or perform, any covenants or other promises of any Grantor with respect to taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances and maintenance as set forth herein or in the other Notes Documents.
Each Grantor (rather than the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party) will remain liable for the observance and performance of all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it under each contract, agreement or instrument relating to the Article 9 Collateral.

Each Grantor irrevocably makes, constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent (and all officers, employees or agents designated by the Collateral Agent for such purpose) as such Grantor’s true and lawful agent (and attorney-in-fact) for the purpose, during the continuance of an Event of Default, of making, settling and adjusting claims in respect of Article 9 Collateral under policies of insurance, endorsing the name of such Grantor on any check, draft, instrument or other item of payment for the proceeds of such policies of insurance and for making all determinations and decisions with respect thereto.

In the event that any Grantor at any time or times fails to obtain or maintain any of the policies of insurance required hereby or under the Indentures or to pay any premium in whole or part relating thereto, the Collateral Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, without waiving or releasing any obligation or liability of the Grantors hereunder or any Event of Default, in its sole discretion, obtain and maintain such policies of insurance and pay such premium and take any other actions with respect thereto as the Collateral Agent reasonably deems advisable. All sums disbursed by the Collateral Agent in connection with this Section 4.03(10), including reasonable attorneys’ fees, court costs, expenses and other charges relating thereto, shall be payable, upon demand, by the Grantors to the Collateral Agent and shall be additional Secured Obligations secured hereby.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no actions will be required outside of the United States in order to create or perfect any security interest in any assets located outside of the United States and no foreign law security or pledge agreements, foreign law mortgages or deeds or foreign intellectual property filings or searches will be required, in each case, other than with respect to (1) debt or Equity Interests acquired pursuant to a Permitted Acquisition and (2) Foreign Subsidiaries that are or will become Subsidiary Guarantors; provided, however, that (i) in the event a Responsible Officer of a Grantor (reasonably and in good faith) and the Extended Term Loan Agent mutually determine that the burden or cost of obtaining foreign-law governed Security Documents or creating or taking such perfection steps in any such foreign jurisdictions is impracticable, impossible or ineffective or would give rise to or result in any violation of applicable law, then no such foreign-law governed Security Documents or the creation or taking of perfection steps in any such foreign jurisdictions shall be required to be provided with respect to such Grantor and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Notes Document, in the event that any foreign-law governed Security Documents or the creation or taking of perfection steps in any such foreign jurisdictions are being obtained in accordance with this Section 4.03(11), the Grantors and the Collateral Agent shall enter into Security Documents and/or make filings or take perfection actions or steps in accordance with the “Agreed Security Principles” and reasonable and customary timeline agreed between a Responsible Officer of a Grantor (reasonably and in good faith) and the Extended Term Loan Agent, and taking into account the Required Collateral Lien Priority; provided that the deadlines to enter into such Security Documents and/or make such filings or take such perfection actions or steps shall be 10 calendar days after the corresponding deadlines for Extended Term Loans (in each case subject to extension by the Collateral Agent)).

SECTION 4.04. Other Actions. In order to further ensure the attachment, perfection and priority of, and the ability of the Collateral Agent to enforce, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the Collateral Agent’s security interest in the Article 9 Collateral, each Grantor agrees, in each case at such Grantor’s own expense, to take the following actions with respect to the following Article 9 Collateral:

(1) Instruments and Tangible Chattel Paper. If any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Instruments (other than checks received and processed in the ordinary course of business) or Tangible Chattel Paper evidencing an amount in excess of $5.0 million, such Grantor will forthwith endorse, assign and deliver the same to the Collateral Agent (or a designated bailee, in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreements), accompanied by such instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank.

(2) Investment Property. Except to the extent otherwise provided in Article III, if any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Certificated Security constituting Pledged Collateral or Article 9 Collateral, such Grantor will forthwith endorse, assign and deliver the same to the Collateral Agent (or a designated bailee, in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreements), accompanied by such instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank. If any security of a domestic issuer now owned or hereafter acquired by any Grantor is uncertificated and is issued to such Grantor or its nominee directly by the issuer thereof, such Grantor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent of such uncertificated securities and upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, such Grantor shall either (a) cause the issuer to agree to comply with instructions from the Collateral Agent (or a designated bailee, in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreements) as to such security, without further consent of any Grantor or such nominee or (b) cause the issuer to register the Collateral Agent (or a designated bailee, in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreements) as the registered owner of such security.

(3) Commercial Tort Claims. If any Grantor shall at any time hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim with an asserted or nominal value in excess of $5.0 million, such Grantor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof in a writing signed by such Grantor, including a summary description of such claim, and grant to the Collateral Agent in writing a security interest therein and in the proceeds thereof, all under the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.05. Covenants Regarding Patent, Trademark and Copyright Collateral. Except as permitted by both Indentures:

(1) Each Grantor agrees that it will not knowingly do any act or omit to do any act (and will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to contractually prohibit its licensees from doing any act or omitting to do any act) whereby any material Patent owned by such Grantor that is necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business may become prematurely invalidated, abandoned, lapsed or dedicated to the public, and agrees that it will take commercially reasonable steps with respect to any material products covered by any such Patent as necessary to establish and preserve its rights under applicable patent laws.

(2) Each Grantor will, and will use its commercially reasonable efforts to contractually require its licensees and its sublicensees to, for each material Trademark owned by such Grantor and necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business:

(a) maintain such Trademark in full force free from any adjudication of abandonment or invalidity for non-use;
(b) maintain the quality of products and services offered under such Trademark;
(c) display such Trademark with notice of federal or foreign registration or claim of trademark or service mark as required under applicable law; and
(d) not knowingly use or knowingly permit its licensees’ use of such Trademark in violation of any third-party rights.

(3) Each Grantor will, and will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its licensees and its sublicensees to, for each work covered by a material Copyright owned by such Grantor and necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business and that it publishes, displays and distributes, use a copyright notice as necessary and sufficient to establish and preserve its rights under applicable copyright laws.

(4) Each Grantor shall notify the Collateral Agent promptly if it knows that any material Patent, Trademark or Copyright owned by such Grantor and necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business may imminently become abandoned, lapsed or dedicated to the public, or of any materially adverse determination or development, regarding such Grantor’s ownership of any such material Patent, Trademark or Copyright or its right to register or to maintain the same.

(5) Each Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, will execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers reasonably necessary or advisable (and substantially equivalent agreements, documents and papers as are executed and delivered with respect to any Credit Agreement) to evidence the Collateral Agent’s security interest in each Patent, Trademark, or Copyright listed in a list of new Patents, Trademarks or Copyrights which shall be furnished to the Collateral Agent together with the annual financial statements provided pursuant to Section 3.2(a) of each Indenture.

(6) Each Grantor will exercise its reasonable business judgment consistent with the practice in any proceeding before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office with respect to maintaining and pursuing each application owned by such Grantor relating to any material Patent, Trademark and/or Copyright (and obtaining the relevant grant or registration) necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business and to maintain (a) each such Patent and (b) the registrations of each such Trademark and each such Copyright, including, when applicable and necessary in such Grantor’s reasonable business judgment, timely filings of applications for renewal, affidavits of use, affidavits of incontestability and payment of maintenance fees, and, if any Grantor believes necessary in its reasonable business judgment, to initiate opposition, interference and cancellation proceedings against third parties.

(7) In the event that any Grantor knows or has reason to know that any Article 9 Collateral consisting of a material Patent, Trademark or Copyright necessary to the normal conduct of its business has been materially infringed, misappropriated or diluted by a third party, such Grantor will promptly notify the Collateral Agent in writing and will, if such Grantor deems it necessary in its reasonable business judgment, promptly take actions as are reasonably appropriate under the circumstances.

SECTION 4.06. Intercreditor Relations. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (1) the Grantors and the Collateral Agent acknowledge that the exercise of certain of the Collateral Agent’s rights and remedies hereunder are subject to the provisions of the ABL/Term Loan/Notes Intercreditor Agreement and the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement, (2) prior to the Discharge of ABL Claims, any obligation hereunder to physically deliver any ABL Priority Collateral to the Collateral Agent shall be deemed satisfied by the delivery to the ABL Collateral Agent, acting as gratuitous bailee for the Collateral Agent in accordance with the ABL/Term Loan/Notes Intercreditor Agreement and (3) any obligation hereunder to physically deliver any Collateral to the Collateral Agent shall be deemed satisfied by the delivery to the Senior Priority Collateral Agent (as defined in the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement), acting as gratuitous bailee for the Collateral Agent in accordance with the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement. The failure of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to immediately enforce any of its rights and remedies hereunder (as a result of the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements or otherwise) shall not constitute a waiver of any such rights and remedies. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of the ABL/Term Loan/Notes Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement regarding the relative priorities of the ABL Collateral Agent, the Collateral Agent, the New Second Lien Notes Agent and the New Third Lien Notes Agent in the Collateral, the terms of the ABL/Term Loan/Notes Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement regarding the relative priorities of the Collateral Agent, the Initial Second Lien Representative and the Initial Third Lien Representatives in the Collateral, the terms of the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control. Terms used but not defined in this Section 4.06 shall be as defined in the applicable Intercreditor Agreement.

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Remedies Upon Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, each Grantor agrees to deliver each item of Collateral to the Collateral Agent (or a designated bailee, in accordance with the Intercreditor Agreements) on demand, and it is agreed that the Collateral Agent shall have the right, subject to applicable law, to take any of or all the following actions at the same or different times: (1) with respect to any Article 9 Collateral consisting of Intellectual Property, on demand, to cause the Security Interest to become an assignment, transfer and conveyance of any of or all such Article 9 Collateral by the applicable Grantors to the Collateral Agent or to license or sublicense, whether general, special or otherwise, and whether on an exclusive or a non-exclusive basis, any such Article 9 Collateral throughout the world on such terms and conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall determine (other than in violation of any then-existing licensing arrangements to the extent that waivers thereunder cannot be obtained with the use of commercially reasonable efforts, which each Grantor hereby agrees to use) and (2) to take possession of the Article 9 Collateral and without liability for trespass to the applicable Grantor to enter any premises where the Article 9 Collateral may be located for the purpose of taking possession of, removing or selling the Article 9 Collateral and, generally, to exercise any and all rights afforded to a secured party under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing rights and remedies, each Grantor agrees that the Collateral Agent shall have the right, subject to the mandatory requirements of applicable law (including the Uniform Commercial Code), to sell or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Collateral at a public or private sale or at any broker’s board or on any securities exchange, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery as the Collateral Agent shall deem appropriate. The Collateral Agent shall be authorized in connection with any sale of a security (if it deems it advisable to do so) pursuant to the foregoing to restrict the prospective bidders or purchasers to Persons who represent and agree that they are purchasing such security for their own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale thereof. Upon consummation of any such sale of Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.01, the Collateral Agent shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral so sold. Each such purchaser at any such sale shall hold the property sold absolutely, free from any claim or right on the part of any Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives and releases (to the extent permitted by law) all rights of redemption, stay, valuation and appraisal that such Grantor now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted.

The Collateral Agent shall give the applicable Grantors ten Business Days’ written notice (which each Grantor agrees is reasonable notice within the meaning of Section 9-611 of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions) of the Collateral Agent’s intention to make any sale of Collateral. Such notice, in the case of a public sale, shall state the time and place for such sale and, in the case of a sale at a broker’s board or on a securities exchange, shall state the board or exchange at which such sale is to be made and the day on which the Collateral, or portion thereof, will first be offered for sale at such board or exchange. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Collateral Agent may fix and state in the notice (if any) of such sale. The Collateral, or the portion thereof, to be sold at any such sale may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels in the Collateral Agent’s own right or by one or more agents and contractors, upon any premises owned, leased, or occupied by any Grantor and the Collateral Agent and any such agent or contractor, in conjunction with any such sale, may augment the Inventory to be sold with other goods (all of which other goods shall remain the sole property of the Collateral Agent or such agent or contractor), all as the Collateral Agent may (in its sole and absolute discretion) determine. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of any Collateral if it shall determine not to do so, regardless of the fact that notice of sale of such Collateral shall have been given. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for sale, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which the same was so adjourned. In the case of any sale of all or any part of the Collateral made on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral so sold may be retained by the Collateral Agent until the sale price is paid by the purchaser or purchasers thereof, but the Collateral Agent shall not incur any liability in the event that any such purchaser or purchasers shall fail to take up and pay for the Collateral so sold and, in the case of any such failure, such Collateral may be sold again upon notice given in accordance with provisions above. At any public (or, to the extent permitted by law, private) sale made pursuant to this Section 5.01, any Secured Party may bid for or purchase, free (to the extent permitted by law) from any right of redemption, stay, valuation or appraisal on the part of any Grantor (all such rights being also hereby waived and released to the extent permitted by law), the Collateral or any part thereof offered for sale and may make payment on account thereof by using any claim then due and payable to such Secured Party from any Grantor as a credit against the purchase price, and such Secured Party may, upon compliance with the terms of sale, hold, retain and dispose of such property in accordance with Article V hereof without further accountability to any Grantor therefor. For purposes hereof, a written agreement to purchase the Collateral or any portion thereof shall be treated as a sale thereof; the Collateral Agent shall be free to carry out such sale pursuant to such agreement and no Grantor shall be entitled to the return of the Collateral or any portion thereof subject thereto, notwithstanding the fact that after the Collateral Agent shall have entered into such an agreement all Events of Default shall have been remedied and the Secured Obligations paid in full. As an alternative to exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, the Collateral Agent may proceed by a suit or suits at law or in equity to foreclose this Agreement and to sell the Collateral or any portion thereof pursuant to a judgment or decree of a court or courts having competent jurisdiction or pursuant to a proceeding by a court-appointed receiver. Any sale pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.01 shall be deemed to conform to the commercially reasonable standards as provided in Section 9-610(b) of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions.

Without limiting any other rights of the Collateral Agent granted pursuant to this Agreement, each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent, and the representatives and independent contractors of the Collateral Agent, a royalty free, non-exclusive, irrevocable license (such license to be effective upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default), to use, apply, and affix any Trademark, trade name, logo, or the like in which any Grantor now or hereafter has rights, solely in connection with the Collateral Agent’s enforcement of rights or remedies hereunder, including in connection with any sale or other disposition of Inventory. As to each Grantor, the license granted hereby shall remain in full force and effect until such Grantor hereunder is released hereunder in accordance with Section 7.15 of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.02. Application of Proceeds.

Subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, the Collateral Agent will promptly apply the proceeds, moneys or balances of any collection or sale of Collateral, as well as any Collateral consisting of cash, in the following order of priority:

(a) first, to all amounts owing to the Collateral Agent or each Trustee pursuant to any of the Notes Documents in its capacity as such in respect of (i) the preservation of Collateral or its security interest in the Collateral or (ii) with respect to enforcing the rights of the Secured Parties under the Notes Documents;
(b) second, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clause (a), to all other amounts owing to each Trustee or Collateral Agent pursuant to any of the Notes Documents in its capacity as such;

(c) third, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (a) through (b), to an amount equal to the Secured Obligations with each Secured Party receiving an amount equal to its outstanding Secured Obligations or, if the proceeds are insufficient to pay in full all such Secured Obligations, its pro rata share of the amount remaining to be distributed; and

(d) fourth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (a) through (c), inclusive, and following the payment in full of the Secured Obligations, to the relevant Grantor, their successors or assigns, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct or as otherwise required by the Intercreditor Agreement.

(2) If any payment to any Secured Party pursuant to this Section 5.02 of its pro rata share of any distribution would result in overpayment to such Secured Party, such excess amount shall instead be distributed in respect of the unpaid Secured Obligations of the other Secured Parties, with each Secured Party whose Secured Obligations have not been paid in full to receive an amount equal to such excess amount multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the unpaid Secured Obligations of such Secured Party and the denominator of which is the unpaid Secured Obligations of all Secured Parties entitled to such distribution.

(3) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the applicable Trustee for the account of such Secured Parties or as such Trustee may otherwise direct in accordance with the Notes Documents.

(4) Subject to the other limitations (if any) set forth herein and in the other Notes Documents, it is understood that the Note Parties will remain liable (as and to the extent set forth herein except to the extent that any of the foregoing are found by a final and non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the Collateral Agent’s gross negligence or willful misconduct) to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations of the Note Parties.

(5) It is understood and agreed by each Note Party that the Collateral Agent will have no liability for any determinations made by it in this Section 5.02 except to the extent that any of the foregoing are found by a final and non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the Collateral Agent’s own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. Each Note Party also agrees that the Collateral Agent may (but shall not be required to), at any time and in its sole discretion, and with no liability resulting therefrom, petition a court of competent jurisdiction regarding any application of Collateral in accordance with the requirements hereof and of each Intercreditor Agreement, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to wait for, and may conclusively rely on, any such determination.
The parties hereto agree that the provisions of this Article V shall apply to distributions and/or realizations on account of all assets securing the Secured Obligations, including assets not defined as Collateral hereunder (including, for the avoidance of doubt, all Real Property of the Grantors mortgaged to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of some or all of the Secured Parties).

SECTION 5.03. Securities Act, Etc. In view of the position of the Grantors in relation to the Pledged Collateral, or because of other current or future circumstances, a question may arise under the Securities Act of 1933, as now or hereafter in effect, or any similar federal statute hereafter enacted analogous in purpose or effect (such Act and any such similar statute as from time to time in effect being called the “Federal Securities Laws”) with respect to any disposition of the Pledged Collateral permitted hereunder. Each Grantor understands that compliance with the Federal Securities Laws might very strictly limit the course of conduct of the Collateral Agent if the Collateral Agent were to attempt to dispose of all or any part of the Pledged Collateral, and might also limit the extent to which or the manner in which any subsequent transferee of any Pledged Collateral could dispose of the same. Similarly, there may be other legal restrictions or limitations affecting the Collateral Agent in any attempt to dispose of all or part of the Pledged Collateral under applicable Blue Sky or other state securities laws or similar laws analogous in purpose or effect. Each Grantor acknowledges and agrees that in light of such restrictions and limitations, the Collateral Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may (1) proceed to make such a sale whether or not a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Pledged Collateral or part thereof shall have been filed under the Federal Securities Laws or, to the extent applicable, Blue Sky or other state securities laws and (2) approach and negotiate with a single potential purchaser to effect such sale. Each Grantor acknowledges and agrees that any such sale might result in prices and other terms less favorable to the seller than if such sale were a public sale without such restrictions. In the event of any such sale, the Collateral Agent will incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Pledged Collateral at a price that the Collateral Agent, in its sole discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might have been realized if the sale were deferred until after registration as aforesaid or if more than a single purchaser were approached. The provisions of this Section 5.03 will apply notwithstanding the existence of a public or private market upon which the quotations or sales prices may exceed substantially the price at which the Collateral Agent sells.

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 7.01. Notices. All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 13.1 of each Indenture. All communications and notices hereunder to any Grantor will be given to it in care of the Issuer, with such notice to be given as provided in Section 13.1 of each Indenture.
SECTION 7.02. Security Interest Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent hereunder, the Security Interest in the Article 9 Collateral, the security interest in the Pledged Collateral and all obligations of each Grantor hereunder will be absolute and unconditional irrespective of:

1. any lack of validity or enforceability of the Indentures, any other Notes Documents, any agreement with respect to any of the Secured Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing;

2. any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Secured Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Indentures, any other Notes Documents or any other agreement or instrument;

3. any exchange, release or non-perfection of any Lien on other collateral, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee, securing or guaranteeing all or any of the Secured Obligations; or

4. subject only to termination or release of a Grantor’s obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of Section 7.15 hereof any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Grantor in respect of the Secured Obligations or this Agreement (other than a defense of payment or performance).

SECTION 7.03. Limitation By Law. All rights, remedies and powers provided in this Agreement may be exercised only to the extent that the exercise thereof does not violate any applicable provision of law, and all the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be subject to all applicable mandatory provisions of law that may be controlling and to be limited to the extent necessary so that they will not render this Agreement invalid, unenforceable, in whole or in part, or not entitled to be recorded, registered or filed under the provisions of any applicable law.

SECTION 7.04. Binding Effect; Several Agreement. This Agreement will become effective as to any party to this Agreement when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such party is delivered to the Collateral Agent and a counterpart hereof is executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent, and thereafter will be binding upon such party and the Collateral Agent and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and will inure to the benefit of such party, the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns, except that no party shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein or in the Collateral (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, the Indentures. This Agreement will be construed as a separate agreement with respect to each Grantor and may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to any Grantor without the approval of any other Grantor and without affecting the obligations of any other Grantor hereunder.

SECTION 7.05. Successors and Assigns; Replacement of Collateral Agent; Successor Collateral Agent by Merger.

1. Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference will be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party, and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of any Grantor or the Collateral Agent that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective permitted successors and assigns; provided that no Grantor may assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

(2) The Collateral Agent may resign at any time by so notifying the Issuers. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may remove the Collateral Agent upon written notice to the Issuers, the Trustees and the Collateral Agent, and may appoint a successor Collateral Agent. The Issuers will remove the Collateral Agent if:

(a) [reserved];

(b) the Collateral Agent is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;

(c) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Collateral Agent or its property; or

(d) the Collateral Agent otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

(3) If the Collateral Agent resigns or is removed by the Issuers or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes and such Holders do not within 30 days thereafter appoint a successor Collateral Agent, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Collateral Agent for any reason (the Collateral Agent in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Collateral Agent), the Issuers will promptly appoint a successor Collateral Agent.

(4) A successor Collateral Agent will deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Collateral Agent and to the Issuers. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Collateral Agent will become effective, and the successor Collateral Agent will have all the rights, powers and duties of the Collateral Agent under this Agreement and the other Notes Documents. Each Trustee will deliver a notice of the successor Collateral Agent’s succession to the applicable Holders. The retiring Collateral Agent will promptly transfer all property held by it as Collateral Agent to the successor Collateral Agent, subject to the liens provided for in Section 7.6 of each Indenture. All costs reasonably incurred in connection with any resignation or removal hereunder will be borne by the Issuers.

(5) If a successor Collateral Agent does not take office within 30 days after the retiring Collateral Agent resigns or is removed, the Holders of at least 10.0% in principal amount of the Notes may petition, at the Issuers’ expense, any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Collateral Agent.

(6) [reserved].

(7) Notwithstanding the replacement of the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 7.05, the Issuers’ obligations under this Agreement will continue for the benefit of the retiring Collateral Agent.
If the Collateral Agent, consolidates with, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all its corporate trust business or assets to, another corporation or banking association, the resulting, surviving or transferee corporation without any further act will be the successor Collateral Agent.

SECTION 7.06. Collateral Agent’s Fees and Expenses; Indemnification; Concerning the Collateral Agent.

(1) The parties hereto agree that the Collateral Agent will be entitled to reimbursement of its expenses incurred hereunder as provided in Section 7.6 of each Indenture and the provisions of Section 7.6 of each Indenture shall be incorporated by reference herein and apply to each Grantor mutatis mutandis.

(2) The Collateral Agent has been appointed pursuant to the Indentures. The actions of the Collateral Agent hereunder are subject to the provisions of the Indentures (including the rights, benefits, privileges, protections, immunities and indemnities of the Collateral Agent, all of which are incorporated herein mutatis mutandis, as a part hereof) and the Intercreditor Agreements. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary and unless otherwise provided in the Intercreditor Agreements, the Collateral Agent shall act or refrain from acting with respect to any Collateral or any occasion requiring or permitting an approval, consent, discretion, waiver, election or other action on the part of the Collateral Agent only on the written instructions and at the written direction of the holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Obligations then outstanding.

SECTION 7.07. Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent the attorney-in-fact of such Grantor for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instrument that the Collateral Agent may deem necessary to accomplish the purposes hereof, which appointment is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. The Collateral Agent will have the right (but not the obligation or implied duty), upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, with full power of substitution either in the Collateral Agent’s name or in the name of such Grantor, to:

(1) receive, endorse, assign or deliver any and all notes, acceptances, checks, drafts, money orders or other evidences of payment relating to the Collateral or any part thereof;

(2) demand, collect, receive payment of, give receipt for and give discharges and releases of all or any of the Collateral;

(3) ask for, demand, sue for, collect, receive and give acquittance for any and all moneys due or to become due under and by virtue of any Collateral;

(4) sign the name of any Grantor on any invoice or bill of lading relating to any of the Collateral;
send verifications of Accounts to any Account Debtor;

commence and prosecute any and all suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect or otherwise realize on all or any of the Collateral or to enforce any rights in respect of any Collateral;

settle, compromise, compound, adjust or defend any actions, suits or proceedings relating to all or any of the Collateral;

notify, or to require any Grantor to notify, Account Debtors to make payment directly to the Collateral Agent; and

provided that nothing herein contained will be construed as requiring or obligating the Collateral Agent to make any commitment or to make any inquiry as to the nature or sufficiency of any payment received by the Collateral Agent, or to present or file any claim or notice, or to take any action with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof or the moneys due or to become due in respect thereof or any property covered thereby. The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties will be accountable only for amounts actually received as a result of the exercise of the powers granted to them herein, and neither they nor their officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to any Grantor for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for their own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

SECTION 7.08. APPLICABLE LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY, DISPUTE OR CAUSE OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE) BASED UPON, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (EXCEPT FOR CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION).

SECTION 7.09. Waivers; Amendment.

(1) No failure or delay by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in exercising any right, power or remedy hereunder or under any other Notes Documents will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or remedy, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right, power or remedy, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. The rights, powers and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties hereunder and under the other Notes Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any Grantor therefrom will in any event be effective unless the same is permitted by paragraph (2) of this Section 7.09, and then such waiver or consent will be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given.

(2) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Collateral Agent and the Grantors with respect to which such waiver, amendment or modification is to apply, subject to any consent required in accordance with Article IX of each Indenture.

SECTION 7.10. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. The provisions of Section 7.10 of each Indenture shall be incorporated by reference herein and apply to each party hereto.

SECTION 7.11. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

SECTION 7.12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will constitute an original but all of which when taken together will constitute but one contract, and will become effective as provided in Section 7.04 hereof. Delivery of an executed counterpart to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission will be as effective as delivery of a manually signed original.

SECTION 7.13. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 7.14. Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. The provisions of Section 13.7 of each Indenture shall be incorporated by reference herein and apply to each party hereto.

SECTION 7.15. Termination or Release.

(1) This Agreement, the pledges made herein, the Security Interest and all other security interests granted hereby shall terminate upon the occurrence of the Termination Date.

(2) A Grantor that is a Subsidiary shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the security interests in the Collateral of such Grantor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted by both Indentures as a result of which such Grantor ceases to be a Guarantor; provided that such portion of the Holders as are required by the terms of the Indentures to consent to such transaction shall have consented thereto; provided, further, to the extent the ABL Security Documents, Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents (as defined in the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement) or the Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents (as defined in the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement) are in effect on such date, such Grantor (and the security interests in the Collateral in respect thereof) is released under such ABL Security Documents, Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents and Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents, as applicable, concurrently with the release referred to in this clause (2).
Upon any sale or other transfer by any Grantor of any Collateral that is permitted under both Indentures to any person that is not a Grantor, or upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Collateral pursuant to Article IX of each Indenture or pursuant to Section 5.1 of the ABL/Term Loan/Notes Intercreditor Agreement or Sections 5.1 or 5.2 of the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the security interest in such Collateral shall be automatically released; provided to the extent the ABL Security Documents, Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents or the Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents are in effect on such date, such Grantor (and the security interests in the Collateral in respect thereof) is released under such ABL Security Documents, Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents and Third Lien Notes Collateral Documents, as applicable, concurrently with the release referred to in this clause (3).

In connection with any termination or release pursuant to paragraph (1) through (3) of this Section 7.15, the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to any Grantor, at such Grantor’s expense, all documents that such Grantor reasonably requests to evidence such termination or release (including UCC termination statements) and will duly assign and transfer to such Grantor such of the Pledged Collateral that may be in the possession of the Collateral Agent and has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement; provided that the Collateral Agent will not be required to take any action under this Section 7.15(6) unless such Grantor shall have delivered to the Collateral Agent together with such request, which may be incorporated into such request: (a) a reasonably detailed description of the Collateral, which in any event is sufficient to effect the appropriate termination or release without affecting any other Collateral and (b) a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Issuer certifying that the transaction giving rise to such termination or release is permitted by both Indentures and was or is consummated in compliance with the Notes Documents. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 7.15 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Collateral Agent.

SECTION 7.16. Additional Subsidiaries. Upon execution and delivery by the Collateral Agent and any Subsidiary that is required to become a party hereto by Section 3.11 of each Indenture of a supplement in substantially the form of Exhibit I hereto, such Subsidiary will become a Grantor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Grantor herein. The execution and delivery of any such supplement will not require the consent of any other party to this Agreement. The rights and obligations of each party to this Agreement will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new party to this Agreement.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.

listed on Schedule I;

(b) all goodwill associated therewith or symbolized thereby;

(c) all claims for, and rights to sue for, past or future infringements of any of the foregoing; and

(d) all income, royalties, damages and payments now or hereafter due and payable with respect to any of the foregoing, including damages and payments for past or future infringement thereof.

Reference is made to the class action settlement involving Visa and Mastercard, who separately and together with certain banks, engaged with certain actions that resulted in merchants paying excessive interchange fees when accepting Visa and Mastercard credit and debit cards in connection with store and online purchases. Under the settlement, Visa, Mastercard and other bank defendants have agreed to provide approximately $6.24 billion in class settlement funds. The net class settlement fund will be used to pay valid claims of merchants that accepted Visa and Mastercard credit or debit cards between January 1, 2004 through January 25, 2019.

The Court has given preliminary approval to this settlement. A Court hearing is set for November 7, 2019 for the Court to officially approve of the settlement.

Merchants have until July 23, 2019 to decide if they will stay in the settlement and wait to file a claim, object to the settlement and file a notice to appear with the Court, or to opt out and make a separate claim.

The Company is in the process of evaluating the potential recovery on its portion of the claims and believes there is a reasonable chance such recovery will exceed $2.5 million.

Section 11.17. Ratification of Certain Transactions.

(a) Each of the Issuers, the Guarantors and, by its tender of its Notes, each Consenting Cash Pay Noteholder (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) hereby acknowledges, ratifies and agrees to the consummation of the Recapitalization Transactions.

(c) Section 11.18. Waiver of Defaults and Events of Default. Effective as of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, by its tender of its Notes, each Consenting Cash Pay Noteholder (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes), collectively constituting the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, waives, rescinds, and cancels any existing or past breach or alleged breach of any provision of this Indenture, if any, or any existing or past Default or Event of Default or alleged Default or Event of Default, if any, that arose or is alleged to have arisen as a result of, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution, (iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith.

(d) Section 11.19. Releases.

(a) Releases by the Releasing Parties. Effective as of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, by accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each of the Releasing Parties hereby agrees to conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever fully release, remise, and discharge each of the Released Parties (and each such Released Party shall be deemed forever released, remised, and discharged by or on behalf of the Releasing Parties) and their respective assets and properties from any and all Claims and Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of any of the Company Parties or the Releasing Parties, that the Trustee (solely in respect of, and on behalf of, such Releasing Parties) or any of the Releasing Parties would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Equity Security in, a Company Party or other Person, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution, (iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith (collectively, any Claim, Cause of Action, or any other debt, obligation, right, suit, damage, judgment, action, remedy, or liability which is released by such Releasing Party in clauses (i) through (v), the “Released Claims” and each a “Released Claim”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall release, remise or discharge (1) any obligation of any Person under the Definitive Documents or any Recapitalization Transaction in effect after the Second Supplemental Effective Date or (2) with respect to the items in clauses (iv) and (v) of this Section 11.19(a), any Claim or Cause of Action that is determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted fraud or willful misconduct. Each Releasing Party hereby further agrees and covenants not to, and shall not, commence or prosecute, or assist or otherwise aid any other Person in the commencement or prosecution of, whether directly, derivatively or otherwise, any Released Claims. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 11.19(a), nothing in this Indenture shall or be deemed to (or is intended to) limit any of the Releasing Parties’ rights to assert or prosecute any affirmative defenses or otherwise raise any defense or take any action to defend itself or themselves, including any defense available under Bankruptcy Law, in connection with any Claim or Cause of Action (whether direct or indirect) brought by any Person relating to any of the above-referenced Claims and Causes of Action arising from, in whole or in part, (x) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Indenture, the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, the Commitment Letter, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, and (y) the pursuit of consummation, the administration and implementation of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt, the release set forth in this Section 11.19 is hereby granted by or on behalf of each of the Releasing Parties solely in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes that it holds, and on behalf of its Related Parties, only to the extent that a Holder, acting in its capacity as a Holder, has the authority to bind such Related Party, in each case, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Indenture.

(b) No Additional Representations and Warranties. No Released Party, in any capacity, has warranted or otherwise made any representations concerning any Released Claim (including any representation or warranty concerning the existence, non-existence, validity, or invalidity of any Released Claim).

(c) Release of Unknown Claims. By accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each of the Releasing Parties (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) expressly acknowledges that although ordinarily a general release may not extend to any Released Claims which the Releasing Party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor, which if known by it may have materially affected its settlement with the party released, it has carefully considered and taken into account in determining to enter into the releases set forth in this Section 11.19 the possible existence of such unknown losses or claims. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Releasing Party (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) expressly waives and relinquishes any and all rights such Person may have or conferred upon such Person under any federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, or principle of common law or equity which provides that a release does not extend to claims which the claimant does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of providing the releases set forth in this Section 11.19 or which may in any way limit the effect or scope of such releases with respect to the Released Claims, which such Person did not know or suspect to exist in such Person’s favor at the time of providing such releases, which in each case if known by it may have materially affected its settlement with any Released Party, including any rights under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any analogous applicable state or federal law or regulation. Each of the Releasing Parties expressly acknowledges that the releases and covenants not to sue contained in this Indenture are effective regardless of whether those released matters or Released Claims are presently known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, or unforeseen or unforeseen.

It is the intention of the Releasing Parties that the releases set forth in this Section 11.19 shall be effective as a bar to any and all Claims and Causes of Action of whatsoever character, nature and kind, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected specified in this Indenture. In furtherance of this intention, by accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each Releasing Party, expressly waives any and all rights and benefits conferred upon them by the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or similar provisions of applicable law, which are as follows:

“A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.”

By accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each Releasing Party (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) acknowledges that the foregoing waiver of the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code was bargained for separately. Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, by accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each Releasing Party (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) expressly acknowledges that this Indenture is intended to include in its effect without limitation all of the claims, causes of action and liabilities which the Releasing Parties do not know or suspect to exist in their favor as of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, and this Indenture contemplates extinguishment of all such claims, causes of action and liabilities.

(d) Covenant to Refrain from Certain Actions. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS INDENTURE (INCLUDING IN THE SECOND-TO-LAST SENTENCE OF SECTION 11.19(a)), FROM AND AFTER THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL EFFECTIVE DATE, BY ACCEPTING THE BENEFITS OF THIS INDENTURE AND BY ITS TENDER OF ITS NOTES AS CONTEMPLATED BY THE STATEMENT, EACH OF THE RELEASING PARTIES AGREES AND COVENANTS NOT TO, AND SHALL NOT, AND SHALL NOT ASSIST OR OTHERWISE AID ANY OTHER PERSON TO, (A) COMMENCE OR CONTINUE, IN ANY MANNER OR IN ANY PLACE, ANY SUIT, ACTION, OR OTHER PROCEEDING; (B) ENFORCE, ATTACH, COLLECT, OR RECOVER IN ANY MANNER ANY JUDGMENT, AWARD, DECREE, OR ORDER; (C) CREATE, PERFECT, OR ENFORCE ANY LIEN OR ENCUMBRANCE; (D) ASSERT A SETOFF, RIGHT OF SUBROGATION, OR RECOUPEMENT OF ANY KIND; (E) COMMENCE OR CONTINUE IN ANY MANNER ANY ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING OF ANY KIND, OR (F) ASSIGN, TRANSFER, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSE OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION, IN EACH CASE, ON ACCOUNT OF OR WITH RESPECT TO ANY RELEASED CLAIM OR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION THAT WILL BE A RELEASED CLAIM ON THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL EFFECTIVE DATE. NOTHING IN THIS INDENTURE SHALL OR BE DEEMED TO (OR IS INTENDED TO) LIMIT ANY OF THE RELEASING PARTIES’ RIGHTS TO ASSERT OR PROSECUTE ANY AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES OR OTHERWISE RAISE ANY DEFENSE OR TAKE ANY ACTION TO DEFEND ITSELF OR THEMSELVES, INCLUDING ANY DEFENSE AVAILABLE UNDER BANKRUPTCY LAW, IN CONNECTION WITH ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION (WHETHER DIRECT OR INDIRECT) BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON RELATING TO ANY OF THE CLAIMS OR CAUSES OF ACTION ARISING FROM, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, THE RELEASED CLAIMS OR (X) THE FORMULATION, PREPARATION, DISSEMINATION, NEGOTIATION, OR FILING OF THE TRANSACTION SUPPORT AGREEMENT, THE DEFINITIVE DOCUMENTS, OR ANY RECAPITALIZATION TRANSACTION, CONTRACT, INSTRUMENT, RELEASE OR OTHER AGREEMENT OR DOCUMENT CREATED OR ENTERED INTO IN CONNECTION WITH THE TRANSACTION SUPPORT AGREEMENT OR THE DEFINITIVE DOCUMENTS AND (Y) THE PURSUIT OF CONSUMMATION, THE ADMINISTRATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECAPITALIZATION TRANSACTIONS, INCLUDING THE ISSUANCE OR DISTRIBUTION OF SECURITIES IN CONNECTION THEREWITH.

(e) Turnover of Subsequently Recovered Assets. (i) Subject to the occurrence of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, in the event that any Releasing Party (including any successor or assignee thereof) receives any funds, property, or value on account of any Claims, Causes of Action, or litigation against NMG or the MT Entities (or any direct or indirect parent company of such entities) arising from the MyTheresa Designation or the MyTheresa Distribution (collectively, the “Specified Claims”), such Releasing Party shall promptly turn over and assign any such funds, property, or value (including any Equity Securities in any of the MT Entities or proceeds of such Equity Securities, or any increased recoveries resulting therefrom) to, at the election of the Issuers, NMG or the applicable MT Entity. NMG or the applicable MT Entity shall distribute any such recoveries turned over or assigned to it in accordance with the applicable Definitive Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture (but subject to Section 11.19(e)(ii)), each of the Issuers shall be entitled to enforce this Section 11.19(e)(i) on behalf of NMG or any MT Entity. The Releasing Parties will be bound by this Section 11.19(e) notwithstanding the nature of any Claim, Cause of Action, or litigation relating to the Recapitalization Transactions or any judgment or order entered on any such Claim, Cause of Action or litigation.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, (i) Section 11.19(e)(i) shall only apply to the Releasing Parties in their capacities as holders of Notes, and shall not, for the avoidance of doubt, apply to any Releasing Party in its capacity as a provider of debtor in possession or any similar financing and (ii) to the extent a Releasing Party receives consideration on account of a Claim secured by assets or property of any Company Party or its subsidiaries (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, the Specified Claims or any such assets or property contributed to or otherwise obtained by any Company Party or its subsidiaries on account of the Specified Claims), such consideration will not be subject to Section 11.19(e)(i).

(c) be on a joint and several basis from Instructing Holders holding an aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes sufficient to make such Instruction under the terms of the Indenture, where such holdings are evidenced by DTC authorization letters, dated as of the same date, provided to the Trustee and to the Issuer stating that DTC has authorized such Instructing Holders to take action on behalf of DTC as the registered Holder;

(d) provide a cash deposit or letter of credit in an amount requested by the Trustee sufficient (in the Trustee’s sole and absolute discretion) to ensure that the Trustee does not, in connection with taking action under the Instruction, risk its own funds or incur any financial liability as a result of any Losses, including reimbursement for all expenses, such cash deposit or letter of credit to remain in escrow or outstanding during any relevant statute of limitations period, notwithstanding any Instructing Holder’s recession or withdrawal of the Instruction; and

ARTICLE THREE
MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 3.01 No Recourse Against Others. No manager, managing director, director, officer, employee, incorporator or holder of any Equity Securities in the Issuers, any Subsidiary or any Parent Entity, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Issuers or the Guarantors under the Notes, the Indenture, the Guarantees or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder of Notes, by accepting a Note, waives and releases all such liability. This waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. This waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws and it is the view of the SEC that such a waiver is against public policy.

SECTION 3.02 Effective Date of this Supplemental Indenture. This Supplemental Indenture shall be effective as of June 7, 2019 upon consummation of the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation.

SECTION 3.03 Reference to and Effect on the Indenture. On and after the effective date, each reference in the Indenture to “this Indenture,” “hereunder,” “hereof,” or “herein” (and all references to the Indenture in any other agreements, documents or instruments) shall mean and be a reference to the Indenture as supplemented by this Supplemental Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires. The Indenture, as supplemented by this Supplemental Indenture, shall be read, taken and construed as one and the same instrument. Except as specifically amended above, the Indenture shall remain in full force and effect and is hereby ratified and confirmed.

SECTION 3.04 Governing Law. This Supplemental Indenture will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

SECTION 3.05 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE ISSUERS, THE GUARANTORS AND THE TRUSTEE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE, THE INDENTURE, THE NOTES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.
SECTION 3.06  Severability. In case any provision in this Supplemental Indenture or the Notes is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

SECTION 3.07  Successors. All agreements of the Issuers and each Guarantor in this Supplemental Indenture, the Indenture and the Notes will bind their respective successors. All agreements of the Trustee in this Supplemental Indenture and the Notes will bind its respective successors.

SECTION 3.08  Trust Indenture Act Controls. No modification of any provisions of the Indenture effected by this Supplemental Indenture is intended to eliminate or limit any provision of the Indenture that is required to be included therein by the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, as in force as of the effectiveness of this Supplemental Indenture.

SECTION 3.09  The Trustee. The Trustee will not be responsible in any manner whatsoever for or in respect of the validity or sufficiency of this Supplemental Indenture or for or in respect of the recitals contained herein, all of which recitals are made solely by the Issuers. In executing this Supplemental Indenture, the Trustee is acting solely in conclusive reliance on the consents provided as contemplated by the Statement and the Officer’s Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered to it in accordance with the express provisions of the Indenture on or about the date hereof in connection herewith.

SECTION 3.10  Counterparts. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Supplemental Indenture. Each signed copy will be an original, but all of them together will represent the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Supplemental Indenture by telecopier, facsimile or other electronic transmission (i.e. a “pdf” or “tif”) will be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart thereof.

SECTION 3.11  Effect of Headings. The section headings herein are for convenience only and will not affect the construction hereof.

Section 11.17. Ratification of Certain Transactions.

Each of the Issuers, the Guarantors and, by its tender of its Notes, each Consenting PIK Toggle Noteholder (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) hereby acknowledges, ratifies and agrees to the consummation of the Recapitalization Transactions.

Section 11.18. Waiver of Defaults and Events of Default. Effective as of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, by its tender of its Notes, each Consenting PIK Toggle Noteholder (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes), collectively constituting the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, waives, rescinds, and cancels any existing or past breach or alleged breach of any provision of this Indenture, if any, or any existing or past Default or Event of Default or alleged Default or Event of Default, if any, that arose or is alleged to have arisen as a result of, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution, (iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith.

Section 11.19. Releases.

Releases by the Releasing Parties. Effective as of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, by accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each of the Releasing Parties hereby agrees to conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever fully release, remise, and discharge each of the Released Parties (and each such Released Party shall be deemed forever released, remised, and discharged by or on behalf of the Releasing Parties) and their respective assets and properties from any and all Claims and Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted on behalf of any of the Company Parties or the Releasing Parties, that the Trustee (solely in respect of, and on behalf of, such Releasing Parties) or any of the Releasing Parties would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Equity Security in, a Company Party or other Person, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the MyTheresa Designation, (ii) the MyTheresa Distribution, (iii) the Nancy Transaction, (iv) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, or (v) the pursuit of consummation, the administration or implementation of any of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith (collectively, any Claim, Cause of Action, or any other debt, obligation, right, suit, damage, judgment, action, remedy, or liability which is released by such Releasing Party in clauses (i) through (v), the “Released Claims” and each a “Released Claim”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall release, remise or discharge (1) any obligation of any Person under the Definitive Documents or any Recapitalization Transaction in effect after the Second Supplemental Effective Date or (2) with respect to the items in clauses (iv) and (v) of this Section 11.19(a), any Claim or Cause of Action that is determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted fraud or willful misconduct. Each Releasing Party hereby further agrees and covenants not to, and shall not, commence or prosecute, or assist or otherwise aid any other Person in the commencement or prosecution of, whether directly, derivatively or otherwise, any Released Claims. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 11.19(a), nothing in this Indenture shall or be deemed to (or is intended to) limit any of the Releasing Parties’ rights to assert or prosecute any affirmative defenses or otherwise raise any defense or take any action to defend itself or themselves, including any defense available under Bankruptcy Law, in connection with any Claim or Cause of Action (whether direct or indirect) brought by any Person relating to any of the above-referenced Claims and Causes of Action arising from, in whole or in part, (x) the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Indenture, the Transaction Support Agreement, the Definitive Documents, the Commitment Letter, any Recapitalization Transaction, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Transaction Support Agreement or the Definitive Documents, and (y) the pursuit of consummation, the administration and implementation of the Recapitalization Transactions, including the issuance or distribution of securities in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt, the release set forth in this Section 11.19 is hereby granted by or on behalf of each of the Releasing Parties solely in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes that it holds, and on behalf of its Related Parties, only to the extent that a Holder, acting in its capacity as a Holder, has the authority to bind such Related Party, in each case, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Indenture.

(b) No Additional Representations and Warranties. No Released Party, in any capacity, has warranted or otherwise made any representations concerning any Released Claim (including any representation or warranty concerning the existence, non-existence, validity, or invalidity of any Released Claim).

(c) Release of Unknown Claims. By accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each of the Releasing Parties (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) expressly acknowledges that although ordinarily a general release may not extend to any Released Claims which the Releasing Party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor, which if known by it may have materially affected its settlement with the party released, it has carefully considered and taken into account in determining to enter into the releases set forth in this Section 11.19 the possible existence of such unknown losses or claims. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Releasing Party (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) expressly waives and relinquishes any and all rights such Person may have or conferred upon such Person under any federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, or principle of common law or equity which provides that a release does not extend to claims which the claimant does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of providing the releases set forth in this Section 11.19 which may in any way limit the effect or scope of such releases with respect to the Released Claims, which such Person did not know or suspect to exist in such Person’s favor at the time of providing such releases, which in each case if known by it may have materially affected its settlement with any Released Party, including any rights under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any analogous applicable state or federal law or regulation. Each of the Releasing Parties expressly acknowledges that the releases and covenants not to sue contained in this Indenture are effective regardless of whether those released matters or Released Claims are presently known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, or foreseen or unforeseen.

It is the intention of the Releasing Parties that the releases set forth in this Section 11.19 shall be effective as a bar to any and all Claims and Causes of Action of whatsoever character, nature and kind, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected specified in this Indenture. In furtherance of this intention, by accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each Releasing Party, expressly waives any and all rights and benefits conferred upon them by the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code or similar provisions of applicable law, which are as follows:

“A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.”

By accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each Releasing Party (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) acknowledges that the foregoing waiver of the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code was bargained for separately. Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, by accepting the benefits of this Indenture and by its tender of its Notes as contemplated by the Statement, each Releasing Party (in its capacity as a Holder of the Notes) expressly acknowledges that this Indenture is intended to include in its effect without limitation all of the claims, causes of action and liabilities which the Releasing Parties do not know or suspect to exist in their favor as of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, and this Indenture contemplates extinguishment of all such claims, causes of action and liabilities.

(d) Covenant to Refrain from Certain Actions. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS INDENTURE (INCLUDING IN THE SECOND-TO-LAST SENTENCE OF SECTION 11.19(a)), FROM AND AFTER THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL EFFECTIVE DATE, BY ACCEPTING THE BENEFITS OF THIS INDENTURE AND BY ITS TENDER OF ITS NOTES AS CONTEMPLATED BY THE STATEMENT, EACH OF THE RELEASING PARTIES AGREES AND COVENANTS NOT TO, AND SHALL NOT, AND SHALL NOT ASSIST OR OTHERWISE AID ANY OTHER PERSON TO, (A) COMMENCE OR CONTINUE, IN ANY MANNER OR IN ANY PLACE, ANY SUIT, ACTION, OR OTHER PROCEEDING; (B) ENFORCE, ATTACH, COLLECT, OR RECOVER IN ANY MANNER ANY JUDGMENT, AWARD, DECREE, OR ORDER; (C) CREATE, PERFECT, OR ENFORCE ANY LIEN OR ENCUMBRANCE; (D) ASSERT A SETOFF, RIGHT OF SUBROGATION, OR RECOUPMENT OF ANY KIND; (E) COMMENCE OR CONTINUE IN ANY MANNER ANY ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING OF ANY KIND, OR (F) ASSIGN, TRANSFER, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSE OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION, IN EACH CASE, ON ACCOUNT OF OR WITH RESPECT TO ANY RELEASED CLAIM OR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION THAT WILL BE A RELEASED CLAIM ON THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL EFFECTIVE DATE. NOTHING IN THIS INDENTURE SHALL OR BE DEEMED TO (OR IS INTENDED TO) LIMIT ANY OF THE RELEASING PARTIES’ RIGHTS TO ASSERT OR PROSECUTE ANY AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES OR OTHERWISE RAISE ANY DEFENSE OR TAKE ANY ACTION TO DEFEND ITSELF OR THEMSELVES, INCLUDING ANY DEFENSE AVAILABLE UNDER BANKRUPTCY LAW, IN CONNECTION WITH ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION (WHETHER DIRECT OR INDIRECT) BROUGHT BY ANY PERSON RELATING TO ANY OF THE CLAIMS OR CAUSES OF ACTION ARISING FROM, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, THE RELEASED CLAIMS OR (X) THE FORMULATION, PREPARATION, DISSEMINATION, NEGOTIATION, OR FILING OF THE TRANSACTION SUPPORT AGREEMENT, THE DEFINITIVE DOCUMENTS, OR ANY RECAPITALIZATION TRANSACTION, CONTRACT, INSTRUMENT, RELEASE OR OTHER AGREEMENT OR DOCUMENT CREATED OR ENTERED INTO IN CONNECTION WITH THE TRANSACTION SUPPORT AGREEMENT OR THE DEFINITIVE DOCUMENTS AND (Y) THE PURSUIT OF CONSUMMATION, THE ADMINISTRATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECAPITALIZATION TRANSACTIONS, INCLUDING THE ISSUANCE OR DISTRIBUTION OF SECURITIES IN CONNECTION THEREWITH.

(e)   Turnover of Subsequently Recovered Assets. (i) Subject to the occurrence of the Second Supplemental Effective Date, in the event that any Releasing Party (including any successor or assignee thereof) receives any funds, property, or value on account of any Claims, Causes of Action, or litigation against NMG or the MT Entities (or any direct or indirect parent company of such entities) arising from the MyTheresa Designation or the MyTheresa Distribution (collectively, the “Specified Claims”), such Releasing Party shall promptly turn over and assign any such funds, property, or value (including any Equity Securities in any of the MT Entities or proceeds of such Equity Securities, or any increased recoveries resulting therefrom) to, at the election of the Issuers, NMG or the applicable MT Entity. NMG or the applicable MT Entity shall distribute any such recoveries turned over or assigned to it in accordance with the applicable Definitive Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture (but subject to Section 11.19(e)(ii)), each of the Issuers shall be entitled to enforce this Section 11.19(e)(i) on behalf of NMG or any MT Entity. The Releasing Parties will be bound by this Section 11.19(e) notwithstanding the nature of any Claim, Cause of Action, or litigation relating to the Recapitalization Transactions or any judgment or order entered on any such Claim, Cause of Action or litigation.

(ii)   Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, (i) Section 11.19(e)(i) shall only apply to the Releasing Parties in their capacities as holders of Notes, and shall not, for the avoidance of doubt, apply to any Releasing Party in its capacity as a provider of debtor in possession or any similar financing and (ii) to the extent a Releasing Party receives consideration on account of a Claim secured by assets or property of any Company Party or its subsidiaries (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, the Specified Claims or any such assets or property contributed to or otherwise obtained by any Company Party or its subsidiaries on account of the Specified Claims), such consideration will not be subject to Section 11.19(e)(i).

SECTION 1.04 Definitions. Section 1.1 of the Indenture is hereby amended to add in the appropriate alphabetical order the following new definitions:

“Cash Pay Notes” means the 8.000% Senior Cash Pay Notes due 2021.
“Causes of Action” means any action, Claim, cause of action, controversy, demand, right, action, lien, indemnity, interest, guaranty, suit, obligation, liability, damage, judgment, account, defense, offset, power, privilege, and license of any kind or character whatsoever, whether known, unknown, contingent or non-contingent, matured or unmatured, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, disputed or undisputed, secured or unsecured, assertable directly or derivatively, whether arising before, on, or after the date hereof, in contract or in tort, in law (whether local, state, or federal U.S. or non-U.S. law) or in equity, or pursuant to any other theory of local, state, or federal U.S. or non-U.S. law. Each PropCo Guarantor further agrees that, as between such PropCo Guarantor, on one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee on the other hand, (1) subject to the provisions of the PropCo Guarantee, the Maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article Five of the Base Indenture for the purposes of the PropCo Guarantee notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (2) in the event of any acceleration of such obligation as provided in Article Five of the Base Indenture, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such PropCo Guarantor for the purpose of the PropCo Guarantee.

(d) The PropCo Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against the Company for liquidation or reorganization, should the Company become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of the Company’s assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the 2028 Debentures are, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee on the 2028 Debentures, whether as a “voidable preference”, “fraudulent transfer” or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. The unsecured guarantee provided by Extended Term Loan PropCo to the 2028 Debentures shall be a second priority guarantee that shall be junior in contractual right of payment only to the guarantee provided by Extended Term Loan PropCo to the Extended Term Loans and senior in contractual right of payment to the guarantee provided by Extended Term Loan PropCo to the New Second Lien Notes (and any other Second Lien Obligations (as defined in the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement) and the New Third Lien Notes (and any other Third Lien Obligations (as defined in the Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement). Subject to the proviso set forth in the definition of “Notes PropCo”, the unsecured guarantee provided by Notes PropCo to the 2028 Debentures shall be pari passu with the third priority guarantee of the Extended Term Loans; provided, that, if there is a Call Right Cap Recovery, then solely after giving effect thereto, the 2028 Debentures will be guaranteed by a second priority guarantee that shall be junior in contractual right of payment to the guarantee provided by Notes PropCo to the Extended Term Loans and senior in contractual right of payment to the guarantee provided by Notes PropCo to the New Second Lien Notes (and any other Second Lien Obligations) and the New Third Lien Notes (and any other Third Lien Obligations), except that following the Discharge of the First Lien Obligations, the unsecured guarantee provided by Notes PropCo to the 2028 Debentures shall have the priority as set forth in Section 2.1(a)(z)(i) of the Notes PropCo Subordination Agreement. NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP ANNOUNCES

SETTLEMENT OF OFFERS TO EXCHANGE AND CONSENT SOLICITATIONS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

DALLAS — June 10, 2019 — Neiman Marcus Group LTD LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Company”) announced the final settlement of its previously announced exchange offers and related consent solicitations (the “Exchange Offers”) to eligible holders of its previously existing unsecured 8.000% Senior Cash Pay Notes due 2021 (the “Cash Pay Notes”) and unsecured 8.750%/9.500% Senior PIK Toggle Notes due 2021 (the “PIK Toggle Notes” and, together with the Cash Pay Notes, the “Existing Notes”).

On June 7, 2019 (the “Settlement Date”), the Company accepted tenders and consents from holders of $879,320,000 principal amount of the Cash Pay Notes and $599,163,048 principal amount of the PIK Toggle Notes for aggregate consideration consisting of $730,534,000 principal amount of New 8.000% Third Lien Notes due 2024 (the “New 8.000% Third Lien Notes”), $497,849,150 principal amount of New 8.750% Third Lien Notes due 2024 (the “New 8.750% Third Lien Notes”) and, together with the New 8.000% Third Lien Notes, the “New Third Lien Notes”) and 250,000,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock of MYT Holding Co., par value $0.001 per share (the “Series A Preferred Stock”), with an initial liquidation preference of $1.00 per share. MYT Holding Co., is a newly-formed U.S. holding company ("MYT Holding Co.") that indirectly holds NMG Germany GmbH, which holds and conducts the operations of MyTheresa. Following the settlement of the Exchange Offers, approximately $137.3 million aggregate principal amount of the Existing Notes remain outstanding.

As previously announced, the Company had been soliciting consents from holders of the Existing Notes upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Confidential Offering Memorandum and Consent Solicitation Statement, dated April 29, 2019 (as supplemented from time to time, the “Offering Memorandum”), and related Letter of Transmittal to certain proposed amendments to the indentures governing the Existing Notes (the “Existing Indentures”) to remove substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained therein and effect certain other changes. The Company received consents sufficient to approve the proposed amendments to the Existing Indentures and, together with the parties thereto, entered into supplemental indentures containing such proposed amendments, which became operative as of the Settlement Date.

Issuance of New Second Lien Notes

The Exchange Offers were effected pursuant to the terms of a previously announced transaction support agreement (the “TSA”) among the Company, certain of its affiliates and subsidiaries and holders of its Existing Notes and term loans. As contemplated by the TSA, concurrently with the consummation of the Exchange Offers, the Company completed a previously announced unregistered offering of $550.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 14.000% Second Lien Notes due 2024 (the “Second Lien Notes” and, together with the New Third Lien Notes, the “New Notes”). The Second Lien Notes bear interest at an annual rate of 8.000% payable in cash plus an annual rate of 6.000% payable by increasing the principal amount of the outstanding Second Lien Notes. The Company used the net proceeds from the Second Lien Notes offering to (i) prepay $526.9 million of the extended term loans under the Company’s Amended Term Loan Facility (as defined below) and (ii) pay a portion of the fees and expenses related to the Second Lien Notes offering, the amendment and extension of the Company’s existing senior secured term loan credit facility (the “Existing Term Loan Facility”) described below and the Exchange Offers.

Amendment and Extension of the Company’s Credit Facilities

In addition, as contemplated by the TSA, the Company amended the credit agreement governing its Existing Term Loan Facility (as amended, the “Amended Term Loan Facility”), converting the existing term loans outstanding thereunder (the “Existing Term Loans”) into extended term loans with an extended maturity date of October 25, 2023 (the “Extended Term Loans”). In connection with the Amended Term Loan Facility, approximately $2,775.4 million aggregate principal amount of Existing Term Loans were converted into Extended Term Loans by consenting term lenders, representing approximately 99.5% of the total outstanding principal amount of Existing Term Loans. After giving effect to the partial prepayment described above, approximately $2,248.5 million of Extended Term Loans and approximately $12.7 million of Existing Term Loans remain outstanding under the Amended Term Loan Facility.

In connection with the foregoing, the Company also entered into an amendment to the credit agreement governing the Company’s asset-based revolving credit facility, which expanded the collateral package securing the Company’s and the other guarantors’ obligations thereunder.

Amendment of the 2028 Debentures Indenture

Concurrently with the consummation of the foregoing transactions, The Neiman Marcus Group LLC and the holders of a majority of the outstanding principal amount of the 2028 Debentures, together with the successor trustee thereto, executed a supplemental indenture to the indenture governing the 2028 Debentures (the “2028 Debentures Indenture”) to, among other things, amend the reporting covenant in the 2028 Debentures Indenture to substantially replicate the reporting requirements previously set forth in the indentures governing the Existing Notes. As a result of the amendment to the reporting covenant, the Company expects to cease filing periodic reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

No Solicitation, No Registration

The New Notes and related guarantees and the Existing Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or the securities laws of any state and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. This press release is for informational purposes only. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security, nor shall there be any sale of any security of the Company, in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

GUARANTEE

SECTION 2.01. Guarantee. Each Guarantor unconditionally guarantees, jointly with the other Guarantors and severally, to the Trustee and the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the due and punctual payment and performance of the Secured Obligations (such guaranteed obligations of the Guarantors, the “Guaranteed Obligations”). Each Guarantor further agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice to or further assent from such Guarantor, and that such Guarantor will remain bound upon its guarantee hereunder notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Guaranteed Obligations. Each Guarantor waives presentment to, demand of payment from and protest to the Issuer or any other Note Party of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and also waives notice of acceptance of its guarantee and notice of protest for nonpayment.
SECTION 2.02. Guarantee of Payment. Each Guarantor further agrees that its guarantee hereunder constitutes a guarantee of payment when due (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) and not of collection, and waives any right to require that any resort be had by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to any security held for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations or to any balance of any Deposit Account or credit on the books of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in favor of any Note Party or any other person.

SECTION 2.03. No Limitations, Etc.

(1) Except for termination of a Guarantor’s obligations hereunder as expressly provided for in Section 7.15 and except as provided in Section 2.07, the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder will not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and will not be subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise (other than defense of payment or performance). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except for termination or release of a Guarantor’s obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of Section 7.15 the obligations of each Guarantor hereunder, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, will not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by, and each Guarantor hereby waives any defense to the enforcement hereof by reason of:

(a) the failure of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to assert any claim or demand or to exercise or enforce any right or remedy under the provisions of any Notes Document or otherwise;

(b) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of, or any release from any of the terms or provisions of, any Notes Document or any other agreement, including with respect to any other Guarantor under this Agreement;

(c) the failure to perfect any security interest in, or the release of, any of the Collateral held by or on behalf of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party for the Guaranteed Obligations;

(d) any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the Guaranteed Obligations;

(e) any illegality, lack of validity or enforceability of any Guaranteed Obligation;

(f) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of any Note Party, or any insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Note Party;

(g) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights that the Guarantors may have at any time against the Issuer, the Collateral Agent, any other Secured Party or any other person, whether in connection herewith, the other Notes Documents or any unrelated transactions; provided that nothing herein will prevent the assertion of any such claim by separate suit or compulsory counterclaim;
(h) any action permitted or authorized hereunder; or

(i) any other circumstance (including any statute of limitations) or any act or omission that may in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of any Guarantor or otherwise operate as a defense to, or a legal or equitable discharge of, the Issuer or any Guarantor or any other guarantor or surety (other than the payment in full in cash or immediately available funds of the Guaranteed Obligations).

(2) Each Guarantor expressly authorizes the Secured Parties to take and hold security for the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, to exchange, waive or release any or all such security (with or without consideration), to enforce or apply such security and direct the order and manner of any sale thereof in their sole discretion or to release or substitute any one or more other guarantors or obligors upon or in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations, all without affecting the obligations of any Guarantor hereunder.

(3) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and except for termination or release of a Guarantor’s obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms of Section 7.15 hereof, each Guarantor waives any defense based on or arising out of any defense of any other Guarantor or the unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of any other Guarantor, other than the payment in full in cash or immediately available funds of all the Guaranteed Obligations. The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties may exercise any right or remedy available to them against any other Guarantor pursuant to this Agreement or any other Guarantor pursuant to the other Notes Documents, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of any Guarantor hereunder except to the extent that after giving effect thereto all Guaranteed Obligations have been terminated and paid in full (other than contingent indemnity or expense reimbursement obligations that are not yet due and payable and for which no claim has been made). To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Guarantor waives any defense arising out of any such election even though such election operates, pursuant to applicable law, to impair or to extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of such Guarantor against any other Guarantor or any other Note Party, as the case may be, or any security.

SECTION 2.04. Reinstatement. Each Guarantor agrees that its guarantee hereunder will continue to be effective or be reinstated if, at any time, payment, or any part thereof, of any Guaranteed Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of any Issuer or any other Note Party or otherwise.

SECTION 2.05. Agreement To Pay; Contribution; Subrogation.

(1) In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right that the Trustee or any other Secured Party has at law or in equity against any Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of any Guarantor or any Note Party to pay any Guaranteed Obligation when and as the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, by acceleration, after notice of prepayment or otherwise, each Guarantor hereby promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to the Trustee for distribution to the applicable Secured Parties in cash the amount of such unpaid Guaranteed Obligation.

(2) Subject to the foregoing clause (1), to the extent that any Guarantor, under this Agreement or the Indenture as a joint and several obligor, repays any of the Guaranteed Obligations owed by any Note Party under the Indenture (an “Accommodation Payment”), then the Guarantor making such Accommodation Payment will be entitled to contribution and indemnification from, and be reimbursed by, each of the other Guarantors in an amount equal to a fraction of such Accommodation Payment, the numerator of which fraction is such other Guarantor’s Allocable Amount and the denominator of which is the sum of the Allocable Amounts of all of the Guarantors; provided that such rights of contribution and indemnification will be subordinated to the discharge of Guaranteed Obligations. As of any date of determination, the “Allocable Amount” of each Guarantor will be equal to the maximum amount of liability for Accommodation Payments which could be asserted against such Guarantor hereunder and under the Indenture without:

(a) rendering such Guarantor “insolvent” within the meaning of Section 101 (31) of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, Section 2 of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act (“UFTA”) or Section 2 of the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act (“UFCA”);

(b) leaving such Guarantor with unreasonably small capital or assets, within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States, Section 4 of the UFTA, or Section 5 of the UFCA; or

(c) leaving such Guarantor unable to pay its debts as they become due within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States or Section 4 of the UFTA, or Section 5 of the UFCA.

Upon payment by any Guarantor of any sums to the Trustee as provided above, all rights of such Guarantor against the Issuer, any other Note Party or any other Guarantor arising as a result thereof by way of right of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise will in all respects be subject to Article VI.

SECTION 2.06. Information. Each Guarantor assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the financial condition and assets of the Issuer and each other Note Party, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that such Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and agrees that neither the Trustee, the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party will have any duty to advise such Guarantor of information known to it or any of them regarding such circumstances or risks.

SECTION 2.07. Maximum Liability. Each Guarantor and, by its acceptance of this guarantee, the Trustee, the Collateral Agent and each other Secured Party hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such persons that this guarantee and the Guaranteed Obligations of each Guarantor hereunder not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the U.S.
Bankruptcy Code or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar foreign, federal or state law to the extent applicable to this guarantee and the Guaranteed Obligations of each Guarantor hereunder. To effectuate the foregoing intention, the Secured Parties and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the Guaranteed Obligations of the Guarantors under this guarantee at any time are limited to the maximum amount as will result in the Guaranteed Obligations of such Guarantor under this guarantee not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Guaranteed Obligations of the Guarantors under this guarantee shall not exceed $200,000,000 (the “Guarantee Cap”).

SECTION 2.08. Luxembourg Provisions. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, the payment obligation of any MYT Entities incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg (a “Luxembourg Obligor”) for the obligations of any other entity or company (a “Surety Obligation”) which is not its direct or indirect Subsidiary shall be limited at any time, with no double counting, to an aggregate amount not exceeding the higher of:

(a) ninety-five (95) per cent of the Luxembourg Obligor’s own funds (capitaux propres) (as referred to in Schedule 1 of the Luxembourg Regulation dated 18 December 2015 regulating the form and content of balance sheets and profit and loss accounts (the “Regulation”) and implementing article 34 of the Luxembourg law dated 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register and the accounting and annual accounts of undertakings, as amended (the “2002 Law”)) and subordinated debt (dette subordonnée), as at the date of this Guarantee and Collateral Agreement; and (b) ninety-five (95) per cent of the Luxembourg Obligor’s own funds (capitaux propres) (as referred to in Schedule 1 of the Regulation implementing among others article 34 of the 2002 Law) and subordinated debt (dette subordonnée), as at the date of any payment under this Guarantee and Collateral Agreement made with respect to a Surety Obligation. The above limitation shall not apply to any amounts borrowed under the Notes and made available, in any form whatsoever, to the Luxembourg Obligor or to any of its (current or future) direct or indirect Subsidiaries. For the avoidance of doubt, any amounts received under the Notes and made available, in any form whatsoever, to the Luxembourg Obligor or to any of its (current or future) direct or indirect Subsidiaries shall form part of, and be covered by, the guarantee under this Article II.

PLEDGE OF SECURITIES

SECTION 3.01. Pledge. As security for the payment or performance, as the case may be, in full of its Secured Obligations, each Grantor hereby pledges to the Collateral Agent, its successors and permitted assigns, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and hereby grants to the Collateral Agent, its successors and permitted assigns, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest in all of such Grantor’s right, title and interest in, to and under:

(1) the Equity Interests (a) directly owned by such Grantor as of the Issue Date and (b) obtained by such Grantor after the Issue Date and, in each case, the certificates representing all such Equity Interests, in each case, other than any Excluded Assets (the Equity Interests described in the foregoing clauses (a) and (b), collectively, but excluding any Excluded Assets, the “Pledged Stock”;

(2) the promissory notes and any instruments evidencing Indebtedness (a) owned by such Grantor as of the Issue Date and (b) issued to such Grantor after the Issue Date, other than any Excluded Assets (the instruments described in the foregoing clauses (a) and (b), collectively, but excluding any Excluded Assets, the “Pledged Debt Securities”); in each case, including all interest, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for any or all Pledged Debt Securities (except to the extent constituting an Excluded Asset or otherwise excluded from the Collateral pursuant to this Agreement), but excluding (i) Indebtedness owed by another Grantor or Note Party, (ii) intercompany current liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business in connection with the cash management operations of the Issuers and their respective Subsidiaries or the Grantors and their respective Subsidiaries or (iii) to the extent the pledge of such promissory note or instrument would violate any applicable law;

(3) subject to Section 3.05 hereof, all payments of principal or interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of, in exchange for or upon the conversion of, and all other proceeds received in respect of, the securities referred to in the foregoing clauses (1) and (2);

(4) subject to Section 3.05 hereof, all rights and privileges of such Grantor with respect to the securities and other property referred to in the foregoing clauses (1), (2) and (3) above; and

(5) all proceeds of any of the foregoing items referred to in clauses (1) through (4) above, but excluding any Excluded Assets (the items referred to in clauses (1) through (5) of this Section 3.01, collectively, the “Pledged Collateral”).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Notes Document, none of the Pledged Stock, Pledged Debt Securities or Pledged Collateral will include nor will the security interests granted hereunder attach to any Excluded Asset.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Pledged Collateral, together with all right, title, interest, powers, privileges and preferences pertaining or incidental thereto, unto the Collateral Agent, its successors and permitted assigns, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, forever, subject, however, to the terms, covenants and conditions hereinafter set forth and in each case subject to the Indenture.

SECTION 3.02. Delivery of the Pledged Collateral.

(1) Each Grantor agrees promptly to deliver or cause to be delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, any and all Pledged Securities to the extent such Pledged Securities, in the case of promissory notes or other instruments, are required to be delivered pursuant to paragraph (2) of this Section 3.02.
Each Grantor will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause any Indebtedness for borrowed money having an aggregate principal amount in excess of $5.0 million owed to such Grantor by any Person to be evidenced by a duly executed promissory note that is pledged and delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, pursuant to the terms hereof; provided that the foregoing requirement will not apply to intercompany current liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business in connection with the cash management operations of the Issuers and their respective Subsidiaries or the Grantors and their respective Subsidiaries. To the extent any such promissory note is a demand note, each Grantor party thereto agrees, if requested by the Collateral Agent, to immediately demand payment thereunder upon an Event of Default unless such demand would not be commercially reasonable or would otherwise expose such Grantor to liability to the maker.

Upon delivery to the Collateral Agent, (a) any Pledged Securities required to be delivered pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section 3.02 will be accompanied by stock powers or note powers, as applicable, duly executed in blank or other instruments of transfer and (b) all other property composing part of the Pledged Collateral delivered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement will be accompanied, to the extent necessary to perfect the security interest in or allow realization on the Pledged Collateral, by proper instruments of assignment duly executed by the applicable Grantor. Each delivery of Pledged Securities will be accompanied by a schedule describing the securities, which schedule will be attached hereto as Schedule I (or a supplement to Schedule I, as applicable) and made a part hereof; provided that failure to attach any such schedule hereto will not affect the validity of such pledge of such Pledged Securities. Each schedule so delivered will supplement any prior schedules so delivered.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Notes Document, no Grantor will be required to take any action under the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions for the purpose of perfecting the Security Interest in any Pledged Collateral of such Grantor.

SECTION 3.03. Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Each Grantor represents and warrants and covenants to and with the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties that:

Schedule I correctly sets forth, as of the Issue Date, (a) the percentage of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of the Equity Interests of the issuer thereof represented by such Pledged Stock and (b) all debt securities and promissory notes or instruments evidencing Indebtedness required to be pledged pursuant to the terms of the Indenture on the Issue Date;

the Pledged Stock and Pledged Debt Securities (solely with respect to Pledged Debt Securities issued by a Person that is not a Subsidiary of a Grantor or an Affiliate of any such Subsidiary, to the best of each Grantor’s knowledge) have been duly and validly authorized and issued by the issuers thereof and (a) in the case of Pledged Stock, are fully paid and non-assessable (to the extent such concepts are applicable to such Pledged Stock and other than with respect to Pledged Stock consisting of membership interests of limited liability companies to the extent provided in Sections 18-502 and 18-607 of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act) and (b) in the case of Pledged Debt Securities (solely with respect to Pledged Debt Securities issued by a Person that is not a Subsidiary of a Grantor or an Affiliate of any such Subsidiary, to the best of each Grantor’s knowledge) are legal, valid and binding obligations of the issuers thereof, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditors’ rights generally, general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding at law or in equity) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing;

(3) except for the security interests granted hereunder, each Grantor:

(a) is and, subject to any transfers made in compliance with the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, will continue to be the direct owner, beneficially and of record, of the Pledged Securities indicated on Schedule I as owned by such Grantor;

(b) holds the same free and clear of all Liens, other than Permitted Liens;

(c) will make no assignment, pledge, hypothecation or transfer of, or create or permit to exist any security interest in or other Lien on, the Pledged Collateral, other than pursuant to a transaction permitted by the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, and other than Permitted Liens; and

(d) subject to the rights of such Grantor under the Notes Documents to dispose of Pledged Collateral, will use commercially reasonable efforts to defend its title or interest hereto or therein against any and all Liens (other than Permitted Liens), however arising, of all persons;

(4) other than as set forth in the Indenture or this Agreement or the schedules thereto or hereto, and except for restrictions and limitations imposed by the Notes Documents or securities laws generally or otherwise permitted to exist pursuant to the terms of the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, the Pledged Stock (other than Pledged Stock that is partnership interests) is and will continue to be freely transferable and assignable, and, except for limitations existing on the Issue Date in the articles or certificate of incorporation, bylaws or other organizational documents of any Subsidiary that is not a wholly owned Subsidiary, none of the Pledged Stock is or will be subject to any option, right of first refusal, shareholders agreement, charter or by-law provisions or contractual restriction of any nature that would prohibit, impair, delay or otherwise affect the pledge of such Pledged Stock hereunder, the sale or disposition thereof pursuant hereto or the exercise by the Collateral Agent of rights and remedies hereunder;

(5) each Grantor has the power and authority to pledge the Pledged Collateral pledged by it hereunder in the manner hereby done or contemplated;

(6) other than as set forth in any Notes Document or the perfection certificate delivered in connection with the issuance of the Notes or the schedules thereto, no consent or approval of any Governmental Authority, any securities exchange or any other Person was or is necessary to the validity of the pledge effected hereby (other than such as have been obtained and are in full force and effect, other than such consents and approvals the failure of which to be obtained or made would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect);

(7) as of the Issue Date, this Agreement is effective to create in favor of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) a legal, valid and enforceable security interest in the Collateral described herein and proceeds thereof;

(8) as of the Issue Date, none of the Equity Interests in limited liability companies or partnerships that are pledged by the Grantors hereunder constitute a security under Section 8-103 of the UCC or the corresponding code or statute of any other applicable jurisdiction; and

(9) the Grantors shall not amend, or permit to be amended, the limited liability company agreement (or operating agreement or similar agreement) or partnership agreement of any subsidiary whose Equity Interests are, or are required to be, Collateral hereunder in a manner to cause such Equity Interests to constitute a security under Section 8-103 of the New York UCC or the corresponding code or statute of any other applicable jurisdiction unless such Grantor shall have first delivered reasonable prior written notice to the Collateral Agent and shall have taken all actions contemplated hereby to maintain the security interest of the Collateral Agent therein as a valid, perfected, first priority security interest.

SECTION 3.04. Registration in Nominee Name; Denominations. The Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, has the right (in its sole and absolute discretion) to hold the Pledged Securities in the name of the applicable Grantor, endorsed or assigned in blank or in favor of the Collateral Agent or, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, in its own name as pledgee or the name of its nominee (as pledgee or as sub-agent). Each Grantor will promptly give to the Collateral Agent copies of any notices or other communications received by it with respect to Pledged Securities registered in the name of such Grantor. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Collateral Agent will have the right to exchange the certificates representing Pledged Securities for certificates of smaller or larger denominations for any purpose consistent with this Agreement.

SECTION 3.05. Voting Rights; Dividends and Interest, Etc..

(1) Unless and until an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its rights hereunder:

(a) each Grantor will be entitled to exercise any and all voting and/or other consensual rights and powers inuring to an owner of Pledged Collateral or any part thereof for any purpose consistent with the terms of this Agreement, the Indenture and the other Notes Documents; provided that, except as permitted under the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, such rights and powers will not be exercised in any manner that could materially and adversely affect the rights inuring to a holder of any Pledged Collateral, the rights and remedies of any of the Collateral Agent or the other Secured Parties under this Agreement, the Indenture or any other Notes Document or the ability of the Secured Parties to exercise the same;

(b) the Collateral Agent will, at the cost and expense of the requesting Grantor, promptly execute and deliver to each Grantor, or cause to be executed and delivered to such Grantor, all such proxies, powers of attorney and other instruments as such Grantor may reasonably request for the purpose of enabling such Grantor to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to subparagraph (a) above; and

(c) each Grantor will be entitled to receive and retain any and all dividends, interest, principal and other distributions paid on or distributed in respect of the Pledged Collateral to the extent and only to the extent that such dividends, interest, principal and other distributions are permitted by, and otherwise paid or distributed in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the other Notes Documents and applicable laws; provided that (i) any noncash dividends, interest, principal or other distributions, payments or other consideration in respect thereof, including any rights to receive the same to the extent not so distributed or paid, that would constitute Pledged Securities, whether resulting from a subdivision, combination or reclassification of the outstanding Equity Interests of the issuer of any Pledged Securities, received in exchange for Pledged Securities or any part thereof, or in redemption thereof, as a result of any merger, consolidation, acquisition or other exchange of assets to which such issuer may be a party or otherwise and (ii) any noncash dividends and other distributions paid or payable in respect of any Pledged Securities that would constitute Pledged Securities in connection with a partial or total liquidation or dissolution or in connection with a reduction of capital, capital surplus or paid in surplus, will be and become part of the Pledged Collateral, and, if received by any Grantor, will not be commingled by such Grantor with any of its other funds or property, but will be held separate and apart therefrom, will be held in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and will be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the same form as so received (endorsed to the Collateral Agent).

(2) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice by the Collateral Agent to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its rights hereunder, all rights of any Grantor to dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that such Grantor is authorized to receive pursuant to paragraph (1)(c) of this Section 3.05 will cease, and all such rights will thereupon become vested, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the Collateral Agent, which will have the sole and exclusive right and authority to receive and retain such dividends, interest, principal or other distributions; provided, however, that even after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and such one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice, any Grantor may continue to receive dividends and distributions solely to the extent permitted under subclause (b)(vi)(A), subclause (b)(vi)(C) and subclause (b)(vi)(E) of Section 3.4 of the Indenture.

(3) All dividends, interest, principal or other distributions received by any Grantor contrary to the provisions of this Section 3.05 will not be commingled by such Grantor with any of its other funds or property, but will be held separate and apart therefrom, will be held in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and will be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the same form as so received (endorsed to the Collateral Agent). Any and all money and other property paid over to or received by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (3) will be retained by the Collateral Agent in an account to be established by the Collateral Agent upon receipt of such money or other property and will be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.02 hereof. After all such Events of Default have been cured or waived, the Collateral Agent will promptly repay to each Grantor (without interest) all dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that such Grantor would otherwise be permitted to retain pursuant to the terms of paragraph (1)(c) of this Section 3.05 and that remain in such account.

(4) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after the Collateral Agent shall have given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its rights hereunder, all rights of any Grantor to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to paragraph (1)(a) of this Section 3.05, and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under paragraph (1)(b) of this Section 3.05, will cease, and all such rights will thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, which will have the sole and exclusive right and authority to exercise such voting and consensual rights and powers; provided that the Collateral Agent will have the right from time to time following and during the continuance of an Event of Default and such one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to permit the Grantors to exercise such rights. After all such Events of Default have been cured or waived, each Grantor will have the right to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers that such Grantor would otherwise be entitled to exercise pursuant to the terms of paragraph (1)(a) above.

(iv) delivery of Collateral consisting of certificated Equity Interests included in the Collateral;

(b) entering into or causing to be entered into Control Agreements or similar agreements with respect to the MYT Account; or c except as set forth in Section 7.16, to take any actions outside the United States to create or perfect any security interests in any Collateral (it being understood that there shall be no security agreements or pledge agreements governed under the laws of any foreign jurisdiction except as contemplated by Section 7.16).

SECTION 4.02. Representations and Warranties. Each Grantor represents and warrants to the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties that:

(1) Each Grantor has good and valid rights in and title to the Article 9 Collateral with respect to which it has purported to grant a Security Interest hereunder and has full power and authority to grant to the Collateral Agent the Security Interest in such Article 9 Collateral pursuant hereto and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, without the consent or approval of any other Person other than any consent or approval that has been obtained and is in full force and effect or has otherwise been disclosed herein or in the Indenture.

(2) The Uniform Commercial Code financing statements containing a description of the Article 9 Collateral that have been prepared by the Grantor for filing in the office specified in Schedule III constitute all the filings, recordings and registrations (except as set forth in the following clause (3)) that are, as of the Issue Date, necessary to publish notice of and protect the validity of and to establish a legal, valid and perfected security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) in respect of all Article 9 Collateral in which the Security Interest may be perfected by filing.
Each Grantor represents and warrants that a fully executed Intellectual Property Security Agreement containing a description of all Article 9 Collateral existing on the Issue Date and consisting of Intellectual Property owned by such Grantor with respect to United States Patents (and Patents for which United States applications are pending), United States registered Trademarks (and Trademarks for which United States registration applications are pending) and United States registered Copyrights (and Copyrights for which United States registration applications are pending) was delivered on the Issue Date for recording with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 261, 15 U.S.C. § 1060 or 17 U.S.C. § 205 and the regulations thereunder, as applicable.

The Security Interest constitutes (a) a legal and valid security interest in all the Article 9 Collateral securing the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations; (b) subject to the filings described in Section 4.02(2), a perfected security interest in all Article 9 Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a financing statement or analogous document in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law in such jurisdictions; and (c) a security interest that shall be perfected in all Article 9 Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of an Intellectual Property Security Agreement with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office, as applicable. The Security Interest is and shall be prior to any other Lien on any of the Article 9 Collateral other than Permitted Liens.

The Article 9 Collateral is owned by the Grantors free and clear of any Lien, other than Permitted Liens. None of the Grantors has filed or consented to the filing after the Issue Date of (a) any financing statement or analogous document under the Uniform Commercial Code or any other applicable laws covering any Article 9 Collateral; (b) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or the United States Copyright Office; or (c) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with any foreign governmental, municipal or other office, which financing statement or analogous document, assignment, security agreement or similar instrument is still in effect, except, in each case, for Permitted Liens.

None of the Grantors holds any Commercial Tort Claim individually in excess of $5.0 million as of the Issue Date except as indicated on Schedule IV.

The names of the obligors, amounts owing, due dates and other information with respect to each Grantor’s Accounts and Chattel Paper that are Collateral are and will be correctly stated, at the time furnished, in all records of such Grantor relating thereto and in all invoices furnished to the Collateral Agent by such Grantor from time to time.

As to itself and its Article 9 Collateral consisting of Intellectual Property (the "Intellectual Property Collateral"), to each Grantor’s knowledge, as of the Issue Date:
(a) The Intellectual Property Collateral set forth on Schedule II includes all of the material Patents, registered Trademarks and registered Copyrights owned by such Grantor as of the date hereof (including all such registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or United States Copyright Office);

(b) The Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantors has not been adjudged invalid or unenforceable in whole or part (except for office actions issued in the ordinary course by the United States Patent and Trademark Office or any similar office in any foreign jurisdiction), and is valid and enforceable, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Such Grantor is not aware of any uses of any item of Intellectual Property Collateral that would be expected to lead to such item becoming invalid or unenforceable, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(c) Such Grantor has made or performed in the ordinary course of Grantor’s business, acts, including filings, recordings and payment of all required fees and taxes, required to maintain and protect its interest in each and every item of Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor in full force and effect in the United States, and such Grantor has used proper statutory notice in connection with its use of each Patent, Trademark and Copyright owned by such Grantor in the Intellectual Property Collateral, in each case, except to the extent that the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(d) With respect to each IP Agreement, the absence, termination or violation of which would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect: (A) such Grantor has not received any notice of termination or cancellation under such IP Agreement; (B) such Grantor has not received any notice of a breach or default under such IP Agreement, which breach or default has not been cured or waived; and (C) neither such Grantor nor any other party to such IP Agreement is in breach or default thereof in any material respect, and no event has occurred that, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a breach or default or permit termination, modification or acceleration under such IP Agreement.

(e) Except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no Grantor or Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor is subject to any outstanding consent, settlement, decree, order, injunction, judgment or ruling restricting the use of any Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor or that would impair the validity or enforceability of such Intellectual Property Collateral owned by such Grantor.

SECTION 4.03. Covenants.

(1) Each Grantor agrees to furnish to the Collateral Agent five Business Days prior written notice of any change in any MYT Guarantor Entity’s:

(a) corporate or organization name;

(b) organizational structure;
location (determined as provided in Uniform Commercial Code Section 9-307); or organizational identification number (or equivalent) or, solely if required for perfecting a security interest in the applicable jurisdiction, Federal Taxpayer Identification Number.

The MYT Guarantor Entities will not effect or permit any such change unless all filings have been made, or will be made within any statutory period, under the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise that are required in order for the Collateral Agent to continue at all times following such change to have a valid, legal and perfected security interest, for the benefit of the applicable Secured Parties, in all Collateral held by such MYT Guarantor Entity.

(2) Subject to the rights of such Grantor under the Notes Documents to dispose of Collateral and except as would otherwise be permitted by the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, each Grantor will, at its own expense, use commercially reasonable efforts to defend title to the Article 9 Collateral against all persons and to defend the Security Interest of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the Article 9 Collateral and the priority thereof against any Lien that is not a Permitted Lien.

(3) Each Grantor agrees, at its own expense, to execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents and take all such actions as may from time to time be reasonably necessary to preserve, protect and perfect the Security Interest and the rights and remedies created hereby, including the payment of any fees and taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the granting of the Security Interest and the filing of any financing statements (including fixture filings) or other documents in connection herewith or therewith.

(4) If any amount payable under or in connection with any of the Article 9 Collateral that is in excess of $5.0 million is or becomes evidenced by any promissory note or other instrument, such note or instrument will be promptly pledged and delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(5) After the occurrence of an Event of Default and during the continuance thereof, the Collateral Agent will have the right to verify under reasonable procedures the validity, amount, quality, quantity, value, condition and status of, or any other matter relating to, the Article 9 Collateral, including, in the case of Accounts or Article 9 Collateral in the possession of any third person, by contacting Account Debtors or the third person possessing such Article 9 Collateral for the purpose of making such a verification. The Collateral Agent shall have the right to share any information it gains from such inspection or verification with any Secured Party.

(6) After the occurrence of an Event of Default and during the continuance thereof, none of the Grantors will, without the Collateral Agent’s prior written consent, acting at the direction of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes, grant any extension of the time of payment of any Accounts included. in the Article 9 Collateral, compromise, compound or settle the same for less than the full amount thereof, release, wholly or partly, any person liable for the payment thereof or allow any credit or discount whatsoever thereon, in each case, other than extensions, credits, discounts, compromises or settlements granted or made in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prudent business practices or as otherwise permitted under the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable.

(7) At its option after the occurrence of an Event of Default and during the continuance thereof, the Collateral Agent may discharge past due taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Article 9 Collateral and not a Permitted Lien, and may pay for the maintenance and preservation of the Article 9 Collateral to the extent any Grantor fails to do so as required by the Indenture or this Agreement, and each Grantor jointly and severally agrees to reimburse the Collateral Agent on demand for any reasonable payment made or any reasonable expense incurred by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the foregoing authorization; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 4.03(7) will excuse any Grantor from the performance of, or impose any obligation on the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to cure or perform, any covenants or other promises of any Grantor with respect to taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances and maintenance as set forth herein or in the other Notes Documents.

(8) Each Grantor (rather than the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party) will remain liable for the observance and performance of all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it under each contract, agreement or instrument relating to the Article 9 Collateral.

(9) Each Grantor irrevocably makes, constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent (and all officers, employees or agents designated by the Collateral Agent for such purpose) as such Grantor’s true and lawful agent (and attorney-in-fact) for the purpose, during the continuance of an Event of Default, of making, settling and adjusting claims in respect of Article 9 Collateral under policies of insurance, endorsing the name of such Grantor on any check, draft, instrument or other item of payment for the proceeds of such policies of insurance and for making all determinations and decisions with respect thereto.

(10) In the event that any Grantor at any time or times fails to obtain or maintain any of the policies of insurance required hereby or under the Indenture or to pay any premium in whole or part relating thereto, the Collateral Agent may, after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, without waiving or releasing any obligation or liability of the Grantors hereunder or any Event of Default, in its sole discretion, obtain and maintain such policies of insurance and pay such premium and take any other actions with respect thereto as the Collateral Agent reasonably deems advisable. All sums disbursed by the Collateral Agent in connection with this Section 4.03(10), including reasonable attorneys’ fees, court costs, expenses and other charges relating thereto, shall be payable, upon demand, by the Grantors to the Collateral Agent and shall be additional Secured Obligations secured hereby.

If MYT Parent or MYT Holdco receives any distributions on account of the equity of MYT Holdco or proceeds from a MYT Secondary Sale, MYT Parent or MYT Holdco shall promptly pay or distribute such proceeds, until the earliest to occur of (i) a MYT Deposit Event, (ii) the provision of MYT Alternate Security or (iii) the satisfaction and discharge in full of the Second Lien Notes Obligations, into the MYT Account, up to an amount equal to $200.0 million (and, as a condition to the consummation of any MYT Secondary Sale, the applicable equityholder(s) shall cause the purchaser(s) to fund such proceeds directly or indirectly to MYT Holdco for deposit into the MYT Account); provided, that, upon the earlier to occur of (i) the satisfaction and discharge in full of the Second Lien Notes Obligations and (ii) provision of MYT Alternate Security, any amounts in the MYT Account shall be released to MYT Parent or MYT Holdco and the MYT Account shall cease to be Collateral hereunder.

Not later than 45 days after the Issue Date, MYT Parent shall open the MYT Account and enter into a Control Agreement with respect to the MYT Account. No funds or other amounts shall be deposited into the MYT Account at any time except as explicitly provided herein. No MYT Secondary Sale or other transaction or event that would result in a requirement to deposit funds into the MYT Account may occur until a Control Agreement is entered into with respect to the MYT Account.

Unless MYT Alternate Security has been provided or a MYT Deposit Event has occurred, no sale, disposition, monetization or other transfer (whether directly, indirectly or synthetically, including through derivative transactions or by means of a transaction involving MYT Parent or any other entity that directly or indirectly owns equity interests in MYT Holdco) of equity interests in MYT Holdco shall be made by MYT Parent or MYT Holdco for any consideration other than cash or Cash Equivalents.

Each MYT Guarantor Entity that is not organized or existing under the laws of the United States of America, any state thereof or the District of Columbia shall comply with Section 3.14 of the Indenture as if each reference therein to a Foreign Guarantor were a reference to such MYT Guarantor Entity and each reference therein to a Guarantee were a reference to a Limited Guarantee.

No MYT Guarantor Entity shall take or knowingly or negligently omit to take, any action which action or omission might reasonably or would (in the good faith determination of the Issuer), have the result of materially impairing the value of the security interests taken as a whole (including the lien priority with respect thereto) with respect to the Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties (including materially impairing the lien priority of the Notes with respect thereto) (it being understood that any release described under Section 7.15 and the incurrence of Liens permitted under Section 4.06(6) shall not be deemed to so materially impair the security interests with respect to the Collateral).

Each MYT Guarantor shall comply with Section 3.16 of the Indenture as if such MYT Guarantor were a Subsidiary Guarantor.
SECTION 4.04. Other Actions. In order to further ensure the attachment, perfection and priority of, and the ability of the Collateral Agent to enforce, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the Collateral Agent’s security interest in the Article 9 Collateral, each Grantor agrees, in each case at such Grantor’s own expense, to take the following actions with respect to the following Article 9 Collateral:

(1) Instruments and Tangible Chattel Paper. If any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Instruments (other than checks received and processed in the ordinary course of business) or Tangible Chattel Paper evidencing an amount in excess of $5.0 million, such Grantor will forthwith endorse, assign and deliver the same to the Collateral Agent, accompanied by instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank.

(2) Investment Property.

(a) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Article III, if any Grantor at any time holds or acquires any Certificated Security constituting Pledged Collateral or Article 9 Collateral, such Grantor will forthwith endorse, assign and deliver the same to the Collateral Agent, accompanied by instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank. If any security of a domestic issuer now owned or hereafter acquired by any Grantor is uncertificated and is issued to such Grantor or its nominee directly by the issuer thereof, such Grantor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent of such uncertificated securities and upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, such Grantor shall pursuant to an agreement, either (a) cause the issuer to agree to comply with instructions from the Collateral Agent as to such security, without further consent of any Grantor or such nominee or (b) cause the issuer to register the Collateral Agent as the registered owner of such security.

(b) Within 5 Business Days of the Closing Date, the Grantors, with respect to each promissory note evidencing a Pledged Debt Security described on Schedule I to this Agreement, shall deliver to the Collateral Agent such promissory note, together with a note power endorsed in blank.

(c) Within 5 Business Days of the MYT Reorganization, the Grantors shall deliver a restated version of each promissory note described in Section 4.04(2)(b) above that correctly identifies each obligor and obligee with respect thereto, together with a note power endorsed in blank.

(3) Commercial Tort Claims. If any Grantor shall at any time hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim with an asserted or nominal value in excess of $5.0 million, such Grantor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof in a writing signed by such Grantor, including a summary description of such claim, and grant to the Collateral Agent in writing a security interest therein and in the proceeds thereof, all under the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.05. Covenants Regarding Patent, Trademark and Copyright Collateral. Except as permitted by the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable:
Each Grantor agrees that it will not knowingly do any act or omit to do any act (and will exercise commercially reasonable efforts to contractually prohibit its licensees from doing any act or omitting to do any act) whereby any material Patent owned by such Grantor that is necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business may become prematurely invalidated, abandoned, lapsed or dedicated to the public, and agrees that it will take commercially reasonable steps with respect to any material products covered by any such Patent as necessary to establish and preserve its rights under applicable patent laws.

Each Grantor will, and will use its commercially reasonable efforts to contractually require its licensees and its sublicensees to, for each material Trademark owned by such Grantor and necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business:

(a) maintain such Trademark in full force free from any adjudication of abandonment or invalidity for non-use;

(b) maintain the quality of products and services offered under such Trademark;

(c) display such Trademark with notice of federal or foreign registration or claim of trademark or service mark as required under applicable law; and

(d) not knowingly use or knowingly permit its licensees’ use of such Trademark in violation of any third-party rights.

Each Grantor will, and will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its licensees and its sublicensees to, for each work covered by a material Copyright owned by such Grantor and necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor's business and that it publishes, displays and distributes, use a copyright notice as necessary and sufficient to establish and preserve its rights under applicable copyright laws.

Each Grantor shall notify the Collateral Agent promptly if it knows that any material Patent, Trademark or Copyright owned by such Grantor and necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business may imminently become abandoned, lapsed or dedicated to the public, or of any materially adverse determination or development, regarding such Grantor’s ownership of any such material Patent, Trademark or Copyright or its right to register or to maintain the same.

Each Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, will execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers (and substantially equivalent agreements, documents and papers as are executed and delivered with respect to any Credit Agreement) reasonably necessary to evidence the Collateral Agent’s security interest in each Patent, Trademark, or Copyright listed in a list of new Patents, Trademarks or Copyrights which shall be furnished to the Collateral Agent at the same time as the annual financial statements provided pursuant to Section 3.2(a) of the Indenture.

Each Grantor will exercise its reasonable business judgment consistent with the practice in any proceeding before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office with respect to maintaining and pursuing each application owned by such Grantor relating to any material Patent, Trademark and/or Copyright (and obtaining the relevant grant or registration) necessary to the normal conduct of such Grantor’s business and to maintain (a) each such Patent and (b) the registrations of each such Trademark and each such Copyright, including, when applicable and necessary in such Grantor’s reasonable business judgment, timely filings of applications for renewal, affidavits of use, affidavits of incontestability and payment of maintenance fees, and, if any Grantor believes necessary in its reasonable business judgment, to initiate opposition, interference and cancellation proceedings against third parties.

(7) In the event that any Grantor knows or has reason to know that any Article 9 Collateral consisting of a material Patent, Trademark or Copyright necessary to the normal conduct of its business has been materially infringed, misappropriated or diluted by a third party, such Grantor will promptly notify the Collateral Agent and will, if such Grantor deems it necessary in its reasonable business judgment, promptly take actions as are reasonably appropriate under the circumstances.

SECTION 4.06. Restrictive Covenants. Until the earliest to occur of (i) a MYT Deposit Event, (ii) the provision of MYT Alternate Security or (iii) the Termination Date:

(1) Limitation on Restricted Payments. MYT Holdco shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise):

(a) declare or pay any dividend or make any payment or distribution on account of the MYT Guarantor Entities’ or any of their Subsidiaries’ Equity Interests (other than a dividend or other payment or distribution payable to the MYT Guarantor Entities or their Subsidiaries; including any payment made in connection with any merger, consolidation, liquidation or dissolution involving any of the MYT Guarantor Entities (other than dividends or distributions by MYT Holdco payable solely in common Equity Interests of MYT Holdco); or purchase, redeem, defease or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of the MYT Guarantor Entities’ or any of their Subsidiaries’ equity interests including any purchase, redemption, defeasance or acquisition for value made, in connection with any merger, consolidation, liquidation or dissolution involving any of the MYT Guarantor Entities or their Subsidiaries.

Nothing contained in this Section 4.06(1) shall prohibit (x) the Affiliate Transactions permitted under Section 4.06(7) and (y) the MYT Reorganization permitted under Section 4.06(4).

(2) Limitation on Incurrence of Indebtedness. MYT Holdco shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise), Incur any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness) for borrowed money or any guarantee or other credit support for Indebtedness for borrowed money; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation will not apply to the following:

intercompany Indebtedness of MYT Holdco and its Subsidiaries existing on the Issue Date; provided that to the extent any such Indebtedness is owed by an MYT Guarantor Entity to another Person that is not an MYT Guarantor Entity, such Indebtedness shall be unsecured and shall be subordinated in right of payment to the guarantee by such MYT Guarantor Entity of the Secured Obligations set forth in Section 2.01; and Limitation on Issuances of Equity Interests. MYT Holdco shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise), to (a) authorize, issue or increase the authorized amount of equity of any member of the MYT Group other than MYT Holdco (other than issuances of such equity to members of the MYT Group) or (b) amend or reclassify any equity of MYT Holdco into any of the foregoing equity described in clause (a).

4. Limitation on Reorganizations. MYT Holdco shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise), take any action, including forming a Subsidiary, recapitalization or reorganization, that results in any Person existing between MYT Holdco and NMG Germany GmbH (other than entities that are wholly owned Subsidiaries of MYT Holdco). Notwithstanding the foregoing, MYT Holdco shall be permitted to reorganize the ownership structure of MYT Holdco and its Subsidiaries to eliminate Mariposa Luxembourg I S.à r.l. and Mariposa Luxembourg II S.à r.l. on or prior to September 30, 2019 (the “MYT Reorganization”); provided that all equity pledges and guarantees by the MYT Guarantor Entities shall remain or be assumed by operation of law or otherwise in connection with such restructuring and without the creation of any additional tax liabilities at the time of the restructuring to the Holders.

(a) Investments made using common equity or the cash proceeds (net of offering expenses, discounts and commissions) of common equity of MYT Holdco (it being understood that an amount of cash proceeds of such common equity may be used to temporarily reduce the outstanding amount under the MYT RCF, and such amount may be borrowed under the MYT RCF to fund such Investments);

ARTICLE V

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Remedies Upon Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, each Grantor agrees to deliver each item of Collateral to the Collateral Agent on demand, and it is agreed that the Collateral Agent shall have the right, subject to applicable law, to take any of or all the following actions at the same or different times: (1) with respect to any Article 9 Collateral consisting of Intellectual Property, on demand, to cause the Security Interest to become an assignment, transfer and conveyance of any of or all such Article 9 Collateral by the applicable Grantors to the Collateral Agent or to license or sublicense, whether general, special or otherwise, and whether on an exclusive or a non-exclusive basis, any such Article 9 Collateral throughout the world on such terms and conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall determine (other than in violation of any then-existing licensing arrangements to the extent that waivers thereunder cannot be obtained with the use of commercially reasonable efforts, which each Grantor hereby agrees to use) and (2) to take possession of the Article 9 Collateral and without liability for trespass to the applicable Grantor to enter any premises where the Article 9 Collateral may be located for the purpose of taking possession of, removing or selling the Article 9 Collateral and, generally, to exercise any and all rights afforded to a secured party under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing rights and remedies, each Grantor agrees that the Collateral Agent shall have the right, subject to the mandatory requirements of applicable law (including the Uniform Commercial Code), to sell or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Collateral at a public or private sale or at any broker’s board or on any securities exchange, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery as the Collateral Agent shall deem appropriate. The Collateral Agent shall be authorized in connection with any sale of a security (if it deems it advisable to do so) pursuant to the foregoing to restrict the prospective bidders or purchasers to Persons who represent and agree that they are purchasing such security for their own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale thereof. Upon consummation of any such sale of Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.01, the Collateral Agent shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral so sold. Each such purchaser at any such sale shall hold the property sold absolutely, free from any claim or right on the part of any Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives and releases (to the extent permitted by law) all rights of redemption, stay, valuation and appraisal that such Grantor now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted.

The Collateral Agent shall give the applicable Grantors ten Business Days’ written notice (which each Grantor agrees is reasonable notice within the meaning of Section 9-611 of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions) of the Collateral Agent’s intention to make any sale of Collateral. Such notice, in the case of a public sale, shall state the time and place for such sale and, in the case of a sale at a broker’s board or on a securities exchange, shall state the board or exchange at which such sale is to be made and the day on which the Collateral, or portion thereof, will first be offered for sale at such board or exchange. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Collateral Agent may fix and state in the notice (if any) of such sale. The Collateral, or the portion thereof, to be sold at any such sale may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels.
parcels in the Collateral Agent’s own right or by one or more agents and contractors, upon any premises owned, leased, or occupied by any Grantor and the Collateral Agent and any such agent or contractor, in conjunction with any such sale, may augment the Inventory to be sold with other goods (all of which other goods shall remain the sole property of the Collateral Agent or such agent or contractor), all as the Collateral Agent may (in its sole and absolute discretion) determine. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of any Collateral if it shall determine not to do so, regardless of the fact that notice of sale of such Collateral shall have been given. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for sale, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which the same was so adjourned. In the case of any sale of all or any part of the Collateral made on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral so sold may be retained by the Collateral Agent until the sale price is paid by the purchaser or purchasers thereof, but the Collateral Agent shall not incur any liability in the event that any such purchaser or purchasers shall fail to take up and pay for the Collateral so sold and, in the case of any such failure, such Collateral may be sold again upon notice given in accordance with provisions above. At any public (or, to the extent permitted by law, private) sale made pursuant to this Section 5.01, any Secured Party may bid for or purchase, free (to the extent permitted by law) from any right of redemption, stay, valuation or appraisal on the part of any Grantor (all such rights being also hereby waived and released to the extent permitted by law), the Collateral or any part thereof offered for sale and may make payment on account thereof by using any claim then due and payable to such Secured Party from any Grantor as a credit against the purchase price, and such Secured Party may, upon compliance with the terms of sale, hold, retain and dispose of such property in accordance with Section 5.02 hereof without further accountability to any Grantor therefor. For purposes hereof, a written agreement to purchase the Collateral or any portion thereof shall be treated as a sale thereof; the Collateral Agent shall be free to carry out such sale pursuant to such agreement and no Grantor shall be entitled to the return of the Collateral or any portion thereof subject thereto, notwithstanding the fact that after the Collateral Agent shall have entered into such an agreement all Events of Default shall have been remedied and the Secured Obligations paid in full. As an alternative to exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, the Collateral Agent may proceed by a suit or suits at law or in equity to foreclose this Agreement and to sell the Collateral or any portion thereof pursuant to a judgment or decree of a court or courts having competent jurisdiction or pursuant to a proceeding by a court-appointed receiver. Any sale pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.01 shall be deemed to conform to the commercially reasonable standards as provided in Section 9-610(b) of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions.

Without limiting any other rights of the Collateral Agent granted pursuant to this Agreement, each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent, and the representatives and independent contractors of the Collateral Agent, a royalty free, non-exclusive, irrevocable license (such license to be effective upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default), to use, apply, and affix any Trademark, trade name, logo, or the like in which any Grantor now or hereafter has rights, solely in connection with the Collateral Agent’s enforcement of rights or remedies hereunder, including in connection with any sale or other disposition of Inventory. As to each Grantor, the license granted hereby shall remain in full force and effect until such Grantor hereunder is released hereunder in accordance with Section 7.15 of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.02. Application of Proceeds.

(1) The Collateral Agent will promptly apply the proceeds, moneys or balances of any collection or sale of Collateral, as well as any Collateral consisting of cash, in the following order of priority:

(a) first, to all amounts owing to the Collateral Agent or the Trustee pursuant to any of the Notes Documents in its capacity as such in respect of (i) the preservation of Collateral or its security interest in the Collateral or (ii) with respect to enforcing the rights of the Secured Parties under the Notes Documents;

(b) second, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clause (a), to all other amounts owing to the Trustee, the Collateral Agent or any other Agent pursuant to any of the Notes Documents in its capacity as such;

(c) third, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (a) through (b), to an amount equal to the Guaranteed Obligations constituting Secured Obligations with each Secured Party receiving an amount equal to its outstanding Secured Obligations or, if the proceeds are insufficient to pay in full all such Secured Obligations, its pro rata share of the amount remaining to be distributed; and

(d) fourth, to the extent proceeds remain after the application pursuant to preceding clauses (a) through (c), inclusive, and following the payment in full of the Secured Obligations, to the relevant Grantor, their successors or assigns, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

(2) If any payment to any Secured Party pursuant to this Section 5.02 of its pro rata share of any distribution would result in overpayment to such Secured Party, such excess amount shall instead be distributed in respect of the unpaid Secured Obligations of the other Secured Parties, with each Secured Party whose Secured Obligations have not been paid in full to receive an amount equal to such excess amount multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the unpaid Secured Obligations of such Secured Party and the denominator of which is the unpaid Secured Obligations of all Secured Parties entitled to such distribution.

(3) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the Trustee for the account of such Secured Parties or as the Trustee may otherwise direct in accordance with the Notes Documents.

(4) The Notes Obligations with respect to the Limited Guarantees shall be marshaled against (i) first, the MYT Account or the assets subject to the MYT Alternate Security (if any), (ii) second, the other Collateral and (iii) third, the other assets of the MYT Guarantor Entities.

(5) Subject to the other limitations (if any) set forth herein and in the other Notes Documents, it is understood that the Note Parties will remain liable (as and to the extent set forth in herein except to the extent that any of the foregoing are found by a final and nonappealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the Collateral Agent’s gross negligence or willful misconduct) to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations of the Note Parties.

(6) It is understood and agreed by each Note Party that the Collateral Agent will have no liability for any determinations made by it in this Section 5.02 except to the extent that any of the foregoing are found by a final and non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the Collateral Agent’s own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct. Each Note Party also agrees that the Collateral Agent may (but shall not be required to), at any time and in its sole discretion, and with no liability resulting therefrom, petition a court of competent jurisdiction regarding any application of Collateral in accordance with the requirements hereof, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to wait for, and may conclusively rely on, any such determination.

SECTION 5.03. Securities Act, Etc. In view of the position of the Grantors in relation to the Pledged Collateral, or because of other current or future circumstances, a question may arise under the Securities Act of 1933, as now or hereafter in effect, or any similar federal statute hereafter enacted analogous in purpose or effect (such Act and any such similar statute as from time to time in effect being called the “Federal Securities Laws”) with respect to any disposition of the Pledged Collateral permitted hereunder. Each Grantor understands that compliance with the Federal Securities Laws might very strictly limit the course of conduct of the Collateral Agent if the Collateral Agent were to attempt to dispose of all or any part of the Pledged Collateral, and might also limit the extent to which or the manner in which any subsequent transferee of any Pledged Collateral could dispose of the same. Similarly, there may be other legal restrictions or limitations affecting the Collateral Agent in any attempt to dispose of all or part of the Pledged Collateral under applicable Blue Sky or other state securities laws or similar laws analogous in purpose or effect. Each Grantor acknowledges and agrees that in light of such restrictions and limitations, the Collateral Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may (1) proceed to make such a sale whether or not a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Pledged Collateral or part thereof shall have been filed under the Federal Securities Laws or, to the extent applicable, Blue Sky or other state securities laws and (2) approach and negotiate with a single potential purchaser to effect such sale. Each Grantor acknowledges and agrees that any such sale might result in prices and other terms less favorable to the seller than if such sale were a public sale without such restrictions. In the event of any such sale, the Collateral Agent will incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Pledged Collateral at a price that the Collateral Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might have been realized if the sale were deferred until after registration as aforesaid or if more than a single purchaser were approached. The provisions of this Section 5.03 will apply notwithstanding the existence of a public or private market upon which the quotations or sales prices may exceed substantially the price at which the Collateral Agent sells.

INDEMNITY, SUBROGATION AND SUBORDINATION

SECTION 6.01. Contribution and Subrogation. Subject to Sections 2.07, 2.08 and 6.02, each Guarantor (a “Contributing Guarantor”) agrees that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Guarantor hereunder (the “Claiming Guarantor”), the Contributing Guarantor shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to the amount of such payment or the greater of the book value or the fair market value of such assets, as applicable, in each case multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the net assets (as determined in accordance with GAAP) of such Contributing Guarantor at the time of such payment and the denominator will be the aggregate net assets (as determined in accordance with GAAP) of all the Guarantors at such time (or, in the case of any Guarantor becoming a party hereeto pursuant to Section 7.16 hereof, the date of the supplement hereto executed and delivered by such Guarantor).

SECTION 6.02. Subordination.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all rights of the Guarantors under Section 6.01 hereof and all other rights of indemnity, contribution or subrogation of the Guarantors under applicable law or otherwise will be fully subordinated to the payment in full in cash or immediately available funds of the Secured Obligations until such time as this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Section 7.15(1). No failure on the part of the Issuer or any Guarantor to make the payments required by Section 6.01 (or any other payments required under applicable law or otherwise) will in any respect limit the obligations and liabilities of the Issuer with respect to the Secured Obligations or any Guarantor with respect to its obligations hereunder, and the Issuer shall remain liable for the full amount of the Secured Obligations and each Guarantor shall remain liable for the full amount of its obligations hereunder.

(2) The Guarantors hereby agree that all Indebtedness and other monetary obligations owed by it to any other Guarantor or any Subsidiary will be fully subordinated to the payment in full in cash or immediately available funds of the Secured Obligations.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 7.01. Notices. All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 13.1 of the Indenture. All communications and notices hereunder to any Grantor will be given to it in care of the Issuer, with such notice to be given as provided in Section 13.1 of the Indenture.

SECTION 7.02. Security Interest Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent hereunder, the Security Interest in the Article 9 Collateral, the security interest in the Pledged Collateral and all obligations of each Grantor hereunder will be absolute and unconditional irrespective of:
any lack of validity or enforceability of the Indenture, any other Notes Document, any agreement with respect to any of the Secured Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing;

(2) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Secured Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Indenture, any other Notes Document or any other agreement or instrument;

(3) any exchange, release or non-perfection of any Lien on other collateral, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee, securing or guaranteeing all or any of the Secured Obligations; or

SECTION 7.03. Limitation By Law. All rights, remedies and powers provided in this Agreement may be exercised only to the extent that the exercise thereof does not violate any applicable provision of law, and all the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be subject to all applicable mandatory provisions of law that may be controlling and to be limited to the extent necessary so that they will not render this Agreement invalid, unenforceable, in whole or in part, or not entitled to be recorded, registered or filed under the provisions of any applicable law.

SECTION 7.04. Binding Effect; Several Agreement. This Agreement will become effective as to any party to this Agreement when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such party is delivered to the Collateral Agent and a counterpart hereof is executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent, and thereafter will be binding upon such party and the Collateral Agent and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and will inure to the benefit of such party, the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns, except that no party shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein or in the Collateral (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, the Indenture. This Agreement will be construed as a separate agreement with respect to each Grantor and may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to any Grantor without the approval of any other Grantor and without affecting the obligations of any other Grantor hereunder.

SECTION 7.05. Successors and Assigns. Section 7.05 of the Second Lien Notes Collateral Agreement, dated as of the date hereof, among the grantors party thereto, the Collateral Agent and the Trustee shall apply to this Agreement mutatis mutandis, and any removal, resignation or replacement of the Collateral Agent thereunder shall be effective hereunder. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all and every obligations of a Luxembourg Obligor under this Agreement shall automatically and without the need for any further formality or authorization pass and be transferred to all and every successors and assignees into which such Luxembourg Obligor would be merged or otherwise dissolved.
For the avoidance of doubt, upon the occurrence of the MYT Reorganization, all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of any Grantor that is not a surviving entity in the MYT Reorganization that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the surviving entities of the MYT Reorganization.

SECTION 7.06. Collateral Agent’s Fees and Expenses; Indemnification. The parties hereto agree that the Collateral Agent will be entitled to reimbursement of its expenses incurred hereunder as provided in Section 7.6 of the Indenture and the provisions of Section 7.6 of the Indenture shall be incorporated by reference herein and apply to each Grantor mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 7.07. Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent the attorney-in-fact of such Grantor for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instrument that the Collateral Agent may deem necessary to accomplish the purposes hereof, which appointment is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. The Collateral Agent will have the right, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, with full power of substitution either in the Collateral Agent’s name or in the name of such Grantor, to:

1. receive, endorse, assign or deliver any and all notes, acceptances, checks, drafts, money orders or other evidences of payment relating to the Collateral or any part thereof;
2. demand, collect, receive payment of, give receipt for and give discharges and releases of all or any of the Collateral;
3. ask for, demand, sue for, collect, receive and give acquittance for any and all moneys due or to become due under and by virtue of any Collateral;
4. sign the name of any Grantor on any invoice or bill of lading relating to any of the Collateral;
5. send verifications of Accounts to any Account Debtor;
6. commence and prosecute any and all suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect or otherwise realize on all or any of the Collateral or to enforce any rights in respect of any Collateral;
7. settle, compromise, compound, adjust or defend any actions, suits or proceedings relating to all or any of the Collateral;
8. notify, or to require any Grantor to notify, Account Debtors to make payment directly to the Collateral Agent; and
provided that nothing herein contained will be construed as requiring or obligating the Collateral Agent to make any commitment or to make any inquiry as to the nature or sufficiency of any payment received by the Collateral Agent, or to present or file any claim or notice, or to take any action with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof or the moneys due or to become due in respect thereof or any property covered thereby. The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties will be accountable only for amounts actually received as a result of the exercise of the powers granted to them herein, and neither they nor their officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to any Grantor for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for their own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

SECTION 7.08.  APPLICABLE LAW.  THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY, DISPUTE OR CAUSE OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE) BASED UPON, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (EXCEPT FOR CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION).

SECTION 7.09.  Waivers; Amendment.

(1) No failure or delay by the Collateral Agent or any Holder in exercising any right, power or remedy hereunder or under any other Notes Document will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or remedy, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right, power or remedy, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. The rights, powers and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the Holders hereunder and under the other Notes Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any Grantor therefrom will in any event be effective unless the same is permitted by paragraph (2) of this Section 7.09, and then such waiver or consent will be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given.

(2) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Collateral Agent and the Grantors with respect to which such waiver, amendment or modification is to apply, subject to any consent required in accordance with Article IX of the Indenture.

SECTION 7.10.  WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.  EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO (1) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (2) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 7.10.

SECTION 7.11. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

SECTION 7.12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will constitute an original but all of which when taken together will constitute but one contract, and will become effective as provided in Section 7.04 hereof. Delivery of an executed counterpart to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission will be as effective as delivery of a manually signed original.

SECTION 7.13. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

(1) Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or federal court of the United States of America sitting in New York County, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding shall be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement will affect any right that the Trustee, the Collateral Agent or any Holder may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement against any Grantor, or its properties, in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(2) Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement in any New York State or federal court. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

SECTION 7.15. Termination or Release.

(1) This Agreement, the guarantees made herein, the pledges made herein, the Security Interest and all other security interests granted hereby shall terminate upon the occurrence of the Termination Date.
(2) A Grantor that is a Subsidiary shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the security interests in the Collateral of such Grantor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted by the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, as a result of which such Grantor ceases to be a Guarantor.

(3) Upon any sale or other transfer by any Grantor of any Collateral that is permitted under the Indenture or this Agreement, as applicable, to any person that is not a Grantor, or upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Collateral pursuant to Article IX of the Indenture, the security interest in such Collateral shall be automatically released.

(4) The guarantees granted herein and the security interests in the Collateral granted herein (except with respect to the MYT Account, in the case of subclause (ii) of this clause (4)) shall be automatically released upon the earlier to occur of (i) the provision of MYT Alternate Security or (ii) the occurrence of a MYT Deposit Event. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the occurrence of the MYT Reorganization, all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of any Grantor that is not a surviving entity in the MYT Reorganization that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the surviving entities of the MYT Reorganization. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the earlier to occur of (i) the provision of MYT Alternate Security or (ii) the occurrence of a MYT Deposit Event, the Equity Interests of NMG German GmbH shall be automatically released.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Notes Document, this Agreement, the guarantees made herein, the pledges made herein, the Security Interest and all other security interests granted hereby shall terminate upon the receipt of the Collateral Agent and/or Trustee of proceeds or other payments pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in an aggregate amount equal to the Guarantee Cap.

The parties will endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

TAX

SECTION 6.01.

(a) The Company and the Holders agree that the Series A Preferred Shares are intended to constitute (x) equity for U.S. federal income (and applicable state and local) tax purposes, and (y) preferred stock described in Section 1504(a)(4) of the Code.

(b) The Company and the Holders agree that:
any increase to the Liquidation Preference as a result of undeclared Dividends is not intended to be treated as a distribution pursuant to Section 301 or Section 305 of the Code or otherwise treated as a distribution that is subject to U.S. federal tax withholding, and

(ii) upon (x) any complete redemption of the Series A Preferred Shares and (y) any other redemption of Series A Preferred Shares that are, in the case a redemption described in this clause (y), held or beneficially owned by a Holder that does not own (including indirectly) an amount of any other class of Capital Stock of the Company that would cause such redemption to be subject to U.S. federal tax withholding by virtue of not being treated as a sale or exchange pursuant Section 302(b) of the Code, the Liquidation Preference is intended to be treated in its entirety as a payment in exchange for the Series A Preferred Shares that is not subject to U.S. federal tax withholding, and not as a distribution pursuant to Section 301 or Section 305 of the Code or otherwise (and in any other case, for the avoidance of doubt, the covenant in Section 6.01(d) shall continue to apply).

(c) The Company and the Holders shall prepare all U.S. federal income and U.S. federal income withholding tax returns and tax filings consistent with the foregoing clauses unless otherwise required by a final determination by an applicable taxing authority or a change in applicable Law or administrative guidance. If the Company (or any other withholding agent, but solely in the event that the Company is not the withholding agent but has determined that such withholding is required) is required to deduct or withhold any U.S. federal withholding taxes from (i) the Liquidation Preference as a result of a change in applicable Law or administrative guidance or (ii) from any current Dividends that are declared by the Board of Directors of the Company and paid in cash, the Liquidation Preference or such cash Dividend, as applicable, shall be increased as necessary so that after such deduction or withholding has been made (including such U.S. federal withholding deductions and withholdings applicable to such increase in the Liquidation Preference or Dividend, as applicable) each direct or indirect Holder receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made.

(d) The Company will otherwise use its commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with Holders to minimize U.S. federal tax withholding related to the Series A Preferred Shares (including in the case of any partial redemption of the Series A Preferred Shares, in determining whether a Holder owns (including indirectly) an amount of any other Capital Stock of the Company described in clause (b)(ii)(y), above).

ARTICLE VII
TRANSFERS

SECTION 7.01. Transfers.

(a) Subject to this Section 7.01, a Holder can Transfer any Series A Preferred Shares to a Permitted Transferee at any time.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Holder may not, directly or indirectly, Transfer any Series A Preferred Shares:

(i) except as permitted under the Securities Act and other applicable federal and state securities and blue sky laws, and then, if requested by the Company, only upon delivery to the Company of a written opinion of counsel in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company to the effect that such Transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act. In addition to (and without limiting in any respect) the foregoing, such Series A Preferred Shares shall only be Transferable to (x) “qualified institutional buyers” within the meaning of Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act, (y) “non U.S. Persons” within the meaning of Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act and (z) “accredited investors” within the meaning of Rule 501(a) (1), (3) and (7) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act;

(ii) if such Transfer would reasonably be expected to require registration or qualification of such Series A Preferred Shares pursuant to the Securities Act or any applicable federal or state securities or blue sky laws, or require the Company to file reports pursuant to the Exchange Act or any applicable federal or state securities or blue sky laws;

(iii) if such Transfer would cause the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended;

(iv) if such Transfer would cause the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to be subject to regulation under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940;

(v) if such Transfer would cause the assets of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to be deemed “Plan Assets” as defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or its accompanying regulations or result in any “prohibited transaction” thereunder involving the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company; or

(vi) to a Person that is not a Permitted Transferee.

Any Transfer of Series A Preferred Shares which complies with this Section 7.01 shall be a “Permitted Transfer”. A list of Persons that are not Permitted Transferees may be obtained by contacting Chief Legal Counsel, Neiman Marcus Group, Inc., One Marcus Square, 1618 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, 75201.

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Board of Directors shall at any time determine that a Transfer or other event has taken place that results in a violation of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Certificate of Designation or a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire ownership of any Series A Preferred Shares in violation of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Certificate of Designation (whether or not such violation is intended), the Board of Directors will take such action as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or other event, including refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the books of the Company, or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or other event. Any attempted Transfer of Series A Preferred Shares that is not permitted under the terms of this Certificate of Designation will be null and void ab initio, and the Company will not in any way give effect to any such impermissible Transfer, irrespective of any action or in-action by the Board of Directors. Nothing contained in this Section 7.01(c) will be deemed to prevent a transferor and transferee from disputing the Board of Director’s determination that the Transfer was in violation of Article VII.

(d) Any Person who acquires or attempts or intends to acquire ownership of Series A Preferred Shares that will or may violate the transfer restrictions set forth in this Certificate of Designation will promptly upon knowledge of such violation or potential violation give written notice to the Company of such event, and shall provide to the Company such other information as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Transfer on the Company.

(e) If physical certificates representing shares of Series A Preferred Shares are issued, upon the surrender of any certificate representing Series A Preferred Shares, the Company shall, upon the request of the record holder of such certificate, promptly (but in any event within ten (10) Business Days after such request) execute and deliver (at the Company’s expense) a new certificate or certificates in exchange therefor representing Series A Preferred Shares with an aggregate Stated Value of the Series A Preferred Shares represented by the surrendered certificate. Each such new certificate will be registered in such name and will represent such Stated Value of the Series A Preferred Shares as is requested by the holder of the surrendered certificate, and Dividends shall accumulate on the aggregate Stated Value of the Series A Preferred Shares represented by such new certificate from the date to which Dividends have been fully paid on the aggregate Stated Value of the Series A Preferred Shares represented by the surrendered certificate and reasonably agreed to by the Company. The issuance of new certificates will be made without charge to the Holders of the Series A Preferred Shares, and the Company shall pay for any cost incurred by the Company in connection with such issuance; provided that the Company shall not pay for any documentary, stamp and similar issuance or transfer tax in respect of the preparation, execution and delivery of such new certificates pursuant to this Section 7.01. All transfers and exchanges of the Series A Preferred Shares will be made promptly by direct registration on the books and records of the Company and the Company shall take all such other actions as may be required to reflect and facilitate all transfers and exchanges permitted pursuant to this Section 7.01.

(f) If physical certificates representing shares of Series A Preferred Shares are issued, upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Company (it being understood that an affidavit of the registered holder will be satisfactory) of the ownership and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any certificate evidencing Series A Preferred Shares, and in the case of any such loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Company (provided that if the holder is a financial institution or other institutional investor its own agreement will be satisfactory), or, in the case of any such mutilation upon surrender of such certificate, the Company shall (at its expense) execute and deliver in lieu of such certificate a new certificate of like kind representing the Series A Preferred Shares represented by such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate and dated the date of such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate.

(g) Unless otherwise agreed to by the Company and the applicable Holder, each certificate representing the Series A Preferred Shares will bear a restrictive legend substantially in the form set forth in Appendix I hereto, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Certificate of Designation, and will be subject to the restrictions set forth therein. In addition, each such certificate may have notations, additional legends or endorsements required by Law, stock exchange rules, and agreements to which the Company and all of the Holders in their capacity as Holders are subject, if any.

(h) Any attempted Transfer of Series A Preferred Shares not permitted under the terms of this Article VII shall be null and void ab initio, and the Company shall not in any way give effect to any such impermissible Transfer.

ARTICLE VIII

TRIGGER EVENTS AND REMEDIES

SECTION 8.01. Trigger Events. A “Trigger Event” wherever used herein, means a breach by the Company of its obligations, covenants or agreements in this Certificate of Designation or by MYT Parent of the MYT Parent Obligations and such breach (other than any payment default), if capable of being cured, continuing for fifteen (15) Business Days (which period shall be extended to forty-five (45) Business Days to the extent the breach is capable of being cured and the Company or MYT Parent, as applicable, is using commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach) following the earliest of (a) written notice to the Company or MYT Parent, as applicable, by the Holders who hold at least 25.0% of the outstanding Series A Preferred Shares, (b) an Officer of the Company having actual knowledge of the occurrence of SECTION 8.02. Remedies for Trigger Event. If one or more Trigger Events occur and are continuing the Dividend Rate will increase by 2.00% per annum, until the cure or waiver of all such Trigger Events. The exercise of the remedy contained in this Section 8.02 by the Holders shall not prevent the exercise of any other remedy or remedy by the Holders contained herein.

SECTION 8.03. Waiver of Past Trigger Events. A Holder Majority, by written notice to the Company may on behalf of the Holders of all of the Series A Preferred Shares waive any existing Trigger Event and its consequences hereunder. Upon any such waiver, such Trigger Event shall cease to exist, and any Trigger Event arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured for every purpose herein. No such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Trigger Event or impair any right consequent on such subsequent or other Trigger Event.

TRANSFER AGENT

SECTION 9.01. Transfer Agent, Registrar and Paying Agent. The duly appointed Transfer Agent, registrar and paying agent for the Series A Preferred Shares shall be American Transfer & Trust Company, LLC. The Company may, in its sole discretion, appoint any other Person to serve as Transfer Agent, registrar or paying agent for the Series A Preferred Shares and thereafter may remove or replace such other Person at any time. Upon any such appointment, removal or replacement, the Company shall send notice thereof by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the Holders.

ARTICLE X

LIQUIDATION, DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

SECTION 10.01. Preferential Payments to Holders of Series A Preferred Shares. In the event of any Liquidation Event of the Company, the Holders shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its stockholders, before any payment shall be made to the holders of Junior Stock by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount per share equal to the Liquidation Preference. If upon any such Liquidation Event, the assets of the Company available for distribution to its stockholders shall be insufficient to pay the Holders the full amount to which they shall be entitled under this Section 10.01, the Holders shall share ratably in any distribution of the assets available for distribution in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 11.01. Amendment.

(a) Subject to Section 11.01(b) and (c), the Company may amend, modify, supplement, repeal or waive any of the terms of this Certificate of Designation or the preferences, powers or rights of the Holders without the consent of the Holder.
(b) Notwithstanding Section 11.01(a), no amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver by the Company (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise), to the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Company, this Certificate of Designation or the Certificate of Designation of the Series B Preferred Stock that by its terms would adversely affect the Holders in a manner disproportionate to any other holder or group of holders of Equity Interests of the Company shall be effective against the Holders (which shall include, for the avoidance of doubt, any amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver of any of the provisions set forth in Article V or the definitions related thereto) without the consent of the Holder Majority.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 11.01(a) above, the Company may not (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise), amend, alter, modify, supplement, repeal or waive any of the terms of this Certificate of Designation or the preferences, powers or rights of the Holders in a manner adverse to such Holders without the written consent of the applicable Holder to the extent that the same shall:

(i) reduce the Compounded Liquidation Preference, the Liquidation Preference or Redemption Price of any of the Series A Preferred Shares;

(ii) reduce the Dividend Rate of or change the time for accrual of Dividends on any of the Series A Preferred Shares; or

(iii) change the terms or conditions of any Mandatory Redemption.

(d) After an amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver under this Section 11.01 becomes effective, the Company shall deliver to the Holders affected thereby a notice briefly describing the amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver. Any failure of the Company to deliver such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver.

(e) No failure or delay of any Holder in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Holders hereunder are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. A waiver of any provision of this Certificate of Designation or any consent to any departure by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries from this Certificate of Designation shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any case shall entitle such Person to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

Dividends will be calculated on the basis of actual days elapsed over a year of 360 days consisting of twelve 30-day months.

The Series B Preferred Shares (inclusive of any and all Dividends thereon) shall rank (i) senior to the Junior Stock, (ii) on parity with all Parity Stock and (iii) junior to all Senior Stock, in priority of payment and in any liquidation, winding up or dissolution of the Company. ARTICLE III

REDEMPTION

SECTION 3.01. Notices to Holders. If the Company elects to redeem the Series B Preferred Shares pursuant to Section 3.07, it shall furnish to each Holder a notice in accordance with Section 3.03.

SECTION 3.02. Selection of Series B Preferred Shares to Be Redeemed. If less than all of the Series B Preferred Shares are to be redeemed at any time, the Series B Preferred Shares of all Holders shall be redeemed, on a pro rata basis.

SECTION 3.03. Notice of Redemption. The Company shall deliver electronically, mail or cause to be mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, a notice of redemption not more than sixty (60) days before the Redemption Date to each Holder to be redeemed.

The notice shall identify the Series B Preferred Shares to be redeemed and shall state:

(a) the Redemption Date;

(b) the Redemption Price;

(c) if the Company is not permitted by Law to redeem all of the Series B Preferred Shares required to be redeemed or if the Series B Preferred Shares are to be redeemed in part only, the number of, or the portion of the Compounded Liquidation Preference of, the Series B Preferred Shares to be redeemed and that, after the Redemption Date upon surrender of such Series B Preferred Shares, if such shares are certificated, a new certificate for such Series B Preferred Shares in a Compounded Liquidation Preference equal to the unredeemed portion of the original Series B Preferred Shares will be issued in the name of the Holder upon cancellation of the original certificate representing such Series B Preferred Shares or if such shares are uncertificated, a notice of issuance of uncertificated shares stating the number of unredeemed, or the Compounded Liquidation Preference equal to the unredeemed portion of, the Series B Preferred Shares of such Holder;

(d) that, if such shares were certificated, the certificate representing the Series B Preferred Shares called for redemption must be surrendered to the Company to collect the Redemption Price;

(e) that, unless the Company defaults in making such redemption payment, the Series B Preferred Shares called for redemption shall cease to be outstanding or accumulate Dividends; and

Solely in the case of optional redemption in accordance with Section 3.07, such notice of redemption, and the related redemption, may, at the Company’s discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of one or more corporate transactions. In addition, if such redemption is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice of redemption shall describe each such condition, and if applicable, shall state that, in the Company’s discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied, or such redemption may not occur.
and such notice may be rescinded if any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied by the Redemption Date as stated in such notice, or by the redemption date as so delayed. The Company may provide in such notice that payment of the Redemption Price and performance of the Company’s obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person; provided that such notice shall not relieve the Company’s obligations under this Certificate of Designation.

SECTION 3.04. Effect of Notice of Redemption. Once notice of redemption is delivered to the Holders in accordance with Section 3.03, subject to satisfaction of any conditions precedent permitted under this Certificate of Designation specified in the applicable notice of redemption, the Redemption Price of the Series B Preferred Shares called for redemption shall become irrevocably due and payable on the Redemption Date. The notice, if delivered, electronically, mailed or caused to be mailed in a manner herein provided, shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, whether or not the Holder actually receives such notice. In any case, failure to deliver such notice or any defect in the notice to the Holders of any Series B Preferred Share shall not affect the validity of the redemption of any other Series B Preferred Share. Subject to Section 3.05, on and after the Redemption Date, Dividends shall cease to accumulate on Series B Preferred Shares or portions of Series B Preferred Shares called for redemption and such Series B Preferred Shares shall cease to be outstanding.

SECTION 3.05. Deposit of Redemption Price.

(a) Prior to 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with each Holder money sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of all Series B Preferred Shares of such Holder to be redeemed on that Redemption Date. Each such Holder shall promptly return to the Company any money deposited with the Holders by the Company in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the Redemption Price of all Series B Preferred Shares of such Holder to be redeemed.

(b) If any Series B Preferred Share called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender for redemption because of the failure of the Company to comply with the preceding paragraph, without prejudice to any other rights that a Holder may have at Law or in equity, Dividends shall continue to accumulate or be paid on the unpaid Compounded Liquidation Preference, from the Redemption Date until such Compounded Liquidation Preference is paid, and on any Dividends accumulated to the Redemption Date not paid on such unpaid Compounded Liquidation Preference, in each case at the Dividend Rate.

SECTION 3.06. Series B Preferred Shares Redeemed in Part. Upon surrender of a Series B Preferred Share certificate (if any) that is redeemed in part, (i) if such shares are certificated, the Company shall issue a new Series B Preferred Share certificate equal in Compounded Liquidation Preference to the unredeemed portion of the Series B Preferred Shares surrendered and (ii) if such shares are uncertificated, the Company shall deliver a notice of issuance of uncertificated shares stating the Compounded Liquidation Preference of the unredeemed portion of the Series B Preferred Shares surrendered.

SECTION 3.07. Optional Redemption.

(a) At any time from time to time after the Series A Redemption Date, the Company may, at its option, on one or more occasions redeem all (or a part, in accordance with Section 3.02) of the outstanding Series B Preferred Shares held by the Holders on a pro rata basis, upon notice as described under Section 3.03 for an amount per share equal to the Redemption Price paid in cash on the Redemption Date set forth in the notice required under Section 3.03.

(b) Any redemption pursuant to this Section 3.07 shall be made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 3.01 through 3.06.
SECTION 3.08. No Conversion. The Series B Preferred Shares shall not be convertible into any other securities of the Company.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Holders shall have no voting rights, except as otherwise required by non-waivable provision of the DGCL. In all cases where the Holders have the right to vote separately as a class, such Holder shall be entitled to one vote for each such share held by them respectively.

TRANSFER S

SECTION 5.01. Transfers.

(a) Subject to this Section 5.01, a Holder can Transfer any Series B Preferred Shares to any Person at any time.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Holder may not, directly or indirectly, Transfer any Series B Preferred Shares:

   (i) except as permitted under the Securities Act and other applicable federal and state securities and blue sky laws, and then, if requested by the Company, only upon delivery to the Company of a written opinion of counsel in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company to the effect that such Transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act. In addition to (and without limiting in any respect) the foregoing, until the Series A Redemption Date, such Series B Preferred Shares shall only be Transferable to (x) “qualified institutional buyers” within the meaning of Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act, (y) “non U.S. Persons” within the meaning of Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act and (z) “accredited investors” within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) and (7) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act;

   (ii) if such Transfer would reasonably be expected to require registration or qualification of such Series B Preferred Shares pursuant to the Securities Act or any applicable federal or state securities or blue sky laws, or require the Company to file reports pursuant to the Exchange Act or any applicable federal or state securities or blue sky laws;

   (iii) if such Transfer would cause the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended;

   (iv) if such Transfer would cause the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to be subject to regulation under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940;

   (v) if such Transfer would cause the assets of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to be deemed “Plan Assets” as defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security...
Act of 1974 or its accompanying regulations or result in any “prohibited transaction” thereunder involving the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company; or

(vi) until the Series A Redemption Date, to a Person that is not a Permitted Transferee. A list of Persons that are not Permitted Transferees may be obtained by contacting Chief Legal Counsel, Neiman Marcus Group, Inc., One Marcus Square, 1618 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, 75201.

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Board of Directors shall at any time determine that a Transfer or other event has taken place that results in a violation of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Certificate of Designation or a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire ownership of any Series B Preferred Shares in violation of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Certificate of Designation (whether or not such violation is intended), the Board of Directors will take such action as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or other event, including refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the books of the Company, or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or other event. Any attempted Transfer of Series B Preferred Shares that is not permitted under the terms of this Certificate of Designation will be null and void ab initio, and the Company will not in any way give effect to any such impermissible Transfer, irrespective of any action or inaction by the Board of Directors. Nothing contained in this Section 5.01(c) will be deemed to prevent a transferor and transferee from disputing the Board of Director’s determination that the Transfer was in violation of Article V.

(d) Any Person who acquires or attempts or intends to acquire ownership of Series A Preferred Shares that will or may violate the transfer restrictions set forth in this Certificate of Designation will promptly upon knowledge of such violation or potential violation give written notice to the Company of such event, and shall provide to the Company such other information as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Transfer on the Company.

(e) If physical certificates representing shares of Series B Preferred Shares are issued, upon the surrender of any certificate representing Series B Preferred Shares, the Company shall, upon the request of the record holder of such certificate, promptly (but in any event within ten (10) Business Days after such request) execute and deliver (at the Company’s expense) a new certificate or certificates in exchange therefor representing Series B Preferred Shares with an aggregate Stated Value of the Series B Preferred Shares represented by the surrendered certificate. Each such new certificate will be registered in such name and will represent such Stated Value of the Series B Preferred Shares as is requested by the holder of the surrendered certificate, and Dividends shall accumulate on the aggregate Stated Value of the Series B Preferred Shares represented by such new certificate from the date to which Dividends have been fully paid on the aggregate Stated Value of the Series B Preferred Shares represented by the surrendered certificate and reasonably agreed to by the Company. The issuance of new certificates will be made without charge to the Holders of the Series B Preferred Shares, and the Company shall pay for any cost incurred by the Company in connection with such issuance; provided that the Company shall not pay for any documentary, stamp and similar issuance or transfer tax in respect of the preparation, execution and delivery of such new certificates pursuant to this Section 5.01. All transfers and exchanges of the Series B Preferred Shares will be made promptly by direct registration on the books and records of the Company and the Company shall take all such other actions as may be required to reflect and facilitate all transfers and exchanges permitted pursuant to this Section 5.01.

(f) If physical certificates representing shares of Series B Preferred Shares are issued, upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Company (it being understood that an affidavit of the registered holder will be satisfactory) of the ownership and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any certificate evidencing Series B Preferred Shares, and in the case of any such loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Company (provided that if the holder is a financial institution or other institutional investor its own agreement will be satisfactory), or, in the case of any such mutilation upon surrender of such certificate, the Company shall (at its expense) execute and deliver in lieu of such certificate a new certificate of like kind representing the Series B Preferred Shares represented by such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate and dated the date of such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate.

(g) Unless otherwise agreed to by the Company and the applicable Holder, each certificate representing the Series B Preferred Shares will bear a restrictive legend substantially in the form set forth in Appendix I hereto, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Certificate of Designation, and will be subject to the restrictions set forth therein. In addition, each such certificate may have notations, additional legends or endorsements required by Law, stock exchange rules, and agreements to which the Company and all of the Holders in their capacity as Holders are subject, if any.

(h) Any attempted Transfer of Series B Preferred Shares not permitted under the terms of this Article V shall be null and void ab initio, and the Company shall not in any way give effect to any such impermissible Transfer.

SECTION 5.02. Remedies for Breach. If the Board shall at any time determine that a Transfer or other event has taken place that results in a violation of Article V or a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire ownership of any Series B Preferred Shares in violation of Section 5.01 (whether or not such violation is intended), the Board shall take such action as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or other event, including refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the books of the Company or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or other event, provided, however, that any Transfers or attempted Transfers or other events in violation of Section 5.01 shall be void ab initio as provided above, irrespective of any action or non-action by the Board.

SECTION 5.03. Notice of Restricted Transfer. Any Person who acquires or attempts or intends to acquire ownership of Series B Preferred Shares that will or may violate Section 5.01 shall promptly upon knowledge of such violation or potential violation give written notice to the Company of such event, and shall provide to the Company such other information as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Transfer on the Company.

TRANSFER AGENT

SECTION 6.01. Transfer Agent, Registrar and Paying Agent. The duly appointed Transfer Agent, registrar and paying agent for the Series B Preferred Shares shall be American Transfer & Trust Company, LLC. The Company may, in its sole discretion, appoint any other Person to serve as Transfer Agent, registrar or paying agent for the Series B Preferred Shares and thereafter may remove or replace such other Person at any time. ARTICLE VII

LIQUIDATION, DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

SECTION 7.01. Preferential Payments to Holders of Series B Preferred Shares. In the event of any Liquidation Event of the Company, the Holders shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its stockholders, before any payment shall be made to the holders of Junior Stock by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount per share equal to the Liquidation Preference. If upon any such Liquidation Event, the assets of the Company available for distribution to its stockholders shall be insufficient to pay the Holders the full amount to which they shall be entitled under this Section 7.01, the Holders shall share ratably in any distribution of the assets available for distribution in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 8.01. Amendments.

(a) The Company may not amend, modify, supplement, repeal or waive any of the terms of this Certificate of Designation or the preferences, powers or rights of the Holders, except with the consent of the Holder Majority.

(b) No amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver by the Company (whether by merger, consolidation, amendment, recapitalization or otherwise) to the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Company or the Certificate of Designation of the Series A Preferred Stock that by its terms would adversely affect the Holders in a manner disproportionate to any other holder or group of holders of Equity Interests of the Company shall be effective against the Holders without the consent of the Holder Majority.

(c) After an amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver under this Section 8.01 becomes effective, the Company shall deliver to the Holders affected thereby a notice briefly describing the amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver. Any failure of the Company to deliver such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amendment, alteration, modification, supplement, repeal or waiver.

(d) No failure or delay of any Holder in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Holders hereunder are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. A waiver of any provision of this Certificate of Designation or any consent to any departure by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries from this Certificate of Designation shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any case shall entitle such Person to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

ARTICLE IX

(a) The Pledgor agrees to furnish to the Collateral Agent prompt written notice of any change in (i) its organization name, (ii) its identity or type of organization, or (iii) its jurisdiction of organization. The Pledgor agrees not to effect or permit any such change unless all filings have been made, or will have been made within any statutory period, under the Uniform Commercial Code in order for the Collateral Agent to continue at all times following such change to have a valid and perfected security interest in all the Pledged Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by such filing, for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(b) Subject to the rights of the Pledgor under the Notes Documents to Dispose of Pledged Collateral, the Pledgor shall, at its own expense, use commercially reasonable efforts to defend its title to the Pledged Collateral against all persons and to defend the security interest of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the Pledged Collateral and the priority thereof against any Lien that is not a Permitted Lien.

(c) The Pledgor agrees, at its own expense, to execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents and take all such actions as may be reasonably necessary or advisable from time to time to better assure, preserve, protect and perfect the Collateral Agent’s security interest and the rights and remedies created hereby, including the payment of any fees and taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the granting of the security interest and the filing of any financing statements or other documents in connection herewith or therewith.

The Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, shall have the right but not the obligation (in its sole and absolute discretion) to hold the Pledged Securities in the name of the Pledgor, endorsed or assigned in blank or in favor of the Collateral Agent or, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder, in its own name as pledgee or the name of its nominee (as pledgee or as sub-agent). Following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder, the Pledgor will promptly give to the Collateral Agent copies of any notices or other communications received by it with respect to Pledged Securities registered in the name of the Pledgor. The Pledgor shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause MYT Holdco to comply with a request by the Collateral Agent, pursuant to this Section 2.05, to exchange certificates representing Pledged Securities of MYT Holdco for certificates of smaller or larger share amounts.

SECTION 2.06. Financing Statements. The Pledgor hereby irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent at any time and from time to time to file in any relevant jurisdiction any initial financing statements with respect to the Pledged Collateral or any part thereof and amendments thereto that contain the information required by Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code of each applicable jurisdiction for the filing of any financing statement or amendment, including (i) if required, whether the Pledgor is an organization, the type of organization and any organizational identification number issued to the Pledgor to the extent required and (ii) a description of collateral that describes such property in any other manner as the Collateral Agent may reasonably determine is necessary to ensure the perfection of the security interest in the Pledged Collateral. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any Lien or the security interest in the Pledged Collateral.

SECTION 2.07. Control. MYT Holdco hereby agrees, upon written direction from the Collateral Agent and without further consent from the Pledgor, (a) to comply with all instructions and directions of any kind originated by the Collateral Agent concerning the Pledged Collateral, to liquidate or otherwise dispose of the Pledged Collateral as and to the extent directed by the Collateral Agent and to pay over to the Collateral Agent all proceeds without any set-off or deduction and (b) except as otherwise directed by the Collateral Agent, not to comply with the instructions or directions of any kind originated by the Pledgor or any other Person. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the Collateral Agent agrees that it shall not give any directions pursuant to this Section 2.07 unless and until an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder.

SECTION 2.08. Voting Rights; Dividends and Interest, Etc.

(a) Unless and until an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder:

enforceable provisions of the Charter, any of the Indentures and any other Notes Documents, such rights and powers shall not be exercised in any manner that could be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect the rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party under this Agreement or the ability of the Secured Parties to exercise the same.

(ii) The Collateral Agent shall promptly execute and deliver to the Pledgor, or cause to be executed and delivered to the Pledgor, all such proxies, powers of attorney and other instruments as the Pledgor may reasonably request in writing for the purpose of enabling the Pledgor to exercise the voting or consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to subparagraph (i) above.

(iii) The Pledgor shall be entitled to receive and retain any and all dividends, interest, principal and other distributions paid on or distributed in respect of the Pledged Collateral to the extent and only to the extent that such dividends, interest, principal and other distributions are not prohibited by, and otherwise paid or distributed in accordance with, the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Indenture and any other Notes Documents and applicable laws; provided that any noncash dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that would constitute Pledged Stock, whether resulting from a subdivision, combination or reclassification of the outstanding Common Stock, received in exchange for Pledged Stock or any part thereof, or in redemption thereof or as a result of any merger, consolidation, acquisition or other exchange of assets to which MYT Holdco may be a party or otherwise, shall be and become part of the Pledged Collateral, and, if received by the Pledgor, shall be promptly delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the same form as so received (endorsed to the Collateral Agent).

All dividends, interest, principal or other distributions received by the Pledgor contrary to the provisions of this Section 2.08 shall not be commingled by the Pledgor with any of its other funds or property but shall be held separate and apart therefrom, shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in the same form as so received (endorsed to the Collateral Agent). Any and all money and other property paid over to or received by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall be retained by the Collateral Agent in an account to be established by the Collateral Agent upon receipt of such money or other property and shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.02. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived, the Collateral Agent shall promptly repay to the Pledgor (without interest) all dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that the Pledgor would otherwise be permitted to retain pursuant to the terms of paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.08 and that remain in such account.

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder, all rights of the Pledgor to exercise the voting or consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.08, and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.08, shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, which shall have the sole and exclusive right and authority to exercise such voting and consensual rights and powers; provided that the Collateral Agent shall have the right from time to time following and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder to permit the Pledgor to exercise such rights. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived, all rights of the Pledgor to exercise the voting and/or other consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.08 shall continue and all such rights shall no longer be vested in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.08 shall be reinstated.

(vi) it will not use such information in any manner intended to compete with the business of the MYT Operating Entities.

(f) Delivery of reports, information and documents to any Trustee is for informational purposes only and its receipt of such reports, information and documents shall not constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including MYT Holdco’s, NMG German GmbH’s (or any direct or indirect parent of NMG German GmbH’s) or any other Person’s compliance with any of its covenants under this Agreement or the Notes. ARTICLE IV

SECTION 4.01. Remedies Upon Default. In accordance with, and to the extent consistent with, the terms of any applicable Intercreditor Agreement and applicable

Requirements of Law, the Collateral Agent may take any action specified in this Section 4.01. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing and the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder, the Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, may exercise, in addition to all other rights and remedies granted in this Agreement and in any other instrument or agreement securing, evidencing or relating to the Obligations, all rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC or applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Agent, without demand of performance or other demand, presentment, protest, advertisement or notice of any kind (except any notice required by law referred to below) to or upon the Pledgor, the Issuer, or any other person (all and each of which demands, defenses, advertisements and notices are hereby waived), may in such circumstances forthwith collect, receive, appropriate and realize upon the Pledged Collateral, or any part thereof, and/or may forthwith sell, assign, give option or options to purchase or otherwise Dispose of and deliver the Pledged Collateral or any part thereof (or contract to do any of the foregoing), in one or more parcels at public or private sale or sales, in the over-the-counter market, at any exchange or broker’s board or office of the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party or elsewhere upon such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable and at such prices as it may deem best, for cash or on credit or for future delivery without assumption of any credit risk. To the extent prior notice is required under applicable law, the Collateral Agent shall give the Pledgor 10 Business Days’ written notice (which the Pledgor agrees is reasonable notice within the meaning of Section 9-611 of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions) of the Collateral Agent’s intention to make any Disposition of Pledged Collateral. Such notice, in the case of a public sale, shall state the time and place for such sale, in the case of a private sale, shall state the time after which the sale is to be made and, in the case of a sale at a broker’s board or on a securities exchange, shall state the board or exchange at which such sale is to be made and the day on which the Pledged Collateral, or portion thereof, will first be offered for sale at such board or exchange. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Collateral Agent may fix and state in the notice (if any) of such sale. At any such sale, the Pledged Collateral, or the portion thereof, to be sold may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels, as the Collateral Agent may (in its sole and absolute discretion) determine. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of any Pledged Collateral if it shall determine not to do so, regardless of the fact that notice of sale of such Pledged Collateral shall have been given. The Collateral Agent or any Secured Party shall have the right upon any such public sale or sales, and, to the extent permitted by law, upon any such private sale or sales, to purchase the whole or any part of the Pledged Collateral so sold, free of any right or equity of redemption in the Pledgor, which right or equity is hereby waived or released. As an alternative to exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, the Collateral Agent may proceed by a suit or suits at law or in equity to foreclose this Agreement and to sell the Pledged Collateral or any portion thereof pursuant to a judgment or decree of a court or courts having competent jurisdiction or pursuant to a proceeding by a court-appointed receiver. Any sale pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.01 shall be deemed to conform to the commercially reasonable standards as provided in Section 9-610(b) of the UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions.

SECTION 4.02. Application of Proceeds. The Collateral Agent shall, subject to any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, promptly apply the proceeds, moneys or balances of any
The Collateral Agent shall have absolute discretion as to the time of application of any such proceeds, moneys or balances in accordance with this Agreement. Upon the request of the Collateral Agent prior to any distribution under this Section 4.02, each Secured Party shall provide to the Collateral Agent certificates setting forth the respective amounts referred to in this Section 4.02 that each applicable Secured Party believes it is entitled to receive, and the Collateral Agent shall be fully entitled to rely on such certificates. Upon any sale of Pledged Collateral by the Collateral Agent (including pursuant to a power of sale granted by statute or under a judicial proceeding), the receipt of the purchase money by the Collateral Agent or of the officer making the sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Pledged Collateral so sold and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication thereof.

SECTION 4.03. Securities Act, Etc. In view of the position of the Pledgor in relation to the Pledged Collateral, or because of other current or future circumstances, a question may arise under the Securities Act, or any similar federal statute hereafter enacted analogous in purpose or effect (such Act and any such similar statute as from time to time in effect being called the "Federal Securities Laws") with respect to any Disposition of the Pledged Collateral permitted hereunder. The Pledgor understands that compliance with the Federal Securities Laws might very strictly limit the course of conduct of the Collateral Agent if the Collateral Agent were to attempt to Dispose of all or any part of the Pledged Collateral, and might also limit the extent to which or the manner in which any subsequent transferee of any Pledged Collateral could Dispose of the same. Similarly, there may be other legal restrictions or limitations affecting the Collateral Agent in any attempt to Dispose of all or part of the Pledged Collateral under applicable Blue Sky or other state securities laws or similar laws analogous in purpose or effect. The Pledgor acknowledges and agrees that in light of such restrictions and limitations, the Collateral Agent, subject to any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, in its sole and absolute discretion, (a) may proceed to make such a sale whether or not a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Pledged Collateral or part thereof shall have been filed under the Federal Securities Laws or, to the extent applicable, Blue Sky or other state securities laws and (b) may approach and negotiate with a single potential purchaser to effect such sale. The Pledgor acknowledges and agrees that any such sale might result in prices and other terms less favorable to the seller than if such sale were a public sale without such restrictions. In the event of any such sale, the Collateral Agent shall incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Pledged Collateral at a price that the Collateral Agent, subject to any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, in its sole and absolute discretion, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might have been realized if the sale were deferred until after registration as aforesaid or if more than a single purchaser were approached. The provisions of this Section 4.03 will apply notwithstanding the existence of a public or private market upon which the quotations or sales prices may exceed substantially the price at which the Collateral Agent sells.

ARTICLE V

Miscellaneous

SECTION 5.01. Notices. All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 13.1 of the Indenture (whether or not then in effect), as such address may be changed by written notice to the Collateral Agent and the Pledgor.

SECTION 5.02. Security Interest Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent hereunder, the security interest in the Pledged Collateral and all obligations of the Pledgor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Notes Document, any other agreement with respect to any of the Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing, (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from any Notes Document or any other agreement or instrument, (c) any exchange, release or non-perfection of any Lien on other collateral, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee, securing or guaranteeing all or any of the Obligations or (d) any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, the Pledgor in respect of the Obligations or this Agreement (other than a defense of payment or performance).
SECTION 5.03. Limitation by Law. All rights, remedies and powers provided in this Agreement may be exercised only to the extent that the exercise thereof does not violate any applicable Requirement of Law, and all the provisions of this Agreement are intended to be subject to all applicable Requirements of Law that may be controlling and to be limited to the extent necessary so that they shall not render this Agreement invalid, unenforceable, in whole or in part, or not entitled to be recorded, registered or filed under the provisions of any applicable Requirement of Law.

SECTION 5.04. Binding Effect; Several Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective as to any party to this Agreement when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such party shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and a counterpart hereof shall have been executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent, and thereafter shall be binding upon such party and the Collateral Agent and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of such party, the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns, except that no party shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein or in the Pledged Collateral (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) except as not prohibited by this Agreement or the Indenture. This Agreement shall be construed as a separate agreement with respect to Pledgor and MYT Holdco and may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to Pledgor or MYT Holdco without the approval of the other and without affecting the obligations of the other hereunder.

SECTION 5.05. Successors and Assigns. Section 7.05 of the Third Lien Notes Collateral Agreement, dated as of the date hereof, among the grantors party thereto, the Collateral Agent, the 8.00% Third Lien Notes Trustee and the 8.750% Third Lien Notes Trustee shall apply to this Agreement mutatis mutandis, and any removal, resignation or replacement of the Collateral Agent thereunder shall be effective hereunder.

SECTION 5.06. Collateral Agent’s Fees and Expenses; Concerning the Collateral Agent.

(a) The parties hereto agree that the Collateral Agent will be entitled to reimbursement of its expenses incurred hereunder by Pledgor as provided in Section 7.6 of the Indenture and the provisions of Section 7.6 shall be incorporated by reference herein and apply to the Pledgor mutatis mutandis.

(b) The Collateral Agent has been appointed pursuant to the Indentures. The actions of the Collateral Agent hereunder are subject to the provisions of the Indentures (including the rights, benefits, privileges, protections, immunities and indemnities of the Collateral Agent, all of which are incorporated herein mutatis mutandis, as a part hereof) and the Intercreditor Agreements. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Pledged Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary and unless otherwise provided in the Intercreditor Agreements, the Collateral Agent shall act or refrain from acting with respect to any Pledge Collateral or any occasion requiring or permitting an approval, consent, discretion, waiver, election or other action on the part of the Collateral Agent only on the written instructions and at the written direction of the holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Obligations then outstanding.

SECTION 5.07. Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Subject to any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, the Pledgor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent the attorney-in-fact of the Pledgor for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder, taking any action and executing any instrument that the Collateral Agent may deem necessary to accomplish the purposes hereof, which appointment is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, subject to any applicable Requirements of Law and any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall have the right, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and after the Collateral Agent has given at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Issuer of the Collateral Agent’s intention to exercise its right hereunder, with full power of substitution either in the Collateral Agent’s name or in the name of the Pledgor, (a) to receive, endorse, assign or deliver any and all notes, acceptances, checks, drafts, money orders or other evidences of payment relating to the Pledged Collateral or any part thereof; (b) to demand, collect, receive payment of, give receipt for and give discharges and releases of all or any of the Pledged Collateral; (c) to ask for, demand, sue for, collect, receive and give acquittance for any and all moneys due or to become due under and by virtue of any Pledged Collateral; (d) to sign the name of the Pledgor on any invoice or bill of lading relating to any of the Pledged Collateral; (e) to commence and prosecute any and all suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect or otherwise realize on all or any of the Pledged Collateral or to enforce any rights in respect of any Pledged Collateral; (f) to settle, compromise, compound, adjust or defend any actions, suits or proceedings relating to all or any of the Pledged Collateral; and (g) to use, sell, assign, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with all or any of the Pledged Collateral, and to do all other acts and things necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, as fully and completely as though the Collateral Agent were the absolute owner of the Pledged Collateral for all purposes; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring or obligating the Collateral Agent to make any commitment or to make any inquiry as to the nature or sufficiency of any payment received by the Collateral Agent, or to present or file any claim or notice, or to take any action with respect to the Pledged Collateral or any part thereof or the moneys due or to become due in respect thereof or any property covered thereby. The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties shall be accountable only for amounts actually received as a result of the exercise of the powers granted to them herein, and neither they nor their officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to the Pledgor for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for their own or their Related Parties’ gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct.

SECTION 5.08. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIMS, CONTROVERSY, DISPUTE OR OTHER CAUSES OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE) BASED UPON, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTIONS 5.09. Waivers; Amendment; Extension of Time.

(a) No failure or delay by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party in exercising any right, power or remedy hereunder or under any other Notes Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or remedy, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right, power or remedy, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. The rights, powers and remedies of the Collateral Agent (on behalf of any Secured Party) hereunder and under the other Notes Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by the Pledgor therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section 5.09, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the purchase of a Note shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default or Event of Default, regardless of whether the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may have had notice or knowledge of such Default or Event of Default at the time. No notice or demand on the Pledgor in any case shall entitle any Note Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Collateral Agent and the Pledgor, subject to any consent required in accordance with the Indenture or as otherwise provided in any applicable Intercreditor Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any waiver, amendment or modification of (i) the provisions of the GCA that correspond to Section 3.01(a) and the related definitions thereto shall be automatically deemed effective as to such section or definition herein without additional action by the parties hereto; provided that in no event shall Section 3.01(a) be amended or modified to require the amount to be paid or distributed by MYT Holdco thereunder to exceed $200.0 million, (ii) the provisions of the Series A Certificate of Designation that correspond to Section 3.01(b) and the related definitions thereto shall be automatically deemed effective as to such section or definition herein without additional action by the parties hereto; provided that in no event shall Section 3.01(b) be amended or modified to require the amount to be paid or distributed by MYT Holdco thereunder to exceed the amount required to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Series A Certificate of Designation as in effect on the date hereof, and (iii) the provisions of the Series B Certificate of Designation that correspond to Section 3.01(c) and the related definitions thereto shall be automatically deemed effective as to such section or definition herein without additional action by the parties hereto; provided that in no event shall Section 3.01(c) be amended or modified to require the amount to be paid or distributed by MYT Holdco thereunder to exceed the amount required to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Series B Certificate of Designation as in effect on the date hereof; in each case, only to the extent such waiver, amendment or modification described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) is not adverse in any material respect to the Secured Parties.
SECTION 5.10. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER NOTES DOCUMENTS (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 5.10.

SECTION 5.11. Severability. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 5.12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute but one contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 5.04. Delivery of an executed counterpart to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed original.

SECTION 5.13. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

(a) Subject to the final sentence of this clause (a), each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that it will not commence any action, litigation or proceeding of any kind or description, whether in law or equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against any other party or any affiliate thereof in any way relating to this Agreement or any other Notes Document or the transactions relating hereto or thereto, in any forum other than the courts of the State of New York sitting in New York County, and of the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, and each of the parties hereto irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the jurisdiction of such courts and agrees that all claims in respect of any such action, litigation or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State court or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, in such federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action, litigation or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Notes Document shall affect any right that the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Notes Document against the Pledgor or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Notes Document in any New York State or federal court of the United States of America sitting in New York County, and any appellate court from any thereof. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 5.01. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Notes Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 5.15. Termination or Release.

(a) This Agreement and the pledges made herein and all other security interests granted hereby, shall automatically terminate and/or be released upon the occurrence of the Termination Date.

(b) The security interest in the Pledged Collateral shall be automatically released, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, (i) upon any sale or other transfer by the Pledgor of any Pledged Collateral that is permitted under the Indentures or this Agreement, as applicable, (ii) upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Pledged Collateral pursuant to Article IX of the Indenture, or (iii) as otherwise may be provided in any applicable Intercreditor Agreement.

(c) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to this Section 5.15, the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to the Pledgor all documents that the Pledgor shall reasonably request in writing to evidence such termination or release (including Uniform Commercial Code termination statements), and will duly assign and transfer to the Pledgor, such of the Pledged Collateral that may be in the possession of the Collateral Agent and has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 5.15 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Collateral Agent. In connection with any release pursuant to this Section 5.15, the Pledgor shall be permitted to take any action in connection therewith consistent with such release including, without limitation, the filing of Uniform Commercial Code termination statements. Upon the receipt of any necessary or proper instruments of termination, satisfaction or release prepared by the Issuer pursuant to this Section 5.15, the Collateral Agent shall promptly execute, deliver or acknowledge such instruments or releases to evidence the release of any Pledged Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this Agreement. The Pledgor agrees to pay all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Collateral Agent (and its representatives and counsel) in connection with the execution and delivery of such release documents or instruments.

SECTION 5.16. Subject to Any Applicable Intercreditor Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) the Liens and security interests granted to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties pursuant to this Agreement are expressly subject to any applicable Intercreditor Agreement to the extent provided therein and (ii) the exercise of any right or remedy by the Collateral Agent hereunder or the application of proceeds (including insurance and condemnation proceeds) of any Pledged Collateral are subject to any applicable Intercreditor Agreement to the extent provided therein. In the event of any conflict between the terms of any applicable Intercreditor Agreement and the terms of this Agreement, the terms of the applicable Intercreditor Agreement shall govern.
